Foreword

This is a record of our last secure years—a record of the years when care rested lightly on our shoulders and of a time when decisions were made for us by our parents and our teachers. Soon we shall be responsible for our own decisions, and it is our hope that the way we make them will help us to make succeeding years more secure for those who follow us at Smyrna.

In years to come, years that will show miracles beyond our wildest dreams, we shall look within this book and relive the years when life was simple, and we lived on one small sphere. Whatever the future may bring, we shall always cherish our days at Smyrna; and we leave this printed record as proof to those who come after us.

Dedication

The dedication of this 1960 volume of the WHISPERING PINES to MR. JAMES PARKIN is a small token of appreciation for all he has done for us in school activities. We shall remember him for his unbending effort to maintain school spirit, for his ability to remain steadfast as an anchor in working for a better school, and for his assistance and understanding in all our undertakings. He has been an inspiration and courageous example to us all. We dedicate this volume of the WHISPERING PINES to our beloved coach, MR. JAMES PARKIN.

In Appreciation

The Senior Class of 1960 wishes to express its appreciation for the love and efforts of our beloved parents. With hearts full of the deepest gratitude, we wish to thank them for establishing the basic foundations which will direct us in the years that lie ahead; for giving us memories that we shall cherish and honor though we sail far upon the seas of life; and for having the sincerest loyalty through all our adolescent stages. To our parents we, the class of 1960, say "Thank you."

Class History

On September 4, 1956, Smyrna High School held welcoming arms extended to 64 excited Freshmen. The history of our class may not seem important to others, but to us it is something we will never forget.

The real story of this class goes back to the day we entered elementary school, but to tell all this would take too long, so I will begin with our entering the Freshman Class. Our class was so big that it had to be divided into two groups.

Mrs. Nancy Garner had class 9-A. Mrs. Daphne Young finished the year after it was necessary for Mrs. Garner to leave. We elected the following class officers:

President ... Sidney Rose Gillikin
Vice-President ... Jean Willis
Secretary ... Paul Wade
Treasurer ... Larry Gillikin
Reporter ... Nancy Pake

Mr. Daniels had class 9-B. Mr. Harry Sanders finished the year after Mr. Daniels became the school principal. We elected these class officers:

President ... Melba Davis
Vice-President ... Horace Lawrence
Secretary ... Raelene Smith
Treasurer ... Claudia Brown
Reporter ... Patsy Chadwick

Raelene Smith and Melba Davis were our freshmen marshals.

We entered our Sophomore year with an air of superiority. Under the supervision of Mrs. Mildred Davis, and later Mr. Harry Sanders, our second year of high school proved to be an eventful one. Patsy Chadwick and Virginia Stratton were our popularity contestants. We elected the following class officers:

President ... Melba Davis
Vice-President ... Jean Willis
Secretary ... Raelene Smith
Treasurer ... Joyce Willis

Raelene Smith and Patsy Chadwick were our sophomore marshals. Patsy also won the English award.

We began school the next year as Juniors, planning to have a bigger and better year than ever. Mrs. Anne Salter was our homeroom teacher. Judy Thompson, our popularity contestant, was chosen Miss Smyrna High. The most exciting event of the year was our Junior-Senior Banquet. It was fun planning and working together to make this lovely banquet a success. Our theme was "Oriental Gardens." Our class officers were as follows:

President ... Jean Willis
Vice-President ... Judy Fulcher
Secretary ... Patsy Chadwick
Treasurer ... Virginia Stratton

Raelene Smith was chief-marshal and Melba Davis and Mildred Baum were our junior marshals. Melba won the English award also.

Our vacation seemed to fly by, and the time came when we knew that being a Senior was a reality, not a dream. Twenty-nine of us enrolled with Mrs. Barbara Willis as our class sponsor. We elected the following class officers:

President ... Jean Willis
Vice-President ... Gloria Wade
Secretary ... Virginia Stratton
Treasurer ... Claudia Brown
Reporter ... Patsy Chadwick

We were all eager to begin work on our annual. Our staff was carefully chosen and each classmate began heartily working on our yearbook. Virginia Stratton was chosen to represent our class in the popularity contest. Jean Willis and Sally Hooper were basketball captains.

The day which is most important to all of us is May 31, 1960, our graduation day. It will then be time for us to go out into the world to see what life has for us, to set to work our knowledge and the skills that we have acquired during our twelve years at school.

This is the history of our class, and it will live on and on in our hearts. Although we are far away, we shall never forget our school and our classmates.

Class Prophecy

While I was on my vacation in the beautiful South Sea Islands, I came upon a peculiar little native. He offered me a magic candle at a very small price. He told me that if I believed in magic, I could make any one wish come true. As I lighted the candle with trembling fingers, I wished with all my might to be able to see my classmates of 1960. I gazed into the glittering flame and was amazed to see President WAYNE DAVIS and Vice-President CARROLL HILL of the Beatnik Party, discussing plans for a new world-peace conference. In the midst of this conversation, the president's private secretary, MILDRED BAUM, announced the White House Physician, Dr. ERIC PAKE. After Dr. Pake had proclaimed President Davis to be in perfect health, J. Edgar Hoover's right hand man, Lieutenant PAUL WADE, made his annual report to the president on "Martian" prevention. "Goodness," I thought, "The class of 1960 has really been working to help build a better and more prosperous America."

The scene changed abruptly to a quaint, brick schoolhouse. I peered eagerly into the main auditorium. There was Principal ERIC WADE, with his chief faculty members, CLAUDIA BROWN and PATSY CHADWICK, conducting a P. T. A. meeting. I gazed around the room to see if I could find more of my old friends. There were Mrs. SIDNEY GILLIKIN, Mrs. MELBA WILLIS, Mrs. MELVINA WILLIS, Mrs. JUDY GOLDEN, and Mrs. NANCY STYRON sitting on the first row. Beside them were ten plump little citizens of the first and second grades. I looked into another room and saw that the music teacher, Miss RAELENE SMITH, was trying to keep down an argument between the nation's rival basketball coaches, ROLAND LEWIS and HORACE LAWRENCE. I could well imagine what a tough time she was having, trying to keep peace between the colleges of Harvard and Yale.

My magic candle flickered—I held my breath lest it should go out. But slowly it grew into a bright glow until I could once more see my other classmates in their splendor.

The next thing I saw was Lieutenant General JOHN HILL coming in for a landing in his famous jet. He rushed into his inner office with a model of the new rocket which will be the first to carry the astronauts, TIM LAWRENCE and DALLAS GUTHRIE, to the moon. John's private secretary, GLORIA WADE, has carried the final stage of the plan to Cape Canaveral to be tested for the flight.

The magic candle next showed me a Barber-Beauty Bar. PHYLLIS LAWRENCE, SALLY HOOPER, and CHARLES STYRON have gone into business together. The business has grown so rapidly that Sally has had to hire MARENA NELSON as an assistant to help keep all the money.

Last, but not least, the magic candle brought into focus Walter Reed Hospital. In the research department there was great excitement, as JEAN WILLIS, NETTIE SCOTT, and ANN LEWIS have discovered a cure for puppy love. Social worker, PATRICIA DAVIS, is very happy over the new serum. Half of all the families she has visited have caught this dread disease.

Silently the flame grew dimmer and dimmer until there was but a smoldering wick left upon a small piece of tallow. A great sigh escaped my lips quite suddenly. I looked out into the peaceful seas. The big golden moon sent radiant beams across the waves. I walked slowly down the deserted, silver beach. I felt happy, but somewhat sorrowful. My wish had come true. I knew the outcome of all my classmates' hopes and dreams. Yes, they were happy, because they had chosen and planned their lives well.
