Institutions of higher learning are one of Eastern North Carolina's greatest assets. Although teaching is their chief responsibility, they at the same time exert considerable influence on a growing economy.

There are six senior colleges, five junior colleges and a theological seminary within the Carolina Telephone operating territory. Total enrollment exceeds 21,300. The operating staff totals 3,500 with annual payroll of about $22,700,000. Community colleges, technical institutes and college extension programs reach more than half of our area citizens.

conference

You can talk with several people in different places at the same time. Tell the Long Distance Operator you wish to make a conference call.

collect

You can make most calls "collect" if the person you are calling agrees to pay the charge. If you want to make a collect call, please be sure to tell the Operator when you give her the call.

mobile and marine service

You can also make local and long distance calls to automobiles, trucks and boats equipped for mobile telephone service. Ask Long Distance for the Mobile Service Operator, or the Marine Operator.

General Information

Advertising Telephone Numbers

... There are recognized advantages of showing telephone numbers on stationery, signs, cards, etc. Growth and changes in telephone facilities may require the changing of telephone numbers therefore, any of these showing telephone numbers should not be printed in large quantities.

When You Hear a "Beep" Tone

... If you hear a short "beep" tone on your telephone about every 15 seconds, it means that person with whom you are talking is recording your conversation. This signal is provided by the Telephone Company for your protection. Use of a recorder without recorder-conductor equipment containing a tone-warning device is not authorized and is a violation of the Company's tariffs.

Out-of-Town Directories

Directories of other cities may be obtained at a nominal charge. Call our Business Office.

Directories

... Telephone directories are provided as an aid to good telephone service and remain the property of the Company.

Even though every effort is made to compile this directory accurately, errors sometimes occur. The Company assumes no liability for damage arising from errors or omissions in publishing this directory. Please report incorrect listings promptly so that we may change our records and do whatever we can to protect your service in the meantime.

Attachments to Telephones and Directories

... Telephone wiring, instruments, etc. on customers' premises are the property of the Company and may be moved or removed only by the Company. In the interest of safety and good service, nothing may be attached to or connected with the Telephone Company's facilities except as expressly authorized by its tariffs.

No binder, holder or auxiliary cover, except those furnished by the Company, shall be used in connection with any telephone directory.

Annoyance Calls

The Telephone Company is concerned about obscene and harassing calls and is trying to help stop them. You don't have to talk or listen to such calls — just hang up. If the calls persist, call your service representative at the local Telephone Company business office. If a threat is made at any time, also call the police. Malicious, threatening and abusive calls, including those in which obscene or profane language is used, are prohibited. The making of such calls may constitute cause for disconnecting service and possible criminal prosecution, and civil action by the person called.

Laws Concerning Telephone Usage

IT IS UNLAWFUL TO ...

Refuse to give up a party line in use in an emergency.

Make nuisance or malicious telephone calls.

Use credit cards numbers to fraudulently obtain goods or services.

Charge a call to another person's telephone without his consent.

These are points from some of the laws both Federal and State which govern telephone usage and their violation should be reported to the proper civil authorities.

HISTORICAL PAGE—CARTERET COUNTY

Morehead City was founded by Mr. John M. Morehead one hundred years ago. Known through the early years as a popular summer resort with its wide expanse of ocean-side beach and resort attractions, it has taken on of late years a program of commercial development. Less than one hour's run from the shipping lanes of the Atlantic, the Port of Morehead City has gained world-wide fame for its safe, land locked harbor and for the hours saved in docking. Nowhere along the Atlantic coast can the ocean beach adjoining the city on the south, be excelled for the beauty of its sand dunes and shore vegetation, its safe bathing beach with little undertow. History is written in the long stretch of Bogue Banks. Blackbeard, the pirate is claimed to have visited the Banks and some persons have spent hours digging for "pirate gold" but as yet none has been found. Upon the shores of the Banks has drifted the wreckage of boats and men of three wars, within a hundred years. The sound and outer ocean has given a livelihood to many through the years, either fishermen or whalers, from the early days of the settlement to the present day. The downtown business district of Morehead City covers about seven city blocks, lined with modern establishments, which offer complete shopping and service facilities unequaled in Central Coastal North Carolina.

Atlantic Beach, an incorporated town, is located just across the bridge from Morehead City. This is the most developed spot on the twenty-four miles of matchless, east-west beach on Bogue Banks.

Fort Macon, located east of Atlantic Beach, was built in 1826-34. It is an outstanding example of military architecture of the 19th century with jetties designed by Robert E. Lee while a young lieutenant. In 1862 the fort was bombarded while the Beaufort and Morehead City residents watched anxiously and after an all day siege, the fort fell to the Federal forces.

Beaufort, the County Seat of Carteret County, was named for the Duke of Beaufort at its incorporation in 1722. Founded in part by French Huguenots and English sailors in 1709, Beaufort looks to the sea for its entertainment and its livelihood. Surrounded on three sides by water, this third oldest town in North Carolina faces a limitless horizon. In the center of Beaufort is the historical cemetery, resting place of North Carolinians of renown. Here lies Otway Burns, under a cannon from his privateer, "Snapdragon" which harassed the British in the War of 1812. Here too, is the grave of an unknown English seaman, who asked to be buried standing straight up—and he is! Tombstones in the cemetery mark the passage of time since 1775. Stroll through this quiet, landscaped place and feel that you're surrounded by history. Few towns with the antique charm of Beaufort have resisted the exploitation of the modern age . . . but in Beaufort you'll find a leisurely beauty, an unhurried way of living that is deeply appealing. The climate of Beaufort and Morehead City is unsurpassed, averaging 64 degrees year-round.

Those seeking historical lore will be rewarded by a study of Carteret history. Quakers played an important part in the early days of the county's settlement. From the outer world came settlers of various nationalities. Many came by ship through Old Topsail Inlet to land at Beaufort. Others trekked their way along rough Indian trails from the colonies to the north. This mingling of personalities produced a heterogeneous group, out of which came the men and women who helped to establish the early settlements of Carteret County.
