DEDICATION

It is with heartfelt thanks and warm appreciation that the class of 1964 dedicates this PIRATE to MRS. ELSIE JONES, secretary of Swansboro High School.

Mrs. Jones graduated from Swansboro High School, and in 1956 she took a Hardbarger's Business Course. Since then, she has devoted seven years of dutiful service to our school as secretary.

Her patience and willingness to help has meant much to our class throughout our four years of high school. We have encountered many problems that required her help, and she has never once let us down. It is with this in mind that we dedicate this annual to her.

Homecoming Queen

This year the Home-coming activities were introduced by a motorcade of the club presidents and class officers. After that the members of the Home-coming Court and their escorts were introduced on the football field.

Six girls had been chosen by the Student Council and six others were chosen by the football team for the Homecoming Court. The football team chose the queen by secret ballot. Excitement mounted in the last suspense-filled moments as Rufus Hatsell crowned Miss Beryl Guthrie as Homecoming Queen for 1963

Scholastic Leaders

LINDA SAWREY

The Marshals are the honorary ushers at graduation. They are chosen on the basis of their scholastic standing in the Junior Class. The seven members of the class with the highest scholastic averages are chosen as Marshals. The Junior with the highest average in the class is the Chief Marshal. On graduation night, it is a very tense moment as the Marshals lead the Seniors down the aisle. It is a great honor to be chosen as a Marshal and an honor of which to be very proud.

Best-looking Ken Jones recrowns our former Miss Swansboro, Theresa Schneider. It is easy to see why this couple was chosen Best Looking.

Superlatives

Nancy Dickens and Dorsey Zielinski, Most Likely to Succeed, are beginning to wonder if they will ever succeed in putting this puzzle together.

Nanette Privett and Rufus Hatsell demonstrate their abilities as Most Athletic.

Senior

Beryl Guthrie and Joe Ellington, Best Dressed, catch the eyes of everyone in their Sunday dress.

"This will teach you who to respect!" says Randy Leblond to Julie Privett. These two were chosen Most Respected in their class.

Superlatives

This seems to be alight load of books for Carol Alligood and Henry Ross, chosen Most Studious.

Band

MR. LESLIE EDMONDS

The band is an essential part of the school activities of Swansboro High School. Football fans enjoy the wonderful half-time programs performed by the band at each game. The majorettes leading the band really represent Swansboro as a high-stepping school.

The band performs in all the local Christmas parades, the Shriner's Parade, the Mullet Festival, and the Azalea Festival.

Beta Club

The Beta Club is a nation-widehonor society composed of high school juniors and seniors who have maintained creditable scholastic records and are outstanding in the principles of leadership, service, and honesty. A scholastic average of 87.5 and a recommendation by all members of the faculty are necessary to attain membership. New members are inducted at the beginning of the year in a special ceremony to which their parents are invited. The Beta Club Convention and the selection of Miss Buccaneer are among the activities of the year. The Beta Club advisors are Mrs. Keller and Mrs. Carlson.

Pirate Staff

The senior editors are (sitting): Carol Alligood, feature; Pam Strole, sports; Frances Dickens, classes; Linda Sawrey, literary; and their assistants respectively (standing) are Betty Lou Dail, Kenny Carraway, Lesli Woodward, Susan Cunningham.

The staff of THE PIRATE is composed of the members of the Beta Club, the school's honor society. The primary job of the staff is publication of the school yearbook, THE PIRATE. The staff worked diligently with the copy, the layout, and the compilation of the book.

We, of the staff, are very pleased with this yearbook. We sincerely hope that you will be as proud of it as we are, now and in the years to come.

Mrs. Carlson and Mrs. Keller, Beta Club advisors, enjoy looking at the pictures for the annual.

The Lady Pirates were coached this year by Mr. Ronnie Ross. The tricaptains were Julie Privett, Nanette Privett, and Pam Strole. The girls practiced every afternoon from 3:15 until 4:30. Robert Sawrey, manager, helped the team by keeping the balls and bringing the girls water during the games. Judy Dudley was score-keeper. The Lady Pirates won the Onslow County Championship which was no surprise to anyone, since their record throughout the season was 14 wins and 1 loss.

IN MEMORIAM

John Fitzgerald Kennedy

In the 1964 PIRATE we have tried to give you a pictorial and biographical history of the Swansboro High School that we have watched mold students in mind, in character and in body during the 1963-64 school year. At this time I would like to thank formally the people who have helped make the 1964 PIRATE possible. The following deserve special recognition:

Beryl Guthrie, Business Manager, whose ability and leadership made the PIRATE a financial success;

Linda Sawrey, Literary Editor, whose imagination and talent in creative writing were all important factors in the presentation of the true story of Swansboro High School;

Frances Dickens, Class Editor, whose clever ideas made our "in mind" section humorously interesting;

Carol Alligood, Features Editor, whose organization and originality brought forth a splendid "in character" section;

Pamela Strole, Sports Editor, whose brilliant selection of pictures made our "in body" section alive with action;

Sgt. Leon P. Leblonde, whose donated pictures made possible the full coverage of our athletic section;

Mr. Frazelle and the faculty who have graciously excused our many necessary absences from classes and our many necessary interruptions of classes;

Nanette Privett, whose artistic talent added symbolism to our introductory pages;

Mr. David Brinkley, whose brilliant judging gave our book a queen of whom we can be justly proud and finally

Mrs. Keller and Mrs. Carlson, Advisors, whose kind assistance and never-ending patience made the success of our book possible.

Respectfully yours,

Judy L. Dudley Editor-in-chief
