EAST CARTERET ADVISORY COUNCIL

Standing: Ronald Goodwin, Reginald Styron, Neal Daniels, L. D. Springle. Seated: Rocco Godette, Bert Johnson, Sally Moore, George Tho...
Mr. Ronald Terry Parrish, Sr. was born June 6, 1943, one of four boys. He attended Southern High School in Durham where he graduated in 1961.

Mr. Parrish attended East Carolina University receiving his Bachelor of Science degree in Industrial Arts in 1967. He taught industrial arts at Githens Junior High School, Durham, 1967-1971. In 1971, Mr. Parrish received his Master's Degree in Education. He was then Assistant Principal of Southern High School, Durham, 1971-1974. He was principal of D. N. Hix School, Oxford, North Carolina, from 1974-1978.

Mr. Parrish is married to Frances Bass Parrish, who is a school librarian. They have four sons: Terry, Frank, Doug and Robert.

He relies on good judgement and a sense of fairness to help him maintain understanding and cooperation between faculty and students.

In addition to a multitude of administrative responsibilities, Mr. Parrish works to maintain high academic standards and to broaden the curriculum to meet the needs of all students. He works closely with the student body on school projects, lends support to the sports program, and encourages students to become active in extracurricular activities.

CLASS MOTTO
I'm on my way . . .
leaving what I used to be . . .
reaching for what I want to be . . .
accepting what I am.
I'm on my way . . .
hoping I will be . . .
all I am meant to be.

CLASS SONG
"IT'S TOO LATE FOR PRAYING"
Gordon Lightfoot

It was only yesterday, when I heard the teacher say, patiently, one and two make three.
We were children you and me, let us pray for the ones
they call the children of today.
Nothing left but promises, nothing much is certain.
All we see is want and need across the board—why thank you Lord—we're living in the glory of your care.

Skies of blue have all turned brown to the sound of sighing—Lord abide—let us stem the tide of broken dreams, sometimes you seem to tell us,
"It's too late for praying."

See the ocean wild and blue. Think of all that's in her. She will not surrender to the likes of us—but then she must. They tell us—wise men tell us—
It's too late—

For each child with eyes that smile, there'll be ten more crying. Lord abide—let us stem the tide of helplessness—but then I guess we're living—
Is it too late for trying?

Nothing here but grains of sand—nothing much worth saving. Guess we've all got problems of our own to hear—but still we share. Tomorrow could get better than today.

To the ones who loved in vain—will you be beholden?
Lord abide, let us stem the tide of broken dreams.
Sometimes you seem to tell us,
"It's too late for praying."
DAVID CARRAWAY The main thing that accompanies knowledge is a desire to know more.

KIM CEDERQUIST To have striven, to have made an effort, to have been true to certain ideals, this alone is worth the struggle.

LISA COLE My interest is in the future, because I am going to spend the rest of my life there.

CONNIE COOPER The great pleasure in life is doing what people say you cannot do.
DONALD CROOMS We ought neither to fasten our ship to one small anchor nor our life to a single hope.

DENISE DAVIS Their actions speak volumes about their thoughts.

ROYCE DUDLEY There may never be a first, but there will always be a last.

TIM DUFORGE God’s gift to you is yourself. Your gift to him is what you make of it.
JON EUBANKS  Life? "Far too important a thing to talk seriously about."

ROBERT GARRISH  Our thoughts are the epochs of our lives; all else is but as a journal of the winds that blew while we were here.

PAUL GILLIKIN  I am but one more actor in the play of life; I have paused my role, and now the time has come for me to perform.

WILLA GILLIKIN  The greatest good you can do for another is not just to share your riches but to reveal to him his own.
SANDY HEWITT We know nothing of tomorrow; our business is to be glad and happy today.

PAUL LAUGHTON Cheerfulness, like spring, opens all the blossoms of the inward man.

QUENTIN LEWIS The future can be seen by those who dare to look in it.

KIM LONG Things past belong to memory alone; things future are the property of hope.
HEATHER POND The only reward of virtue is virtue, the only way to have a friend is to be one.

ANNE SCHAFF To see a World in a grain of sand and a heaven in a wild flower hold Infinity in the palm of your hand and Eternity in an hour.

CATHERINE STYRON Life is like music. It must be composed by ear, feeling and instinct, not by rule.

CHARLENE STYRON The difficulty in life is the choice.
REGINA WHEELER: Climb high, climb far, your goal the sky, your aim the star.

KERRY WILLIS: My dream holds to sail beyond the sunset.

ROBIN WHITE: There is nothing so well known as that we should not expect something for nothing—but we all do and call it Hope.

Like the sea, all our relationships...

... our very existence...

was and was

depleting our levels of faith and hope,

then filling us again with a sense of joy...

That is, as I believe, was more in everything we felt,

in everything we saw.
