SAIL INTO THE SUNRISE

As the tides roll in
And the days slide by,
Students prepare at East Carteret High.

The hours of hard work
Prepare them for life,
For all the good times
And for all of the strife.

Like sailors who ready
Their craft for a trip,
Knowledge and friendships
Will fuel our fine ship.

The journey may seem
To be over at last,
But our lives lie ahead
And not in the past.

Graduation's near
And to some's surprise,
Now is the time to
SAIL INTO THE SUNRISE.

Thaddeus Lenwood Lee

IN HONOR OF . . .

Mr. Thaddeus Lenwood Lee

A man of men, a leader of leaders, and a friend to all! This statement describes Mr. T.L. Lee, but not completely.

Mr. T.L. Lee has contributed a lot to Carteret County schools in the thirty-one years that he has worked for the Board of Education. In his many years of working with Carteret County schools, Mr. Lee has helped lead the county through complete desegregation, almost in a single step.

Let's take a look at his history: Mr. Lee was born on July 21, 1923, in Dunn, North Carolina. Mr. Lee's father was a farmer and a storekeeper. From 1937-1940, he attended Dunn High School, where he played football, was a member of the Beta Club and of the Hi-Y. He also contributed to his knowledge by working on the school newspaper. From 1943-1946 he served in the U.S. Army Air Corps, during which he spent 14 months in the Pacific Theater of World War II. His military specialty was "communications ground support." Shortly after his discharge from the Army Air Corps, he married Ernestine Jackson, also from Dunn. In Mr. Lee's words, "She is an exceptional woman. I love her and I admire her very much." He has five children and six grandchildren, and he is proud of them all. Mr. Lee's knowledge was attained from a number of colleges, some are as follows: Campbell College, Wake Forest, East Carolina Teachers College, Duke University, Tufts University and East Carolina University. To share his knowledge, he attended seminars at ECU, N.C. State, UNC — Chapel Hill, Duke, and Amherst College. This long and distinguished list goes on and on, but there aren't enough pages for it.

While in Carteret County, Mr. Lee was a classroom teacher, Principal of West Carteret High School, and Superintendent of Carteret County schools. At 63 years of age, Mr. Thaddeus Lenwood Lee stepped down from being Carteret County's Superintendent. His contributions to and his concern for the young people of Carteret County will long be remembered.

We will miss you Mr. Lee!

The strength of a wave
as it rolls to the shore

Reminds us of Mariners who have gone before

Of men and women who were strong and true

Whose deeds and examples challenge us to follow through.

We're Mariners, Mariners, and we'll always be

A part of East Carteret
our strength is as the sea.

When our days grow short

And our youth has ceased to be,

We can cling to what
we've been and done,

As long as there's memory.

The Freshman Class participated in the Homecoming activities as Jennifer Garner and Lisa Lesley proudly represented our class. We gathered at Amanda Tyre's house to complete the float on time. As our float rode down the street, the freshmen agreed our hard work was well worth it. Stewart Wilde, Carrie Kappel and Mahlon Swain participated by riding on our float to illustrate our theme, "Mohawk The Hawks."

Freshmen show our trendy fashions as we enter East Carteret for the first time. Freshmen helped to carry out the popularity of the hair bow. SWATCH, COCA-COLA, GUESS, REEBOK and ESPRIT were the apparel we enjoyed wearing. OCEAN PACIFIC, GOTCHA, CATCHIT and QUICKSILVER were popular beach fashions we all wore.

Mia Brigman — "The best of all things is to learn. Money can be lost or stolen, health and strength may fail, but what you have committed to your mind is yours forever."

Craig Cannon — "Being on your way is just as important as getting there."

Sharon Davis — "When you take away a man's life-illusions you take away his happiness in the same stroke."

Giulio Ferruzzi — "The very spring and root of honesty and virtue lie in the felicity of lighting on good education."

Stephanie Gaskill — "You can't control the length of your life, but you can control its width and depth. You can't control the contour of your face, but you can control its expression. Why worry about things you can't control when you can keep yourself busy controlling the things that depend on you."

Jonathan Gillikin — "Use what talents you possess: the woods would be very silent if no birds sang there except those that sang best."

Al Harris — “Be the kind of person you would like to experience.”

Jon Hancock — “A poor man is not he who is without money, but he who is without a dream.”

Pat Hoss — “To know is nothing at all. To imagine is everything.”

Scott Lewis — “God gives us a dream a size too big so that we can grow into it.”

Shelley Lewis — “When that one great scorer comes to write against your name, he writes not if you won or lost but how you played the game.”

Julia Morris — “Don’t be dismayed at good-byes. A farewell is necessary before you can meet again. And meeting again, after moments, or lifetimes, is certain for those who are friends.”

WHO'S WHO

Marion Noe — "Happiness is the key to life."

Kim Oden — "Set your goals as high as you can dream, they are never too hard to achieve. Work hard and believe and you will succeed."

Doug Parrish — "Man can no rule by might forever, he must also be just."

Sarah Potter — "True friendship is like phosphorescence — it glows best when the world around goes dark."

Kara Smith — "It's not how much we have, but how much we enjoy that makes happiness."

David Way — "It is in dreaming the greatest dreams ... seeking the highest goals ... that we build the brightest tomorrows."

Deborah Williams — “Look to the future and not to the past to find those things you want to make last.”

Christina Willis — “He who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much has achieved success.”

Goodbye to Romance

By — Ozzy Osbourne

Yesterday has been and gone.
Tomorrow will I find the sun or will it rain?
Everybody's having fun
Except me I'm the lonely one
I live in shame.

Chorus

I say, Goodbye to Romance, yea, Goodbye to friends
I tell ya, Goodbye to all the best.
I guess that we'll meet
We'll meet in the end.

I've been the king I've been the clown.
Now broken wings can't hold me down I'm free again.
The Jester wears the broken crown
It won't be me this time around to love in vain.

Chorus

And I feel the time is right
Although I know that you just might say to me
What you gonna do, what you gonna do.
But I have to take this chance goodbye to friends and to romance,
And to all of you, and to all of you.

Chorus

And the weather's looking fine
And I think the sun will shine again,
And I feel I'll change my mind.
All the best is left behind again.

Chorus

East Carteret High School Alma Mater

The strength of a wave as it rolls to the shore
Reminds us of Mariners who have gone before
Of men and women who were strong and true
Whose deeds and examples challenge us to follow through.
We're Mariners, Mariners, and we'll always be
A part of East Carteret
Our strength is as the sea.
When our days grow short
And our youth has ceased to be,
We can cling to what we've been and done
As long as there's memory.

AND THE WINNER IS . . .

Homecoming at East Carteret was October 31, 1986. It was not a "trick," however when Kara Smith was crowned Homecoming Queen (bottom right). A real "treat" was seeing Kara ride down Front Street on the hood of a Peterbuilt (bottom left). The Senior club representatives (top left) are: D. Williams, M. Brigman, K. Pittman, S. Lewis, T. Salter, F. Guthrie, C. Willis, S. Lawrence, S. Potter, G. Willis, J. Guthrie, K. Beveridge, S. Willis, I. Sander-son, C. Willis, A. Garrett, D. Sowers, R. Willis, M. Bargeman. The Senior class representatives were T. Reynolds, T. Cannon, K. Smith and C. Lewis (top right).

1st runner up — Faye Jones escorted by her brother, Dwayne Lawrence.

2nd runner up — Margie Bargeman escorted by David Carter.

3rd runner up — Linda Patterson escorted by her brother, Pat Patterson Club representative — Kelly Pittman escorted by Chuckie Arthur.

Homecoming Always Brings Smiles.

Jackie Guthrie escorted by Pat McCarthy

Ina Sanderson escorted by Brian Jones

Suzie Willis was escorted by Allen Willis.

Mia Brigman representing FTA

Ashley Garrett representing the Art Club

East Parades With Pride

Coach Lewis, Coach Kappel and the football team practice to be firemen during the Homecoming Parade (top left). East Carteret's trombone section dances during "Barbara Ann" (bottom left). Meanwhile, seniors Doug Parrish and Gene Guthrie combine for a great tackle against the North Lenoir Hawks (top right). Russel Reed shows superior effort on breaking a tackle (bottom right). The outcome of the game was not as hoped and the final score was 3-0.

At the Thanksgiving Assembly this year twelve families were helped. Each family received a trukey, dressing and bags of groceries donated by the students. There was also a pumpkin contest. Each class dressed up a pumpkin. Ann Sullivan and Robin Davis looked hopeful as they wheeled their "She Herman" in but the Freshman's "Garfield" pumpkin stole the show. Student Council President, Marion Noe, leads the school in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Thanksgiving Assembly

The Student Council presented a skit during the Thanksgiving Assembly. It was called, "When the Pilgrims Came Ashore," starring Seniors Marion Noe, Ashley Garrett and Doug Parrish. Other actors were Jennifer Smith, James Gaskill, Lee Willis and Lewis Jones. As a result of their performance we expect to see them on Broadway. Under the direction of Mrs. Miller, we wouldn't expect anything less.

"ONE LITTLE CANDLE"

The Class of '87 is "lit up with Christmas spirit."

The Seniors show togetherness at Christmas.

The band plays Christmas carols for all.

Renee Gillikin lends her voice to the "Senior Chorus."

Kara Smith and Jonathan Gillikin are well known for their musical talents.

Christmas Break Is Coming!

Everyone listen — it's James Gaskill!

Carrie Kappel, Missy Guthrie and Beth Kirk model their Christmas fashions.

The chorus gets us in the Christmas spirit.

Rifles and flags fly into the air at the Christmas Assembly.

Christina's "fingers do the walking."

Prom '87 AN ENCHANTED EVENING

Prom King, Richard Bailey, and Queen, Crystal Lewis, take time from dancing to pose for the camera.

Most upperclassmen agree that the use of the Crystal Coast Civic Center was a good idea.

102 Features

Juniors, Seniors and their dates dance to the "rockin" music of the band, The Point.

Tonya Powell and Frank Harvell take advantage of the magical evening.

Jackie Griffin and David Way dance the night away.

Bonnie Rose turns just in time for the snapshot.

Patty Pittman, Greta Willis and Julie Gates admire each others dresses.

*The Junior Class of East Carteret High School
requests the pleasure of your company at the Junior-Senior Prom
on Saturday, the eleventh of April Nineteen hundred and eighty-seven at eight o'clock in the evening at the Crystal Coast Civic Center*

Again this year the prom was a success. For the first time it was held in the Crystal Coast Civic Center. The Junior Class hired a band called The Point, and they played some pretty good tunes. The Class of '87 salutes the Juniors on a job well done.

Ms. Tyson takes time out to enjoy the efforts of the Junior Class's work.

Carrie Kappel smiles as she finishes the potato sack race.

All seniors enjoy dancing around the May Pole!

Pulling hard is what is on their minds.

Doug shows us his biceps in the tug-of-war contest.

Sarah Potter and Ina Sanderson lead the dance on May Day.

The mascots at May Day made everyone smile.

Senior Day Is A Tradition At East

Senior Day is a tradition at East Carteret. Every year the Senior Class is honored and recognized for their good deeds and hard work throughout the years. Many scholarships are given out to deserving Seniors. For Seniors this is a time to bask in the glory of having finally made it to the top.

What A Talented Class!

James Gaskill and Camellia Johnson sing to the crowd on Senior Day.

And you, Sharon Small, have just won $1,000,000.00!

Mr. Parrish sings a song to the Senior Class and faculty called "You're Ugly."

Nina Taylor receives another one of her many awards.

Kim Schutte gives Mr. Mason a thank-you hug.

East Has Time for a Picnic

James Davis and Karen Barnes make their argument look real in Picnic.

Carolyn Kamplain plays seamstress momentarily for Shannon Langdale.

Todd Barnes has an imaginary duel with Craig Cannon.

All dressed up, Pam McMillan and Carrie Kappel strut their stuff.

The play Picnic was hard work but, Gene Gillikin and Molly Rave find time to laugh.

HONORS AT EAST

Al Harris is honored at the Banquet.

Look straight into the camera — a little to the right, that's good Eddie.

This year East Carteret held the Second Annual Honor's Banquet. Students who averaged an 85 or above in all of the classes during the whole year were eligible to attend. The guests enjoyed listening to the guest speaker, Dr. Craig Phillips, State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Above: Jimmy Hunnings and James Davis are honored with the invitation of attending Governor's School. This is quite an honor and we hope they have a successful time.

James Gaskill, ready to swing into a chorus routine.

WHERE WERE YOU?

Everyone knows the Mariner Band is the best, and now the guests at the Honor's Banquet can find out firsthand.

Carrie Kappell at the beginning of her illustrious school career.

Aw come on, it's not that much of a surprise!

The chorus adds a finishing touch.

Mr. Parrish speaks during the dinner.

AMBITION

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

The library assistants keep the books in order and help you check out books. They set up magazines, newspapers, and reference materials. Library assistants deliver equipment to teachers when needed. The librarian is Mrs. Nicholson and the aide is Mrs. Rose. Mrs. Nicholson takes care of money going in and out of the library and the handling of books. Mrs. Rose handles the A.V. room and all its equipment (film projectors, film, computers).

GUIDANCE ASSISTANTS

The guidance assistants run errands for the guidance faculty: Mr. Horton, Mrs. Respass, and Mrs. Gillikin. These people operate the guidance department. The guidance assistants are sent to go look for people that the counselors would like to talk to about their record or courses during the year. They help the guidance counselors and keep the guidance department looking good.

B. Willis, L. Golden, J. Goodwin, S. Mendelson, S. Starr, J. Saunders, C. Styron.

OFFICE ASSISTANTS

Office assistants are decided on by the office staff. The office assistants do exactly what it says. They assist the secretary and the principals by doing what they are told. They are really like gophers; go for this, go for that . . . a really get-around-the-school activity. They deliver supplies to teachers when they arrive. These people are supervised by Mrs. Willis, Mrs. Farley, and Mrs. Paylor.

IN MEMORY OF

GILLIKIN
(1969-1986)

THE ROSE BEYOND THE WALL

Near shady wall a rose once grew,
Budded and blossomed in God's free light,
Watered and fed by morning dew,
Shedding its sweetness day and night.

As it grew and blossomed fair and tall,
Slowly rising to loftier height,
It came to a crevice in the wall
Through which there shone a beam of light.

Onward it crept with added strength
With never a thought of fear or pride,
It followed the light through the crevice's length
And unfolded itself on the other side.

The light, the dew, the broadening view
Were found the same as they were before,
And it lost itself in beauties new,
Breathing its fragrance more and more.

Shall claim of death cause us to grieve and make our courage faint and fall?
Nay! Let us faith and hope receive —
The rose still grows beyond the wall.

A.L. Frink
