Class History

Well, here we are! Seniors at last! But as we finish our last year of high school, we find it almost impossible to believe.

Remember our freshman year? What difficulty we had adjusting to the new routine. We found that Becky Dorman had finally come back to Swansboro again. Charlene Spakes came back that year, too. She had just come from Hawaii and we were interested in hearing about her experiences. Mr. Gobe Smith and Mr. Wayne Benton were our class advisors. We went to Cedar Point Beach for our class trip. We had a very good time swimming and boat-riding. We lost quite a few of our classmates as housewives.

Then came our Sophomore year. This year we gained four new classmates: Boyce Wayne, Jan Edgar, Rudolph Outlaw, and E.C. Barefoot. Our class advisors were Mrs. Hayes and Mr. Adams. The class officers were; Becky Dorman, President; Rodney Collins, Vice President; Susan Jones; Secretary; and Evangline Banks, Treasurer. At the end of the year we spent a day at Atlantic Beach. What a time! We lost still more of our classmates this year because of transfers and more marriages.

Next came our Junior year. Now we were really somebody. Now we could really begin to work for our New York trip. Our magazine sales came first. Boy, did we work! On December 4, 1957, we were scheduled to give the annual Junior Class play. Instead of giving one three-act play, as usual, we gave a variety show which comprised three short plays. After this we began to plan for the Junior-Senior Banquet. Did we have a time through all the moss and crepe paper! Then our class rings came. We surely were proud of those things! For our class trip that year, we toured East Carolina College. This was interesting and it was fun too (since we knew quite a few of the students). Our class advisors were Mrs. Strole and Mrs. Warf. The class officers were; Becky Dorman, President; Rodney Collins, Vice President; Susan Jones, Secretary; and Charlene Spakes, Treasurer.

At last we began our SENIOR year, and our NEW YORK TRIP was soon to come. We worked, worked, and worked for this trip; a barbecue, cake chances, calendar sales, and magazine sales. We left for New York, after the ballgame on the night of November 7, 1958. We toured New York--day and night. We went to the Empire State Building, Times Square, and dozens of other places. No one will ever regret or forget our trip. We were very happy to have Don James join us from Camp Lejeune. Our advisors were Mrs. Ethlyn Hurst and Mr. Ben Quinn. Our class officers were; Becky Dorman, President; Rodney Collins, Vice President; Majorie Smith, Secretary; Charlene Spakes, Treasurer. Now we are beginning to work on our Senior play and are hoping that everyone will enjoy it. We are looking forward to the Junior-Senior Banquet which we are sure we are going to enjoy thoroughly. The great night will soon be here. GRADUATION! As this year is coming to an end, we would like to express our sincere thanks to all the members of the faculty and administration.

By Evangline Banks

Last Will And Testament

The Seniors leave to the Class of '60 the Student Lounge and hope they enjoy it as much as we did.

To the Class of '61, we leave our tour of East Carolina College.

To the Class of '62, we leave our dignity and sophistication.

Individual Bequests are the Following:

Evangeline Banks leaves and if anybody finds anything she left, they can have it.

E. C. Barefoot leaves his ability to play football to Herbert Barefoot.

Elaine Bright leaves her clean notebook and ability to draw blanks in second year French to Claudette Odum.

Nolan Burns leaves his ability to do Mrs. Hurst's English to Clayton Wells.

Gene Campbell leaves his good history grades to Jesse Quick.

Yvonne Church leaves her naturally curly hair to any girl who has to fight bobby pins every night.

Becky Dorman and Susan Jones leave Room 404 of the Century Hotel in New York to anyone who can find out who was under the bed.

Rodney Collins leaves his ability to get a girl friend on his New York trip to Ben Russell.

Patrica Freeman leaves with wishes that her giggles will forever ring through Mrs. Hurst's study hall.

Donnie Fulcher leaves his ability to go to New York, come back, and still have a girl friend to Virgil Hester.

Jerry Gatlin leaves his ability to know and learn nothing to John Metts.

Jacky Hurst leaves his ability to pass French to Bobby Hancock.

Juanita Geyman leaves her crooked little finger to anyone who doesn't want to go straight.

Lester Glancy leaves his appetite to Malcomn Ramsey who can stand a little weight.

Mary Linda Howard leaves her "Miss Mullet Festival Title" to Mildred Thigpen.

Donald Ingram leaves his ability to disagree with Mr. Adams to the geometry class of '60.

Don James leaves to Mr. Adam's algebra class his ability to use the FOIL system.

Eleanor Kellum and Maxine Riggs leave their crazy ways to anyone that wants them.

Preston Mobley leaves his good English grades and his love for school to Jesse Quick.

Fay Kirkman leaves her ability to read shorthand to anyone who needs it.

Jesse Littleton leaves his Bush League haircut to Oscar Schinder.

Howard Newman leaves his ability to get out of school to Charles Strain.

Harry Redfearn leaves to Jessie Ann his good English grades.

Irene Riggs is leaving because it's just too much trouble to keep house and go to school too.

Dorothy Parker leaves her nickname "Blossom" to anyone it fits.

Ted Riggs leaves his trim physique to Jimmy Riggs.

Elizabeth Russell leaves Bus 80 to anyone who can drive it safely.

Velma Russell leaves her history book to Mr. Benton.

A. T. Smith leaves his position on the basketball team to Bob Jones.

Majorie Smith leaves Bus 55 to Danny Kirk.

Charlene Spakes leaves her way of pestering Mrs. Hurst and still being able to not have a "lecture" to Ann Condor.

Donnie Stanley leaves his English book to David Morris, hoping he will receive more knowledge from it than he did.

Jerry Ross leaves his ability to stay away from girls to R. L. Williams.

Betty Taylor says she's leaving without leaving anything, because she'll need it all.

Billy Warf leaves his ability to grow hair to Barry Page.

Laura Watson leaves her ability to hook a boy and go steady a year to Sarah Ann Weeks, but she's not leaving her Howard.

Philip Weeks leaves his ability to wreck two cars in one week to Charlie Watson.

Rachel Wetherington leaves her ability to get an engagement ring to single girls.

David Winberry leaves his ability to afford a pack of cigarettes a day to Clayton Wells.

Pritchard Smith leaves his ability to play basketball to anybody who is in dear need of it.
