CLASS HISTORY

It all began on a bright September morning in 1941. Never before had we seen so many new faces all in one small place. We didn't know whether to cry or to smile but later decided the smile was preferred. It wasn't so bad having Mrs. Starling as our teacher. She was rather strick but soon we learned to count to a hundred, read and write. We were really intelligent then, for we were ready for the second grade. Only nine have remained to finish this voyage together. They are: Sybil Dennis, Deloris Bell, Margaret Nelson, Jack Provost, Margaret Riggs, Janice Mason, Billy Underseth, Flo Gearhart, and Russell Riggs.

This second year Mrs. Maude Ervin was our teacher. In addition to reading, writing, and arithmetic; spelling was added. We were really master minds.

We looked forward to our third year with Mrs. Thelma Mason as our teacher. She tried to teach us English but finally decided she'd let us try out the fourth grade.

Mrs. Gladys Capps was our teacher. Later on in the year she changed her name to Mrs. Gladys Hatsell. It was in her room that we had geography, a much dreaded subject. Finally, we reached the fifth grade despite all of our hardships.

Mrs. Mary Weeks found us to be "Wholy terrors." Our meanness by that tune was fully developed and we'll never forget her reid, although, we never flinched. We had history this year, another hard subject.

In the sixth grade Mrs. Essie Smith taught us. Our mischievous ways still followed. Between jokes and pranks we studied.

We'll never forget Mrs. Emma Corbett in the seventh grade because she was so easy on us. School by then was a regular routine of jokes and pranks with David Ward as our leader.

Then came our eighth grade. Mr. Farnell was our teacher. We really know who was boss then and we were made to know what the word "study" meant! His reid we'll also be a memorible object. That year we began to think about the opposite sex and to study our history a little closer. At the end of the year we were presented our certificates from the grammar grades, and graduated into high school with pride.

As we moved along through our grammar grades, we gained Pat Holt, Bernice New, Jannery Riggs, Jean Nunnery, Joan Mobley, David Ward, Cleo Watson, Louis Russell, Alton Morton, Earl Taylor, Archie Page, and Thelma Strain.

In 1949 we entered high school. We found it to be quite different. We spent most of our time, at first, in the halls asking "where am I suppose to go next?" We had five teachers instead of one to please and very soon we settled down to work. A few of us went out for sports this year which was a wonderful experience. Our class officers were: President, Betty Hatton; Vice-President, Janice Mason; Secretary and Treasurer, Sybil Dennis. Thelma Strain won the D.A.R. speaking contest and again a new student was added, Shirley Jones. This year "American Education Day" was observed with Pat Holt, Sybil Dennis, Janice Mason, Jack Provost, Archie Page, and Earl Taylor had the honor of teaching for a day. This was wonderful but we were taught the trial and tribulations of a teacher.

Then our sophomore year at last. Mrs. Tyndall was our tenth grade homeroom teacher. Our class officers were: President, Cleo Watson; Vice-President, Bernice New; Secretary, Sybil Dennis; Treasurer, Pat Holt. Jack Provost, Archie Page, Earl Taylor, Louis Russell, Russell Riggs, represented the class in football, baseball, and basketball. Jean Nunnery, Jannery Riggs, Sybil Dennis, Bernice New, Flo Gearhart, Pat Holt, Cleo Watson, Thelma Strain, and Deloris Bell represented the class in basketball. Lois Merrill joined us this year. We will never forget our class picnic at Minnissott Beach.

Our Junior year we had much to look forward to. Mrs. Warf was our home room teacher. Our class officers were selected as follows: Louis Russell, President; Flo Gearhart, Vice-President; Sybil Dennis, Secretary; Janice Mason, Treasurer. We sol' magazine subscriptions to add money to our class funds. We order our class rings and received them in March. We presented our class play "The Bargain Bride" in December. We will never forget "Daisy". At last the night of the Junior-Senior Banquet arrived. We gave the banquet at the Blue Ribbon Club. The marshalls for graduation were Janice Mason, Chief; Jean Nunnery; Pat Holt; Sybil Dennis; and Jack Provost. Janice Mason and Sybil Dennis also represented us "May Day".

At last our Senior year. We still had much work to do. We sold candy at the beginning of the year and sponsored the Sadie Hawkin's Dance. Jean Nunnery was our President; Pat Holt, Vice-President; Cleo Watson, Secretary; Janice Mason, Treasurer. Lewis Ryan and Delores Gardner joined us this year. Our own Deloris Bell decided to change her name and to none other than Mrs. Clifton Humphrey. Our class has also been the first class to graduate with five outstanding members on the Basketball Team. They are Bernice New, Jean Nunnery, Sybil Dennis, Jannery Riggs, and Flo Gearhart. We all looked forward to the Junior-Senior Banquet and our trip to Washington. Graduation was a happy day for we knew that we had twelve long years behind us. We, the class of 1953, left a trophy case with the hopes that our class would long be remembered.

Class Historian,
Janice Mason

SENIOR SATIRE

Earl Taylor is on the beam,
He's the captain of our Basketball team!!

Florence Gearhart is bound to be a nurse,
Until someone takes her for better or worse.

Russell Riggs may be a little short,
But at anything, he's a darn good sport.

Janice Mason is a studious one--
But still has time for plenty of fun.

It is often said that the ladies choice is blond,
Archie Page, is one of whom we are all quite fond.

David Ward is rather shy,
But he's still a likeable guy.

Jean Nunnery is best all-round,
With her personality she'll charm the town.

Lewis Ryan is a great big flirt--
Many girls heart he is sure to hurt.

Deloris Humphrey is good at art,
and is always ready to do her part.

Jack Provost is nice and tall,
and he's liked by one and all.

Margaret Nelson has gotten a diamond new,
She'll graduate with us too.

Alton Morton was voted best dressed
In this field he'll stand the test.

Pat Holt says she'll like to go to college
But after she graduates with us she'll have plenty of knowledge.

Margaret Riggs is our only Missionary
On these fair shores she'll not long tarry.

A very sweet girl is Bernice New,
We think she is grand and know she'll do.

Thelma Strain is really quite nice,
But sometimes has to tell things twice.

Jannery Riggs is really cute,
She looks good in any suit.

Cleo Watson is really hep,
She's a senior with plenty of pep.

Louis Russell a wolf on the loose,
Has many a girls heart in a noose.

Billy Underseith is headed for top,
We know he'll make it without a stop.

Lois Merrill will report with vim,
The latest dirk and society's whim.

Shirley Jones isn't at all new,
But we all think she's a lot of fun too.

Joan Burt neat and trim,
Gets around with plenty of vim.

When Editors-In-Chief of the Annuals meet,
Our own Sybil Dennis can't be beat.

Joan Mobley is very sweet,
Being her friend is quite a treat.

Charles Furlong a sailor to be;
We wish him luck while out to sea.
