1980 EAST WIND
East Carteret High School
Route 2
Beaufort, North Carolina 28516
CARTERET
1980
Mr. Joseph Williams

Mr. Joseph Eason Williams was born May 20, 1922 in Morehead City. He attended Camp Glenn School through the sixth grade and Morehead High School grades seven through eleven.

After graduating from high school, Mr. Williams worked in Beaufort in a garage. He then joined the Army where he served for ten months. He is married to the former Hazel Paul. They had two sons, Billy Joe and Eric (both deceased) and one daughter, Cindy.

Mr. Williams started teaching automotive mechanics in 1965. He spent half of his day at Beaufort and the other half at Smyrna. When East Carteret opened in the fall of 1965, Mr. Williams transferred to East where he has remained.

Mr. Williams is a deacon in his church and also Sunday School teacher.

The 1980 EAST WIND is dedicated to Mr. Joseph Williams because he has given of himself for so long to so many. He has proven himself to be an outstanding example for others to pattern their lives. For this, Mr. Williams, we salute you!

CLASS SONG
“Free Bird”
Lynyrd Skynyrd

If I leave here tomorrow,
Would you still remember me?
For I must be travling on, now,
’Cause ther’s too many places I’ve got to see.
But if I stayed here with you, friends,
Well, things just couldn’t be the same.
’Cause I’m as free as a bird now,

And this bird you’ll never change.
And this bird cannot change.
And this bird you cannot change.
Lord knows, I can’t change.

Bye, bye, friends, it’s been a sweet thing
Though this feeling we can’t change.
But, please don’t take it so badly,
’Cause the Lord knows we’re not to blame.
If we stayed here with you, now,
Things just couldn’t be the same.
’Cause we’re free as a bird, now.

CLASS MOTTO

“Your doubts are the private detectives employed by your dislikes, to make a case against change or choice.”
SALLY RUTH ANGER But the wildest of all the wild animals was the Cat. He walked by himself, and all places were alike to him.

TINA BARGEMAN Better by far you should forget and smile; Than that you should remember and be sad.
DEBBIE BARNES In life, when you meet someone without a smile give him one of yours.

CARL CANNON Oh, the gallant fishers life! It is the best of any; 'Tis full of pleasures, void of strife and 'tis beloved by many.

JEFF DANIELS Be wise, soar not too high to fall, but stoop to rise.

MARGO DAVIS Write it on your heart that everyday is the best day in the year. He only is wise who owns the day and no one owns the day who allows it to be invaded by worry, fret and anxiety. Finish every day and be done with it. You have done what you could.
DON DUDLEY Think only of the past as its remembrance gives you pleasure; but look to the future always with expectant eyes.

JUNE FULCHER Life is to be fortified by many friendships. To love and to be loved is the greatest happiness of existence.

GRADY FULCHER I shall pass through this world but once. If, therefore, there be any kindness I can show, or any good thing I can do, let me do it now; let me not defer it or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.

ROSS GELLER Peace is freedoms goal, but those who accept peace at the price of freedom are sure to loose it.
VANDA GILLIKIN Our greatest glory consists not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall.

LINA HALL The hardest thing to learn in life is which bridge to cross and which to burn.

BO-BO HARVEY So many tangles in life are ultimately hopeless that we have no appropriate sword other than laughter.

DAVID LEE The essence of humour is sensibility; warm tender fellow feeling with all forms of existence.
PENNY HARVELL: To say I cannot means, I have not tried.

BRIAN SALTER: No one ever travels so high as he who knows not where he is going.

GEORGE WALLACE: My sword is strength, my spear is song; with these upon a stubborn field I challenge falsehood, fear and wrong. But laughter is my shield.

APRILLE WEEKS: If the day and the night are such that you greet them with joy, and life emits a fragrance like flowers and sweet-scented herbs; if more elastic, more starry, more immortal—that is your success.
MIKEL WIGGS To thine own self be true. And it must follow, as the sight of day, Thou canst not then be false to any man.

ANTHONY WILLIS We need to learn to set our courses by the stars, not by the lights of every passing ship.

FFA STATE CONVENTION REPRESENTATIVES

The staff of the 1980 EAST WIND wishes to honor our sponsor, Mrs. Wanda Morris Gaskill. She has been our advisor since 1977-1978. We wish to recognize her, especially since she will not be working in this capacity after this year.

The aspect that has endeared Mrs. Gaskill to us is her obvious pride in being an integral part of East Carteret High School. Although she has been on our faculty only since 1976, her sincerity and heartfelt feelings for each of her students have endeared her to us quickly. She never hesitates to lend a helping hand when a need is present. The patience she displays in all her classes and the many after school hours she gives so unselfishly to our yearbook staff truly mark her as an outstanding educator. Her unwavering leadership and guidance offered to us as a yearbook staff have made her someone with whom we are proud to have worked closely and whom we all love very much. For the guidance and love given to us we seek to honor you, Mrs. Wanda Gaskill.
In October, 1979, East Carteret High School enrolled two Egyptian students who came to Carteret County to experience and learn of American ways. Time, however, would prove that these two young men would teach the students and staff of East Carteret that friendship extends across oceans.

As a symbol of that friendship which grew during their two months with us, they presented a Mosaic plaque (above) with the following inscription:

To East Carteret High School
From Mahamad and Hosam Aleem of Alexandria, Egypt

In recognition of the kindness and friendship of the staff and students of the school with our best wishes. December, 1979

Happy Christmas

Our lives are brighter for having known these two young men. We were grieved to learn of Mohamad’s death May 10, 1980, but the friendship established will live in our hearts and minds forever.
The 1980 EAST WIND was designed so that we would be able to look back on our cherished memories. The EAST WIND staff, as well as our advisor Wanda Gaskill, has put many long, hard hours into this book, trying to preserve all those special moments. I hope each one of you will enjoy looking back at your year of 1980 at E.C.H.S. If the annual accomplishes this, it will have been worthwhile.

Vanda Gillikin, editor
Each gull . . .

each wave . . .

each fish is alone,
as we are all alone . . .
yet they are one with their kind,
moving in a pattern they cannot see or, perhaps, even understand . . .
. . . and the patterns of the sea
give us a new insight into the patterns of all life . . .
. . . leaving us content . . .
. . . at peace . . . and fulfilled.
