CLASS HISTORY

It all began twelve years ago on September 1, 1940, when 30 shy youngsters began their first day of their first year of school. It would be difficult to sum up in a few words what that important day meant to each of us for there were big smiles painted on the faces of some while big tears rolled down the cheeks of others. There was happiness mixed with sadness but most of all the excitement of the new adventure--the adventure of learning. Our teacher was the memorable, Mrs. Starling, who began us on the road of knowledge. None of us can ever forget our first month and our first report card, for on the first line of most of our cards was the big word, "Satisfactory." Only seven of the original group have remained to finish the voyage together, these are: Joyce Cannon, Nancy Henderson, Annie Eliza Melton, Mary Ann Midgett, Carl Milsted, Patricia Sewell, and Rachel Wade. Eleanor Hatsell was added to our class during this first year also.

We were really advancing up the ladder of learning, we thought, for we were intelligent 2nd graders now. A little difficulty entered when we had to master spelling and also learning how to tie our shoe strings. This year our teacher was Mrs. Nixon.

Another year and this year we all had a real problem, and that was learning how to multiply. At the beginning of the year we had Mrs. Wilson but during the year we changed teachers and we had Mrs. Mattie Privitte. To learn or not to learn, that was the question, and I might add a real problem.

In the fourth grade we set up our own hospital. We could hardly wait until recess when we could all go out and play. The favorite game for the girls was playing nurse and doctoring the boys, while the boys played the part of the "Warriors" and would come in from the battlefields prepared for our medical treatment. Speaking of wounds, we were all wounded by geography that year--maps, maps, and more maps. We enjoyed having Miss Capps for our teacher that year and especially enjoyed the nice Surprise Easter Party she gave us.

The fifth grade holds a memory for us which we would like to forget, and that was the memory of a nurse with a big, long needle in her hand, Ug! Our first typhoid shots. This year we all welcomed Betty Jean Taylor with her long red curls, and also another addition was Sara Nunnery.

I don't believe there is a one of us who could forget our teacher this year, Mrs. Lillian Ray, nor shall we ever forget the songs we sang--Fellow class mates, remember, "Boola, Boola" and "Coming Through the Rye"? We were very proud of Willie Ray Heath and Rachel Wade who won the School and County D. A. R. speaking contest. Geography was still like an unmovable stone in our pathway, Ah! for recess.

Half of our school years were over, six years had seemed a long time but six more, oh my aching back! We felt as though we had just come back from Christmas holidays because Mrs. Ray was again our teacher. Our class was increased by Odell Rhue and Leonard Walker this year. Most of the girls were interested in Volley Ball but the boys on the other hand were interested in "Foolery."

Ah! the 8th grade held a lot for us, for it had seemed that it would never come. For the first time we had a man teacher, Mr. Farnell, and we really enjoyed having him, for we learned quite a lot about History, Politics, and Religion, and especially became interested in poetry. There was the big question for the girls of, "Should I wear lipstick?" Then the big night arrived--graduation, and we all appeared awaiting our chance to walk across the stage and receive our diplomas--from grammar school to high school. Reginald Rhue joined us this year.

High School at last and we really took that first word to heart or shall I say to our heads, but we soon came down to earth when we realized just how much work we had ahead of us. Our home room teacher was Mrs. Jarvis, who was new and very pretty. Changing classes was really something new for us, and half the time we found ourselves running up and down the hall asking what period it was. Annie Melton and Willie Ray Heath won the D. A. R. speaking contest. Our class was increased by Gunter Maness, Helen Boney, Margaret Brown, Shirley Collins, Iris Culpepper, and Evelyn Taylor. Our class officers were: Eleanor Hatsell, President; Rachel Wade, Vice President; and Pat Sewell, Secretary.

We had a new principal when we came back to school the next year, Mr. Honeycutt and a lot of new rules with him. Rachel Wade was our President; Mary Ann Midgett, Vice President; Helen Boney, Secretary; and Joyce Cannon, Treasurer. Odell Rhue, Annie Melton, Nancy Henderson, and Eleanor Hatsell were in a debating contest and went to E. C. C. Mr. Bender was our home room teacher who we will never forget for Science and Biology. We really ended our Sophomore year with something we won't forget and that was our Class Picnic at Flanners Beach. Ah, Sweet chilly memories.

Our Junior year and we had as our home teacher the one whom we wished we would have, Mrs. Alma Warf. We ordered our rings and soon received them, most of us went around all day looking at our rings instead of where we were going. Our class funds were increased by selling magazine subscriptions from which we made $187. We donated $50 of our earnings for the Athletic Bus. We gave our Junior Play in February, "Don't Take My Penny," the profit of which looked good added to our funds. We have Mrs. Warf to thank for the success of our play. Nancy Henderson, Rachel Wade, Mary Ann Midgett, Shirley Collins, Alvin Smith, Odell Rhue, Carl Milsted, and Patricia Sewell all had the privilege of attending the Beta Club Convention in Ashville during April. This year Will Heath led our class as President, Vice President was Mary Ann Midgett, Secretary, Pat Sewell and Treasurer, Carl Milsted. At last the big night arrived, we put forth much labor and hard work in making the Junior-Senior Banquet a big success and it proved to be just that. Our theme was a Pirate Ship. Another big night and that was graduation. Chosen out of our class as marshalls, were Helen Boney, Patricia Sewell, Alvin Smith and Shirley Collins, with Nancy Henderson as chief marshall.

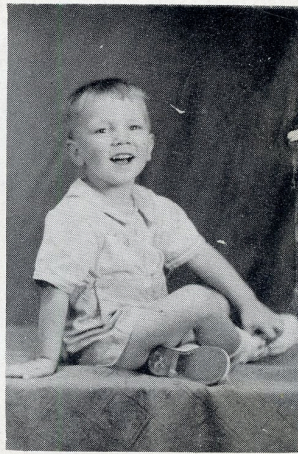

Our Senior year at last, we had come a long way and it hadn't all been up-hill by any means but we have had a wonderful time. This was indeed a busy year for all of us. At the beginning of the year we sold Christmas Candy to increase our funds and also sponsored the Sadie Hawkins Dance. We had a Christmas Party at which time we gave our home room teacher, Mr. Frazelle, a watch as a token of our appreciation for the kindness and patience he has shown us. Class officers were chosen as follows: Carl Milsted, President; Mary Ann Midgett, Vice President; Shirley Collins, Secretary; and Reginald Rhue, Treasurer. Our class play, "Murdered Alive," which was given during the latter part of the year proved to be a big success. Two main events of the year which we all looked forward to was the Junior-Senior Banquet and our trip to Washington, D. C. Finally the big night arrived, Graduation at last. We all received our diplomas with smiles on our faces and though we would miss all our class mates, we were happy. We made plans to all meet again at the school on January 1, 1957.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Be it known to all persons, that we, the Senior Class of 1952, of Swansboro High School, in the county of Onslow, in the state of North Carolina being of lawful age, of sound mind, memory, and judgement, having completed twelve years at said institution, and having denied all previous wills made by us may justly leave these, our properties, with these, our successors.

We do hereby, make, publish, and declare the following to be our last will and testament:

The Senior Class leaves the Class of '53 the title of "Seniors" also our dignity, hoping that they will cultivate the latter in order to be worthy of the former.

To the Class of '54, we leave all our playthings to keep them happy.

To the Class of '55, we leave our good behavior and ability to study.

Individual bequests are the following:

Helen Boney leaves her blonde hair to Lois Merrill so that she won't have to buy Peroxide.

Douglas Brown leaves his quiet manner to Terry Hatsell.

Margaret Brown leaves her ability to flirt to Dorothy Merrill, and her ability to Jerk Sodas to another member of the Holt family.

Joyce Cannon leaves her quiet ways and ability to keep her nose out of other people's business to the Freshman Class.

Shirley Collins leaves her ability to "snag" a Freshman to Pat Riggs, and her "window gazing" to Mr. Frazelle.

Iris Culpepper leaves her ability to get an engagement ring and also a "man" to Gwendolyn Watson.

Eleanor Hatsell leaves her vocal ability to Joan Burt and her ability to "tickple the ivories" to Charles Furlong.

Nancy Henderson leaves her share in stock in Belks Dept. Store to Bernice New, and her long fingernails to Jo Brandt.

Annie Eliza Melton leaves her place in Roses's 5 & 10 cent store to Grace Odum.

Mary Ann Midgett leaves her ability to have a portrait in a Jacksonville Studio to Cleo Watson.

Carl Milsted leaves his two front teeth to Keith Littleton.

Hugh Murdock wills his athletic ability to anyone who would like to play football and baseball.

Sara Nunnery leaves her height and ability to "reach the goal" to Glinda Winberry.

Odell Rhue wills his musical ability to Ernest Phillips, and his ability to "snag" a Sophomore to Van Riggs.

Reginald Rhue leaves his height to Russell Riggs.

Sherril Riggs wills his slow motion to Billy Underseith in hopes that he won't develop heart trouble from dashing around.

Patricia Sewell leaves her figure to Edna Brite, and her freckles to Florence Gearhart.

Evelyn Taylor leaves her bright imagination to Tucker Littleton.

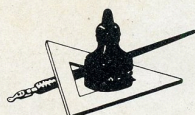

Rachel Wade leaves her "poodle" hair-cut to Barbara Trexler.

Leonard Walker wills his flirty ways to Louis Russell, and his skill for playing basketball to Earl Taylor.

We make, constitute, and appoint our beloved sponsors, J. Paul Tyndall and Jim Frazelle, to be executrix and executor of this, our last will and testament.

In witness thereof, we have hereunto subscribed our names and affixed our seal this 16 day of May, 1952.
