Foreword

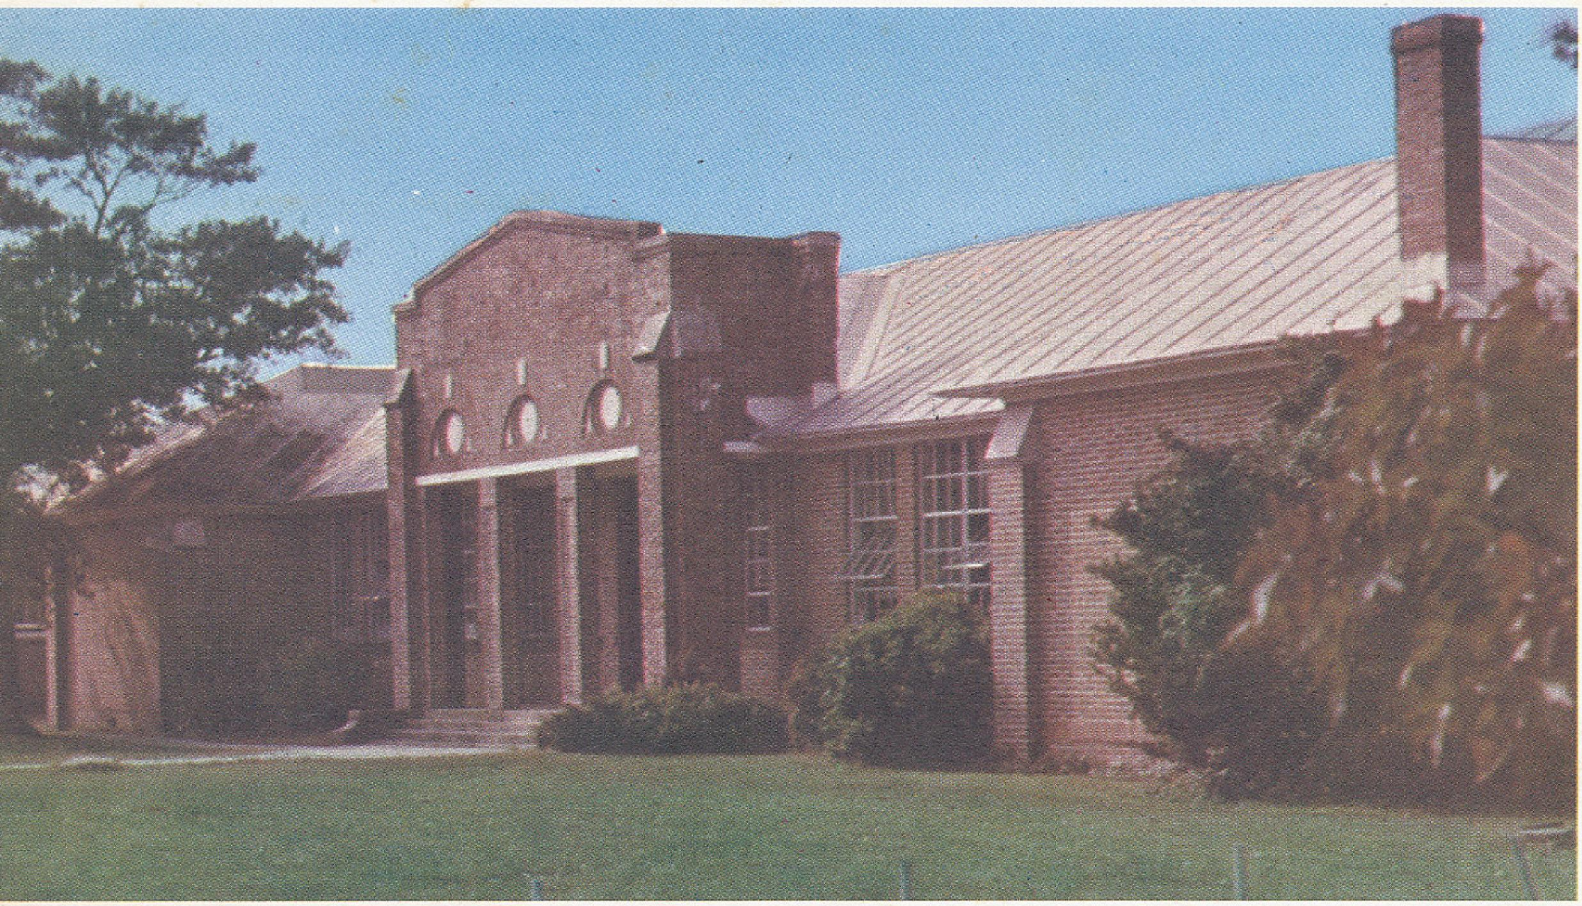

Looking at these pages one might ask, "What does a boat and school have in common?" For those of us who live along the coast, the answer is obvious.

Before a boat becomes a thing of beauty and a seaworthy craft, it must, with love, consideration, and care, be molded, assembled, sanded, polished, and equipped with the best materials available.

As we, the SENIOR CLASS of 1965, lift anchor to sail into the seas of life, we shall use the knowledge gained in this institution as a compass guiding us through the storms as well as the calms. We then might answer your question with a question, "Don't YOU see a comparison?"

Dedication

Honoring . . .

We, the Senior Class of 1965, dedicate this issue of the WHISPERING PINES to you, because we have found you to be an outstanding person. We look up to you for guidance, leadership, understanding, and companionship. We admire you for the way you carry out your work at school and home. We hope you will place our class among your most treasured memories, for we have placed you among ours.

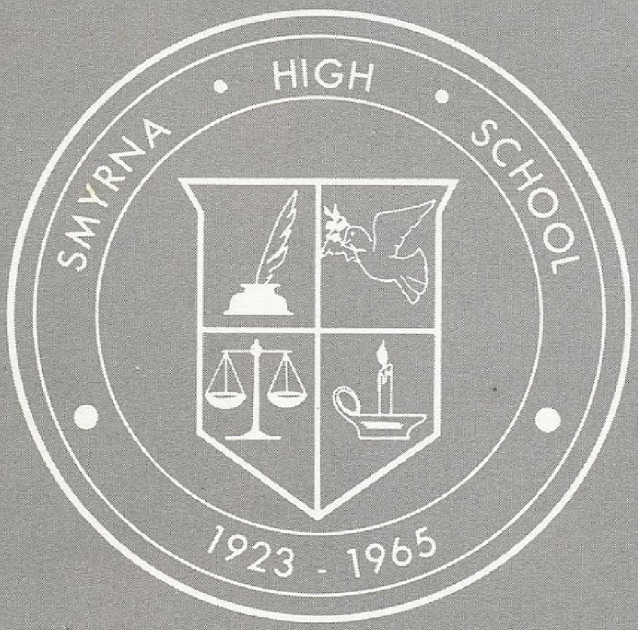

MR. CHARLES DUNCAN McLEOD, JR.
