A black and white photograph of a dense pine forest. The image is filled with the intricate, needle-covered branches of pine trees, creating a textured, layered appearance. In the center of the image, there is a semi-transparent, light-colored rectangular area that serves as a background for the text. The text is written in a simple, serif font and is centered within this area. The overall tone of the image is nostalgic and serene, with the natural setting providing a backdrop for the reflective text.

We, the class of 1962, enter our Senior year with an increasing sense of fulfillment. We are striving toward achieving our goal—graduation. For years we have looked forward to the day when we, as Seniors, would walk down those "hallowed halls of Smyrna" and receive our diplomas. Yet, when we think of walking down those halls for the last time we are sad. The memories, friendships, and experiences we have shared during these years are instilled in us and will be with us for the remainder of our lives.

Through this our yearbook, we express our hope that you, the future Seniors, will enjoy and appreciate Smyrna School and its dedicated faculty as much as we—the Senior Class of 1962.

Dedication

Through the years that we have known her, Mrs. Walence has instilled in us a desire to grow in knowledge through improvement of ourselves. Through her wisdom and guidance we have come to realize the value and importance of learning, and using what we have learned to make ourselves better people. If we better ourselves we will better our nation, and in turn will better the world.

With deepest appreciation and greatest pride, we dedicate this, the 1962 WHISPERING PINES, to MRS. GRACE WALENCE.

In appreciation

Note of appreciation

To you, our parents, we would like to express our deepest appreciation for the patience, understanding, and encouragement you have given us in all our school years. We realize that you were helping to prepare us for our life's work. Again we say, with deepest sincerity—"Thank You."

The Halls of Smyrna

Slowly (with much feeling)

Piano

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a series of chords and single notes in a slow, expressive manner. The left hand provides a simple harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

VOICE I
Refrain

Oh, we love THE HALLS OF SMYRNA that sur-round us here to-

VOICE II

Oh, we love THE HALLS OF SMYRNA that sur-round us here to-

Refrain

The vocal staves are for two voices, labeled VOICE I and VOICE II. They both sing the same melody. The music is written in a simple, accessible style with a clear refrain. The piano accompaniment continues below the vocal staves, providing a steady harmonic base.

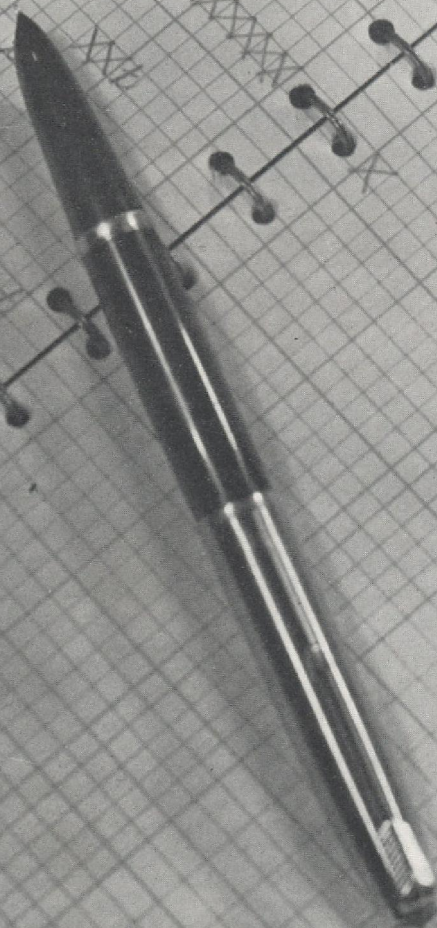

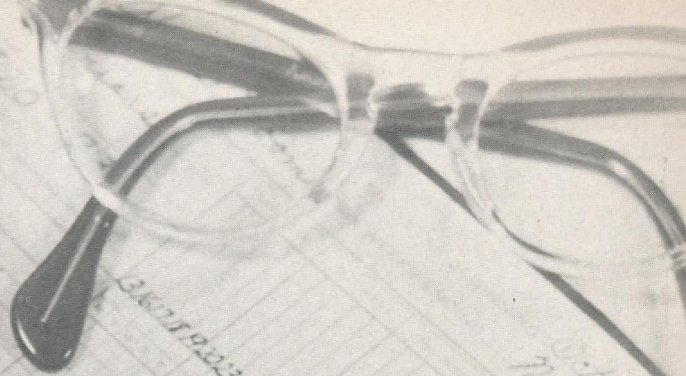

day, And we will not for-get tho' we be

day, And we will not for-get tho' we be

The bottom section of the page shows the continuation of the vocal and piano staves. The vocal parts continue with the same melody, and the piano accompaniment provides a steady harmonic base. The music is written in a simple, accessible style with a clear refrain.

As our days at S.H.S. come to a close, our feelings are a mixture of sadness at the thought of leaving these hallowed halls and dear classmates, and a great pride as we think of the accomplishments and contributions of this Class of 1962 to our school and the various communities in which we live.

For all of our accomplishments thus far, we say thanks to our faculty, principal, and parents without whose constant help our journey would have been extremely difficult, if not impossible.

As we go forth from this our school, which we have loved so dearly, we shall endeavor to justify the confidence placed in us over the years by our teachers and will strive to reach the goals and maintain the standards which they have so earnestly labored to pass on to us.

JORDAN
JORDAN, a river of Palestine which rises in the Anti-Lebanon Mts. in Syria, west of Mt. Hermon, and flows about 200 m. to the northern end of the Dead Sea. In its course it passes through Galilee. Its valley is called the Ghor. The river is not navigable. The southern half runs through the state of Jordan, Israel-Jordan and Israel-Syria borders. The river is mentioned frequently in the Bible. Christ was baptized in the stream by John.

JORDAN, Dorothea, actress, born in 1762, near Waterford, Ireland; died July 3, 1816. She made her debut at Drury Lane, London, in 1785. In 1790 she began a liaison with the Duke of Clarence, afterwards William IV. This relations was broken off, without satisfactory explanation, in 1811, and she retired to the Continent in 1814. King William raised her eldest son to the peerage, as earl of Munster, in 1831, and gave the other daughters of a marquess.

JORDAN, Hashemite Kingdom of, a kingdom in northwestern Arabia. It is bordered on the north by Syria, on the east by Iraq and Saudi Arabia, on the south by Saudi Arabia, and on the west by Israel. The area

JORULLO, a volcanic mountain in the west of Mexico City, famous for its eruption force on Sept. 29, 1762. It reaches 14,300 ft. above sea level. Owing to a tremor in 1900, it was abandoned.
