COMPLIMENTS OF WEBB'S

Senior Class History

We are on the stage with a huge curtain before us. Our hearts beat with excitement; our time has come-for four years we have worked and waited for this moment. We walk proudly upon the stage and play our part. The curtain opens!

We see the class of 1951 as they were Freshmen. The class consists of thirty-five students. As the year advances many of our classmates drop out. Leaving twenty students to go up as Sophmores. The curtain closes on our first year in High School.

The lights go out as the second act of our High School life begins. Being a smaller class now we are better friends and work harder. Again one of our classmates leaves us to join the Air Force.

The girls and boys of our class were waitresses at the Junior-Senior banquet. The banquet was a great success and every one enjoyed it.

The curtain closes on our second year of High School.

Our vacation days passed quickly by and then we came back as Juniors. Our class is very excited for we had worked two long years for this place.

With the class working hard work we put on a very successful Junior play.

Another event was the hard work of the class to sell advertisements to make a large curtain. The proceeds from this the class donated to the buying of science equipment.

The biggest event of the year was the Junior-Senior reception. Even the hard work that it took to make the reception a success was fun. We almost thought we were at a circus as we saw the large tent and all the clowns.

The last act of our drama was drawing near. Next year we would be Seniors.

The days passed quickly and we came back to a new building.

Our Senior play was a success. As guests at the Junior-Senior banquet we dined at the famous Stork Club. The class went on a swimming party and later on a beach party. Mrs. Clyde Mason gave a delightful party for the Seniors. The girls of the class enjoyed two pajama parties given for them.

At last, commencement came. The goal we had worked for so long arrived. With great reluctance we realized this was good-by, but our spirit rose as we each saw ourselves in the distant future.

Senior Class Will

We, the Senior Class of Atlantic High School, being of feeble mind and disposing disposition; and being on the verge of abandoning these stately halls of learning, do make this our last will and testament hereby declaring null and void all other wills or promises extracted from us under pressure.

ARTICLE I

To our beloved faculty we leave our splendid grades and good behavior to the end that we are living examples of all that may be good and studious, held up by them to inspire the oncoming class to reach the goal that we have attained.

ARTICLE II

To the Junior Class we leave all our Senior privileges, our Senior dignity and the pleasure of getting out the annual. The first will be gained by bestowal, the second by acquisition, the third by perpiration.

To the Sophomores, because of their dire need, we leave our brilliancy and "pep", with sincere hopes that they may use them both in Literary and Athletic fields.

To the class of '52 we bequeath all our science and English notebooks to relieve them of the customary weeping and gnashing of teeth caused by such necessary evils.

ARTICLE III

Joan Mason leaves her ability to draw to Rodney Nelson
Jack Rose leaves his athletic ability to Buddy Willis
Faye Styron leaves the echoes of her hearty laughs to resounding halls of the school building.
Ronald Daniels leaves his height to Bruce Fulcher
Martha Daniels leaves her fat to Myrna Salter
Makely Salter leaves his supply of jokes to Paul Tosto
Jo-Ann Morris leaves her all-around personality to Rebecca Salter

Jack Lewis leaves his ability to keep a steady girl to Gary Morris

Frances G. Daniels leaves her happy married days to Patsy R. Lewis

Joe Mason leaves his reckless driving to anyone who wants to die young.

Varena Gaskill leaves all the boys to Mary Lee Mason

Harold Daniels leaves his ability to sleep on class to Jean Morris

Lena Taylor leaves her dependability to Merle Mason

Milton Smith leaves his catchers mitt to William Salter

Rodger Salter leaves his quiet ways to Kenneth Daniels

Billy Ricks leaves his curly hair to Kenneth Daniels and his good times to Freddy Smith

Gary Day leaves his fast talking to Paul Tosto
