"You May Never Pass This Way Again"

Some people spend their lives dedicating it to others; such is the case with the individual we have chosen to honor, for she has spent her life guiding Swansboro students through a significant time in their lives.

As a gift of thanks for all the many years of loyal and untiring service, we present the Pirate '75 to you, Mrs. Ethelyn S. Hurst.-

CONGRATULATIONS GRADUATING CLASS OF 1974

Compliments U. S. Coast Guard Recruiting Office, Morehead City.

The Coast Guard's Missions revolve primarily around the word "help"

Each year the Coast Guard provides maritime search and rescue facilities to help stranded privately and commercially owned vessels and aircraft; sets standards for and instructs millions of pleasure boatmen in order to help make boating a safe sport; operates a worldwide chain of aids to help guide ships and aircraft safely to their destinations; provides port security units to prevent shipboard disasters in U.S. ports; operates the International Ice Patrol; enforces federal laws on the high seas and waters subject to jurisdiction of the United States.

The Coast Guard also acts as the nation's task force in detecting and supervising the cleanup of oil spills and maritime pollution; enforces maritime conservation laws; collects and analyzes oceanographic and meterorological data.

In order to carry out its vast responsibilities, the Coast Guard maintains a fleet of ships, aircraft and boats, as well as a chain of shore stations both in the U.S. and abroad.

When you join the Coast Guard, you become a member of your country's oldest continuous seagoing military service.

With a noble tradition behind you, and a promising career ahead, you do yourself and your country a proud service when you join the United States Coast Guard.

The purpose of a yearbook is to keep forever memories of high school days and friends. Because time will not allow us to "pass this way again," the annual staff worked sincerely in trying to produce a yearbook full of many memories for everyone.

There are many people involved who worked to bring you this yearbook. I wish to thank the annual staff, Beta Club, and their advisors, Mrs. Tucker and Mr. Beasley. We thank you, Mr. Davis, for developing our many pictures.

The annual depends greatly on the knowledge and know-how of one man, Mr. Beasley, whom the annual staff wishes to thank for many hours of time, help, and patience.

To the students of Swansboro High School, the annual staff and Beta Club present, THE PIRATE 1975.
