Digitized and restored by Shannon Adams. For personal enjoyment only. Best efforts were made to mask blemishes and markings. Special thanks to Swansboro High for their support.

A black and white photograph of a stage scene. Two women are standing in front of a light-colored, vertically pleated curtain. The woman on the left is wearing a dark, long-sleeved dress and has her hand near her face. The woman on the right is wearing a light-colored, long-sleeved top and a dark skirt, and is looking towards the left. In the foreground, there are several wooden chairs, some of which are stacked or arranged in a row. The text "all the wo" is overlaid on the image in a large, bold, serif font.

Dedication . . .

The year 1964-1965 brought two great losses to Swansboro. With the deaths of Dr. James P. Corbett and Mr. John L. Bell came much grief, for everyone realized how much those two lives had meant to the community and to each individual.

These two men always showed a sincere interest in each of us and our activities. They gave freely of their time and energy, many times when they did not have the time or energy to give.

There is an image engraved in the minds of each of us of Dr. Corbett striding calmly over to check on an injured basketball player and of John Bell standing in the middle of the street stopping traffic and joking with the students crossing the street.

MR. JOHN L. BELL

DR. JAMES P. CORBETT

They have made their marks on the lives of us all, and they shall never be forgotten.

It is with much sorrow, reverence, and deep thankfulness that we, the Annual Staff, dedicate this, our 1965 Pirate, to the memory of these two men.

It is sad to think that here are generations which will never know Dr. Corbett and John Bell whose services in so many ways have helped each of us so very much. "Gone but not forgotten" is certainly true of Dr. Corbett and John Bell for memories of them will live on forever in the hearts and minds of the students of Swansboro High School to whom their services meant so much.

PRODUCERS . . .

Mr. R. D. Frazelle, principal, is hard at work attending to the business of our bustling high school.

Mr. Robert King, principal of the elementary school, is busily discussing affairs that have come to his attention.

Mr. Preston Rawls, assistant high school principal, looks serious as he ponders over some paper work.

Mrs. Doris Cobb, elementary school secretary, enjoys her favorite task of the day: counting the money!

Mrs. Elsie Jones, high school secretary, looks like she's stashing away a little moo-la for herself, but we know better than that, don't we?

Way to get in the air, Ben!

Now boys, you are supposed to be playing basketball, not holding hands!

Hurry up and get back in-bounds John, you are missing all the "fun!"

This looks serious, boys, Maybe you better try what Coach Parkin says this time.

No fair! They are ganging up on Steve, three against one!!

JUNIOR - SENIOR ACTIVITIES

I want an Old Fashioned Girl.

The Weejuns add life to the Junior-Senior Prom.

Smile! This is the Big Night!

Well, everybody is entitled to a little time off.

Well, its like this...it all began in Newport.

No! No! Mr. Parkin. Left foot first!

Tension mounts as curtain time draws near.

As this year fast draws to a close, the Senior members of the Annual Staff exit from the stage of Swansboro High School. Making their entrance are the Junior members of the Annual Staff. Before the curtain closes, I wish to thank personally each member of the Annual Staff and to wish the best of luck to the upcoming members. Many thanks go to:

Cathy Cota, Business Manager, who made it possible to produce our play through "Advertisements;"

Jim Ross, Class Editor, who "Cast" the annual;

Betty Lou Dale, Features Editor, who put the students "On Stage;"

Kenneth Carroway, Sports Editor, who gave the "Performance;"

Susan Cunningham, Literary Editor, who wrote the script;

The "Directors," our teachers, for their cooperation;

The "Producers," our principals and secretaries, for their help and guidance, without which we could not have published an annual;

Cherly Hawkins, "Artist," for all the artwork;

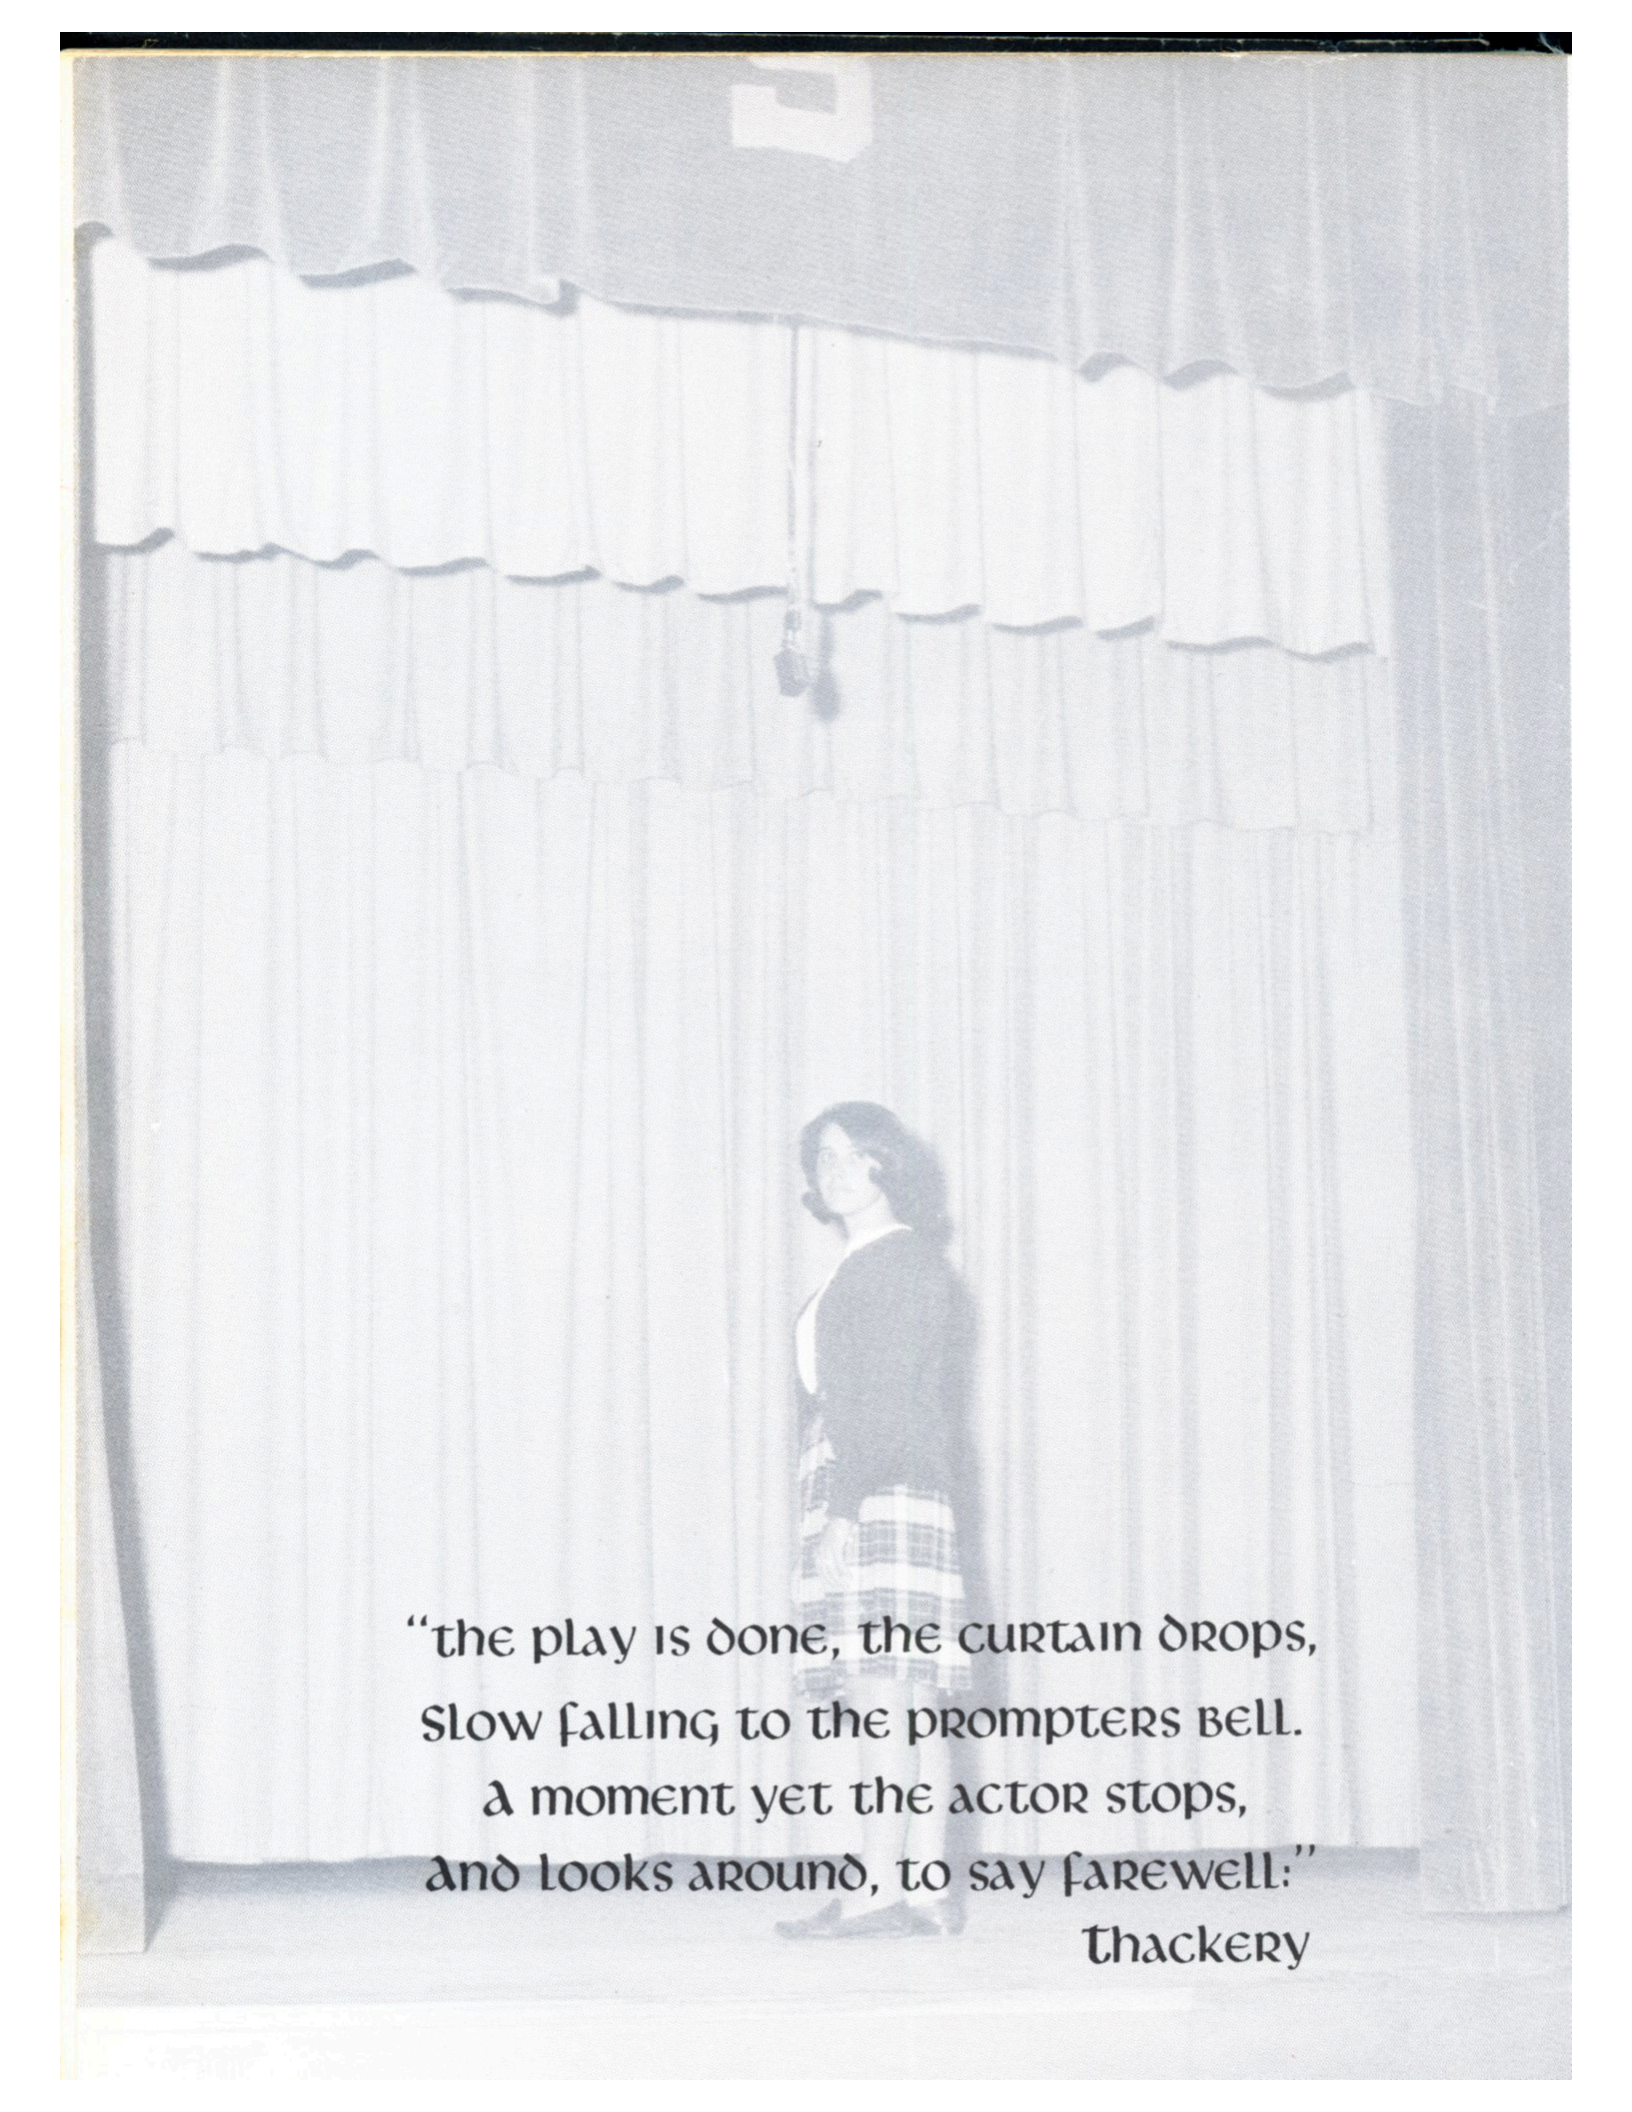

Debbie Reynolds who so ably selected a lovely queen;

The "Cameraman," Mr. Jeans, who gave us much of his valuable time to take pictures;

Mrs. Campbell, Advisor, who guided us in our work.

Sincerely,

Lynda Benton
Editor-in-Chief

"the play is done, the curtain drops,
Slow falling to the prompters bell.
A moment yet the actor stops,
And looks around, to say farewell:"
Thackery
