Foreword

The world is but a stage on which there are many actors. As we, the senior class of 1964, end our study at Smyrna High School, we have completed but one act of a play. As we go on to larger and more difficult roles in this play called LIFE, we hope, through this yearbook, that we may look upon our days at Smyrna as our most memorable and enjoyable part of this play.

It is with great pleasure that we present to you, the student body of Smyrna High School, the 1964 edition of the WHISPERING PINES.

Dedication

As we, the senior class of 1964, end our years at Smyrna High School, we wish to show due appreciation to one who has helped us, not only as a teacher, but also as a friend. His guidance and understanding will be instilled in us always. It is with great pleasure that we dedicate the 1964 edition of the WHISPERING PINES to MR. WALTER FULCHER, leader, teacher, and friend.

Flounder, Book-Moby Dick or Desires.

This month is on Mr. LEO SALTER, new principal. He is a thirty-nine year old man who graduated from Wake Forest College. He would like to cut out the dentist, and the trips.

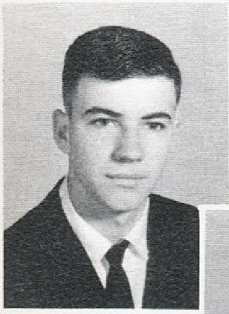

to leave this message to the students:

It is to be expected that to take the opportunity to him, gained.
