CLASS HISTORY

Our Freshman year! We really felt "grownup" changing classes, but all this ended in a few days when the upperclassmen began to laugh at us and our mistakes. Our Freshman class was divided into two ninth grades, Mr. Stewart Daniels' 9A and Mrs. William Cherry's 9B.

Class officers for 9A were Anna Faye Arthur, president; Terry Guthrie, vice-president; Carol Willis, secretary; Eric Pake, treasurer; Priscilla Scott, reporter.

Class officers for 9B were Marcella Waite, president; Jane Lee Willis, vice-president; Willie B. Lewis, secretary; Judith Davis, treasurer; Vesta Golden and Kalani Mason, reporters.

Sophomore Class! We were getting up in the world as upperclassmen in Mrs. Mildred Davis' homeroom. Our class officers were as follows: Judy Davis, president; Clarice Willis, vice-president; Jane Lee Willis, secretary-treasurer.

Ah! Juniors at last! Since we were a hard-working class, we had a wonderful Junior-Senior Banquet.

Our homeroom teacher was Mrs. Anne Salter. We chose the following officers: president, Clarice Willis; vice-president, Brenda Willis; secretary, Kalani Mason; treasurer, Judy Davis.

Our last year! Seniors, happy and sad to be leaving. We are in Mrs. Barbara Willis' homeroom. Our class officers are Brenda Willis, president; Carol Willis, vice-president; Betty Jo Guthrie, secretary; Judy Davis, treasurer; Dan Yeomans, reporter.

CLASS PROPHECY

As I was driving along in my Rocketcar, the other day, while on my way to Washington to deliver a message to the President, I came upon a Palmist's tent pitched alongside the road. The sign read, "Madam Ozark tells the Past, Present and the Future." I decided, "Why not? Now's just as good a time as any to check back on my old classmates of 1959."

I walked in and took a seat opposite the Madam. She looked into the palm of my hand, and the most startled look came upon her face, almost as though she dreaded to begin.

There is BRENDA BAKER who is getting up in the world as a government worker. She is happily combining a career with marriage and a family.

Another scene shows BENJAMIN BROOKS, ROBERT GASKILL, and DANIEL YEOMANS as the head men in the United States Coast Guard.

VIOLET HAMILTON, who already had the Mrs. to her name plus two little girls, has thirty-two more children under her wing, as she is teaching school at Harkers Island.

As she looked deeper into my palm she saw Dr. JOHN OWENS sewing up a few of JOHNNY DAVIS' customers. Mr. Davis, you're supposed to cut hair, not necks!

Oh my—my! My vision is getting cloudy with letter of the alphabet! Oh, so that's it! There are JUDITH DAVIS and BETTY JO GUTHRIE teaching little first graders their A B C's.

Next is another school teacher who is teaching pupils that Betty and Judy had last year. Why, it is SHARON LEWIS, of course!

CAROL WILLIS is flying with Eastern Airlines and is enjoying her work very much.

LEONDA GILLIKIN studied home economics so she could become a better mother to her children and wife to her husband.

Suddenly Madam Ozark looked at me and said she couldn't see anything but lines and more lines, first one way and then another. Oh! There is WOODY HANCOCK, hard at work making plans for his home at Sea Level. Woody, why was it always Sea Level and not somewhere else?

The scene is changing as I see WILLIAM DAVIS taking Mr. Daniel's place as history teacher at our "ole alma mater," Smyrna High.

Wedding bells were ringing for CLARICE WILLIS and NELLIE GILLIKIN graduation night. Now they are both pushing baby carriages down the street. Clarice has a set of twin girls, and Nellie has a set of triplets. All three of Nellie's were boys.

Next is the green lawn of a college campus where a famous military hero, Captain EDWARD LAWRENCE, is a professor at Virginia Military Institution. Make them learn, Eddie.

The last scene shows GEORGE GASKILL filling Perry Mason's shoes, and BRENDA WILLIS taking the place of Della Street as his secretary. Here comes PATRICIA TYSON, the filing clerk, with more papers to be signed.

As for me, I am secretary for John Baresford Tipton. In a few years I plan to collect a couple of his billion dollars for myself.
