"Dear Alma Mater"

Foreword

If we have preserved in these pages the scenes
you fain would keep,
If you are able in days to come to recall some blessed memory of your high school days,
If this annual ever brings you face to face with an old high school chum and revives memories which Father Time so ruthlessly dims,
If we have shown the spirit, ideals and progress
of this school to the outside world,
Then the chief ideals of this staff shall be fully realized.

Dedication

Lena N. Duncan
my good wishes
will be with you always.

It has been said that the true strength of a community could be measured by the character of its women. If this be true, then we, at Beaufort High School are richly blessed.

In reflecting, we find it difficult to single out anyone person as our best friend. Yet, there is one who is known, loved and honored by the students of this school, one who through her high ideals in life and her pure Christian character has been the inspiration of today and who will be the guiding spirit of tomorrow.

To LENA NELSON DUNCAN

The admired and beloved friend of all, whose interest has been untiringly and unreservedly devoted to the development of this school, this annual is respectfully dedicated.

CLASS POEM

Slowly, with footsteps that linger,
Stilled by affection's firm bond;
Responding, yet somewhat reluctant,
To the call of the great beyond.

Widespread on the hearthstone of memory,
Loudly echoes the sounding refrain,
Soul thrilling, the deeds which are wafted,
Efforts that were not made in vain.
Yet, after our toils and strivings,
We are at the foot of the hill,
To make life worth living is to live it,
It's a task for each man with a will,
Portions, for us, whatever they be,
Bringing their riches or wants in our way;
Never can find those more loyal than we,
As we sing Beaufort's praises forever and aye.

Best of luck with all of your girls. Remember the rides with D. R. and S. A. in the 9th grade. n.a.

As We Began

Class History

We came, we saw, and some lost heart. Piver Island in all its glory greeted the awkward and unsuspecting Freshmen of the class of '49. But after swimming to class, besides ruining all the clothes we had, we became accustomed to what was to be our worry and joy for the next year and a half. Mr. Leary made apologies and the teachers pleaded that we be patient, all assuring us that it could not rain forever. We waited and the reward was ours, it rained some more.

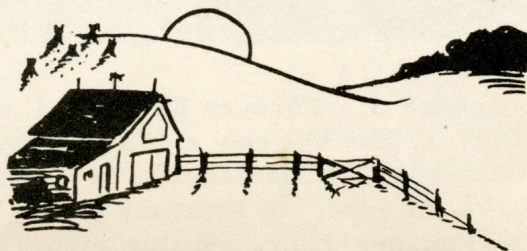

However, we lived through it and returned the next year after having spent three glorious months musing over the fate of the incoming Freshmen. We were the "Lordly Sophs" and the Freshmen who had thought that they were "it" realized that there really was something to the title. Our first week was spent trying to get the greenness out of the Freshmen, our second in trying to beat a true school spirit into them, and the third in trying to get accustomed to not having anyone to boss. Our new school was completed during this year and we left forever the dampness and beauty of Pivers Island. This was also the year of the Sophomore-Senior Hayride, and we proved without a doubt that as a class we could work together.

If there was a year of supposed oblivion, it was our Junior year. We no longer ruled the Freshmen since that was up to the Sophomores, neither could we assume the air of the dignified Senior; consequently, we fell into what we thought was despondency. But in everything there are good features, and we produced, much to everyone's surprise, one of the most outstanding Junior-Senior Banquets ever given in Beaufort High.

Then came the big year, the year we had dreamed of, yet feared we would never reach--Our Senior year. We gave leaders to the Student Council, workers for the betterment of our school, and supported them in all their undertakings. Our interest, dignity and activities marked us as Seniors, and we lived up to all that was expected of us.

But now, "The die is cast." The world that stands out before us waves a beckoning hand and offers to us the fortunes and misfortunes that we must take and keep for our own. Our opportunities in school have come and gone for many of us, while the reckoning time is at hand. The world will soon be the sole judge of our abilities and our advancement now lies in our own hands.

Momentarily we must turn our backs upon our Alma Mater and follow that well worn path out into life to seek what is in store for us. We feel with certainty that our causes are not lost and we will ever proudly proclaim our Alma Mater, showering upon it the credit for our accomplishments, wherever we go.

When you read this dear reader, (that is if anyone reads it) we Juniors will have presented the best, most spectacular Junior-Senior banquet ever produced in Beaufort High School.

Not only that, but we will have had our classmates elected to every important position in the school. Now don't call this conceit, it is merely self-respect. We know that we are the best in High School, the only trouble is that the rest of the students do not realize that fact. Have we not given leaders and members to all the organizations in the school. Have they not provided the best of work in their respected organization. Upon realization of this, it is needless to say that you will agree wholeheartedly with every statement in this discussion of us Juniors. But if you don't agree with us, I hope that you don't read this!

A Sophomore Speaks

Here we are at step number two in our climb to the top of school achievement. How long we will remain here we don't know, but we have come this far.

We have given members to the Band, Glee Club, Student Council, F.H.A., Audubon club and all other activities of the school. Up to this point, we have been successful, but now we have to worry about climbing to the third step.

We hope that our final venture of the year, the Sophomore - Senior party, will be as successful as our other undertakings have been in the past. If so then the remainder of the high school will be as proud of us as we are of ourselves.

Lots of luck always

Freshmen Comments

As we stand on the High School mountain and look out over all the little grade school mole hills, we are proud indeed that we have at last reached the first rung on our new ladder.

From the time we spelled "cat" to the time we spelled "catastrophe" we have made improvements. This year, out of twenty one boys and forty eight girls, we boast six members of the band, seven members of the Glee Club, forty two members of the F.H.A., ten Audubon clubbers, twenty 4-H members, and five basketball players. Also Mr. Leary chose three of our class to be his secretaries.

With our teachers, Mrs. Beveridge and Mrs. Salter, and our class officers, Sheila Smith, President; Gary Copeland, Vice-President; Nancy Russell, Secretary; and Dorothea Gillikin, Treasurer; we are looking forward to many more advancements through the coming year.

With all these activities you can see why you meet a Freshman at almost every turn (except, of course on the balcony and front steeps!) We are proud of our Freshman class, but the question is "Are you."

Best of everything to nice boy.

At the beginning of the school year, twenty boys went out to slave for Beaufort's glory under the tutelage of coach Thomas McQuaid. A few of this number found the going too tough, and by the first game in November seventeen were left. On November 4th the boys played their first game of the season, which resulted in a glorious victory for the men of McQuaid. Their luck-or shall we say skill-held-out most of the season for they had one of the most successful seasons that a Beaufort team has had in several years, having beaten such worthy teams as: Atlantic, Oriental, Vanceboro, and loosing in the regular season only to Camp Lejeune, a team which went to the finals in the state championship play-offs.

In March the team was invited to the Dover Tournament, but lost to Vanceboro a team which they had previously beaten. But for the climax of the season we must turn to the A.C.C. tournament in Wilson. The boys had to go twice, but they not only brought back the championship, but also the sportsmanship trophy. We are all very proud of these accomplishments and we sincerely thank the basketball team and Coach McQuaid for representing our school in such a fine manner.

Girl's Basketball

(KNEELING; Guards) Letitia Simpson, Cora Willis, Rosalie Chadwick. (STANDING; Forwards) Peggy Guthrie, Carol Willis, Iris Davis.

At the First of the year there was much talk about our new girls basketball coach, Miss Shirley Johnson. The girls all hoped for the best and maybe some feared for the worst, but very few foresaw the success that the girls team was to have under its new coach. Not only did they win their first game but they continued to win even after the boys lost their first game to Camp Lejeune. But work and prayer didn't seem to be enough to enable the girls to turn back a determined Smyrna team for the third time, so Beaufort lost their first game. Still unrecovered four days later they lost again, this time to Atlantic whom they had also twice previously beaten. But after this the girls won all of the remaining games except another to Smyrna, a heartbreaking one point loss on top of being the last game of the regular season.

After the end of the season, the team was invited to the Newburn Tournament and after that, to the Dover Tournament, but they were tired after a long hard season and couldn't get beyond the first round at Newburn or the second at Dover. Nevertheless we are very proud of our girls basketball team, and thank them just as wholeheartedly and sincerely as we did the boys for their fine work in representing our school.

Mary Fond Mason, Clifton Lynch, Sarah Mason. Take a good look at them, this is the last year that you will be able to see them in that garb. After so many years of faithfully and enthusiastically leading the cheering at our games and pep rallies, they are graduating. Though this has been Clifton's first year as a regular cheer leader, he has brought forth cheers from us as though he were doing it when he was born. As for Mary Fond and Sarah, they have been the regulars for the last three years and they gave notice of this fact when they were in action. We are going to miss them terribly for we know that the gym just won't be the same without them screaming their throats out for dear old B.H.S.

TOURNAMENT NOTES

Here are a few facts about the basketball tournaments which the girls and boys of Beaufort played in. As has been said before, the boys had to go to the A.C.C. Tournament in Wilson twice to win the Championship Trophy although they won the Sportsmanship Trophy on the first trip. This was because Winner and second place teams used eneligable players in attaining the places they did. Jimmy Fodrie was named on the all tournament team, while A. C. Blankinship was named on the second team. The boys also entered the Dover tournament but they were not so lucky as before, for they lost the second game.

The girls entered the Dover and New Burn tournaments, but were only able to win one game in the two events. However, one of our star guards, Rosalie Chadwick was named on the all tournament team at New Burn, and missed the Most Valuable Player Award by only one vote, even though she had played in only one game.

But now we must say farewell to such players as Rosalie Chadwick, Julia Simpson, Cora Willis on the girl's team and A. C. Blankinship, Jimmy Piner, Charles Stuart and Alton Willis on the boy's team. They have served their school well, and we will sorely miss them in the future.

The Glee Club is one of the most active organizations in the school, having given performances at a P.T.A. meeting at Christmas and a program of sacred music at the Methodist Church, we also entered the State contest at Greenville, and went caroling at Christmas. But the climax of the year was the Spring concert in May. With the proceeds of this performance we finished paying for our long needed robes.

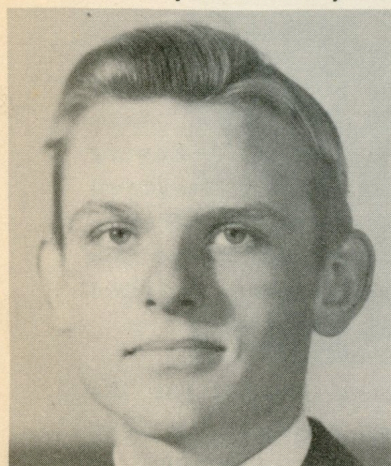

We the departing Seniors wish to thank our director, Mrs. Hassell for the wonderful training and experience which we have received while in the Glee Club, and also for the good times we have had while under her direction.
