SWANSBORO HIGH SCHOOL

P.O. Box 827 Swansboro, NC 28584

This year Swansboro High is proud to introduce to you our mascot: The Pirate. The Pirate was at every game enticing the crowd to show their "Pirate Pride". We would like to thank our Pirate for showing true school spirit!

Swansboro High School's yearbook is published by the Swansboro High School Publications class, under the direction of Jonathan Welsh. No part of this yearbook may be reproduced without the written consent of the Publications class. The Editors of this year's yearbook are: Dia Hinson and Brooks Sorensen. This book was printed by Walsworth Publishing Company.

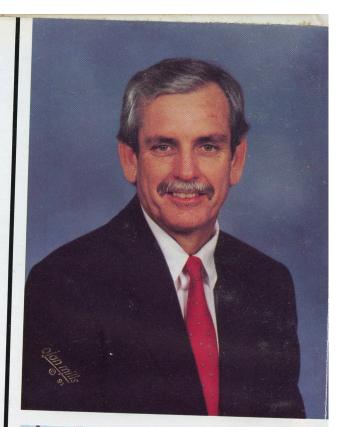

1993 DEDICATION

he 1993 Pirate is dedicated to a kind and helpful person: Mr. Tommy Kellum.

Mr. Tommy Kellum has been a supportive and caring person to both Swansboro High School and the surrounding community. He has spent countless hours volunteering his time for the benefit of the young people around him. Mr. Kellum has always willingly given a helping hand to those in need.

We the Yearbook Staff, would like him to know that the benefits received from his time, help, and caring are appreciated greatly.

Mr. Kellum is one of the many Swansboro area citizens who volunteer their time and effort for the benefit of Swansboro's students. Without all of their help, Swansboro High School would be unable to provide its students with the advantages they presently enjoy.

A dministration and Office Staff

The heart and soul of Swansboro High lie within the hands of the administration. Their duties range from discipline to management to helping the student body.

These five hard working individuals strive to make Swansboro High a better place to learn. No matter what the activity, the administration of Swansboro

High School is alway there giving support.

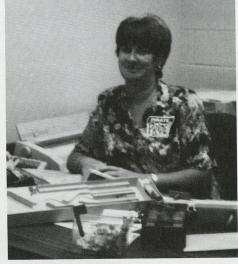

As you can see, Mr. Rivenbark is doing what he does best, which is helping run the school.

Here's Mr. Beasley, doing something he does rarely, which is taking time to relax.

School Support Staff

Steve Tracy and Mike Sanders are janitors who always lend support to Swansboro High School. They not only accomplish good work, their good attitudes toward our school display role models for students. Steve Tracy also helps coach the Varsity Football Team.

These important ladies of our school work hard to maintain a sufficient lunchroom for our students. The staff tries to achieve a well-balanced, nutritious meal for the student body each day.

Walter Purvis takes pride in his work. As you've probably noticed, he works hard to keep our school looking it's best.

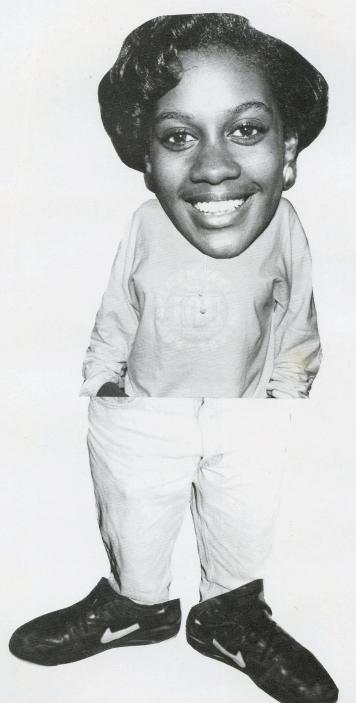

September 17, 1992 was college day at Swansboro High School. People were to wear their favorite college attire to school. College day was a major success. Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors all participated in this event. The college attire worn ranged from many colleges around the United States.

Digitized and restored by Shannon Adams. For personal enjoyment only. Best efforts were made to mask blemishes and markings. Special thanks to Swansboro High for their support.

NEW SENIORS

Moving your senior year can be hard. Many of us have to leave friends we have know throughout high school and start over.

Starting at a new school your senior year is full of challenges. This was suppose to be the last year to be with your closest friends and go do wild and crazy things. Instead, you are tr ing to find a new group to hang out with, and what people do in this new and strange place for fun.

No matter what, this will be a year to remember, just make the best of it.

Organizations

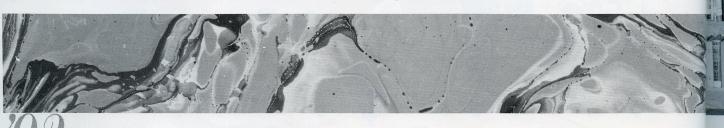

Sca-sca stands for the Student Council Association. This club was comprised of two students from each homeroom. The SCA was headed by Carol Tolin, and the officers of student council were: Wyatt Hazy (president) Rachel Schneider (vice president) Annette Conard (treasurer), and Dia Hinson (secretary).

NHS- The National Honor Society is club that prides itself on its people The National Honor Society is a groun of people who are hard workers bright, and honest. The Honor Societhas the honor to say that it's clumembers are the cream of the crop To be in this club requires many hour of hard work and determination.

Library Club

No matter how small the book is or what it hides, you can count on these guys to find it. This year the Library Club had a considerable number of more members than in the previous years. Their duties included running errands for Mrs. Casper and keeping the library organized. We greatly appreciate all of the in put during the year.

The F.F.A. has been a part of S.H.S for about 45 years and teach es useful skill in the areas of welding and machinery. They raise more from the annual-fruit sale to use for new shop materials and also has many types of competitions. Some of the contests included welding and tool materials. A long time the dition and a great learning experience make up the Future Farmers America.

THA stands for Future Homemake of America. This club was headed Mrs. Davis, who teaches Home Ednomics classes. FHA had a fashio show, and engaged in Christmas projects. The FHA was a beneficial component of Swansboro High School. It was a very worthy club.

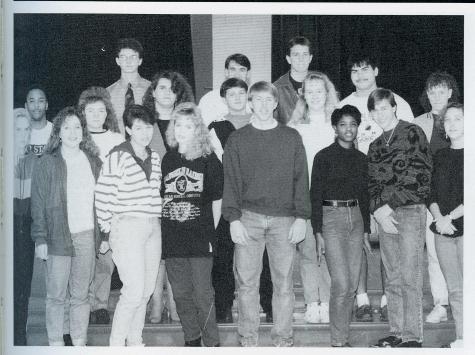

Clubs

Black Culture Society- Originally, the B.C.S was founded in the 70's when Black's had only little voice in their community. The basis of the Black Culture Society is to provide students with the opportunity to learn more about the Black Experience: the heritage, the history of former Black Leaders, and the ancestry. The advisor is Mrs. Moore.

For the first time ever at Swansboro High School, we had both a Drama Club and Class. These drama students, enthusiastic about the art of acting, were under the instruction of Ms. Sioufi. This year's Drama Club, 18 strong, was an extremely talented group, with many of them having parts in short one act plays. For a beginning group, this one was very successful and will continue to be so in the following years. The possibility lurks, that in several years we may turn our television on, and see some of our club members acting as a profession.

F B L A - The Future Business Leaders of American Club comprised of young men and women who have plans to become an integral part of tomorrow's business world. The group consists of those interested is careers in computers, accounting shorthand, and secretarial positions. The FBLA uses candy fund raisers to pay for trips to nearby businesses to see how they operate.

V I C A - Those in the Vocational Industrial Clubs of America are take on many trips to learn things from the difficulties of the open road to how to keep a car on it. Most of the VIC members work together on fixing each other's cars as a team.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE CLUB - This year, the foreign language club has a new addition to its ranks. Not only are those in Spanish class able to join, but the new French students may take part in the club. For Christmas, both classes graced us with the singing of Christmas carols. "Noche de paz, y'all!!".

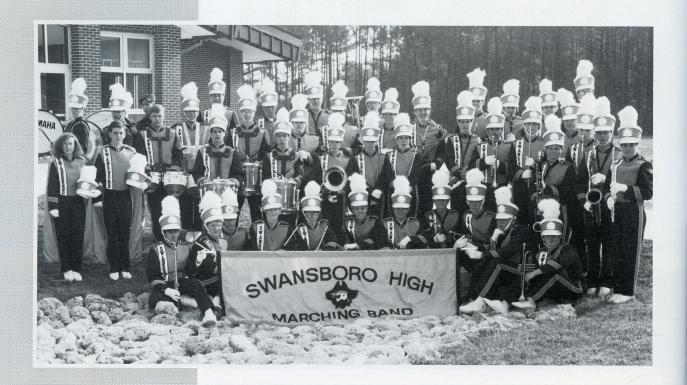

SADD - Dedicated to spreading the word, the Students Against Drunk Driving are constantly engaged in projects that express the effects of drinking and driving. Some of those projects include: Christmas Cheer, Mullet Festival Float, Candlelight Memorial Service, Red Ribbon Week, and Prom Week. The club also meets to watch films and hear guest speakers relate their true, but informative, stories that are relevant to students at SHS.

1992 MARCHING PIRATES

The Swansboro Marching Band was something special this year. In only it's second year under the guidance of Mr. Jay Parker, they emerged as one of the top bands in the county. They participated in the ECU Homecoming Parade, the Mullet Festival, and entertained a very supportive crowd at the halftime of the football games. They also had a Pep Band for the basketball games. They were directed by Drum Majors John Champney and Shawna Leighlitner

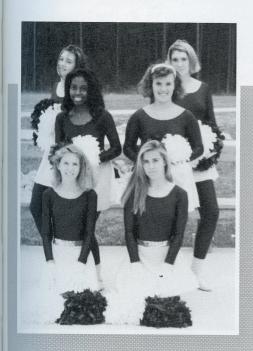

Band can be SO exhausting!!!

1992 SWANSBORO DRILL TEAM

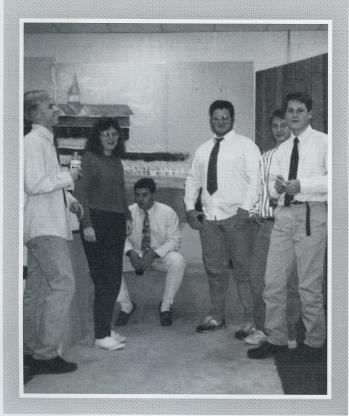

Despite constant adversity, the Drill Team was a huge success in its first year. They strutted their stuff at football games along with the band. The members were Joy Player, Captain Mandi Russell, Susie Waddell, Tracie Brown, and Jennifer Wetherington.

ACADEMIC DERBY

This year's Swansboro High School Academic Derby team was a good one. The team had quite a mixture of people that allowed them to have an outstanding season. They swept an exhibition match at the Jacksonville Mall in a tough battle. The team again this year will be participating in the Pak-a-Sak Challenge. Team members included Nathan Pickett, Sean Jones, Amy Long, Josh Haga, Krys Tetterton, Jason Humphrey, Abbie Noble, and Brad Sewell.

A DECADE OF DOMINATION.

For 10 consecutive years, the Coastal Plains 1A-2A championship banner has been displayed in our gymnasium. Despite valiant efforts from countless competitors, the soccer team has prevailed. In the past 4 years they have elevated their game even one step further to the State Championship. In 1990 we recorded our first state soccer crown, and seem to be destined for many others.

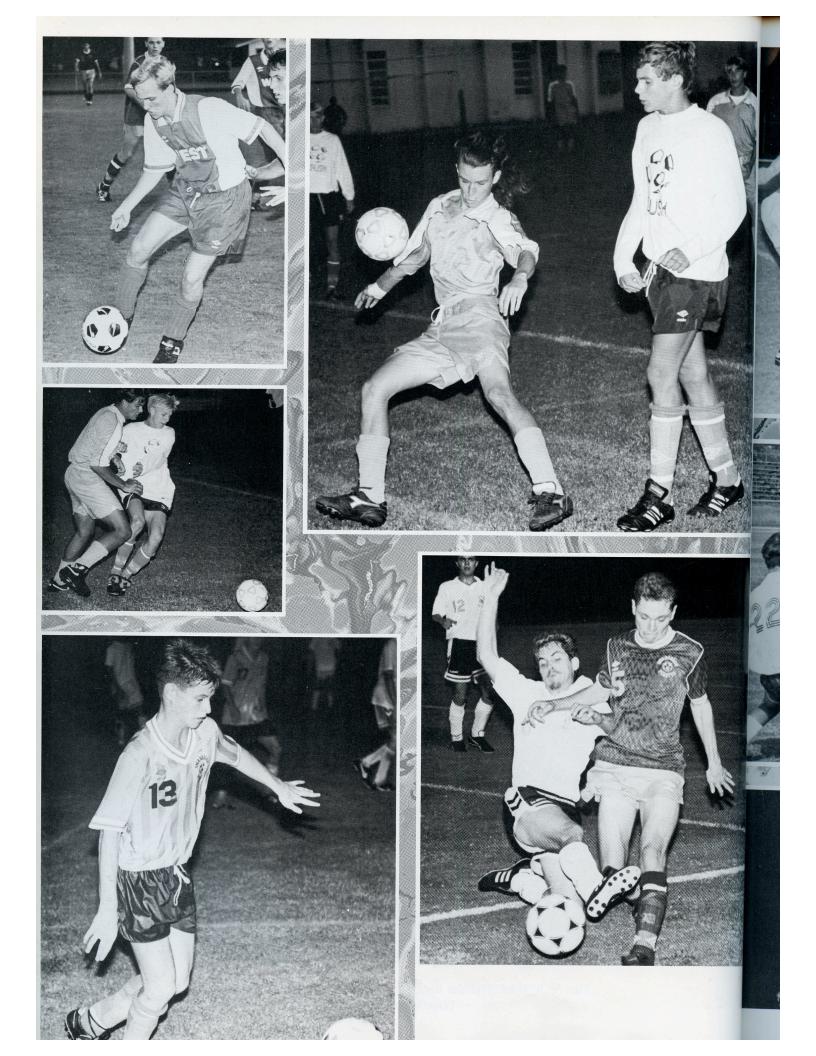

Another great 23-2-2 season was capped off with a state championship match against Charlotte Catholic at our very own Kay-Tyndall Field. A devastating 1-0 loss ended a very successful season, but regardless of the final score, the soccer tradition lives on at Swansboro

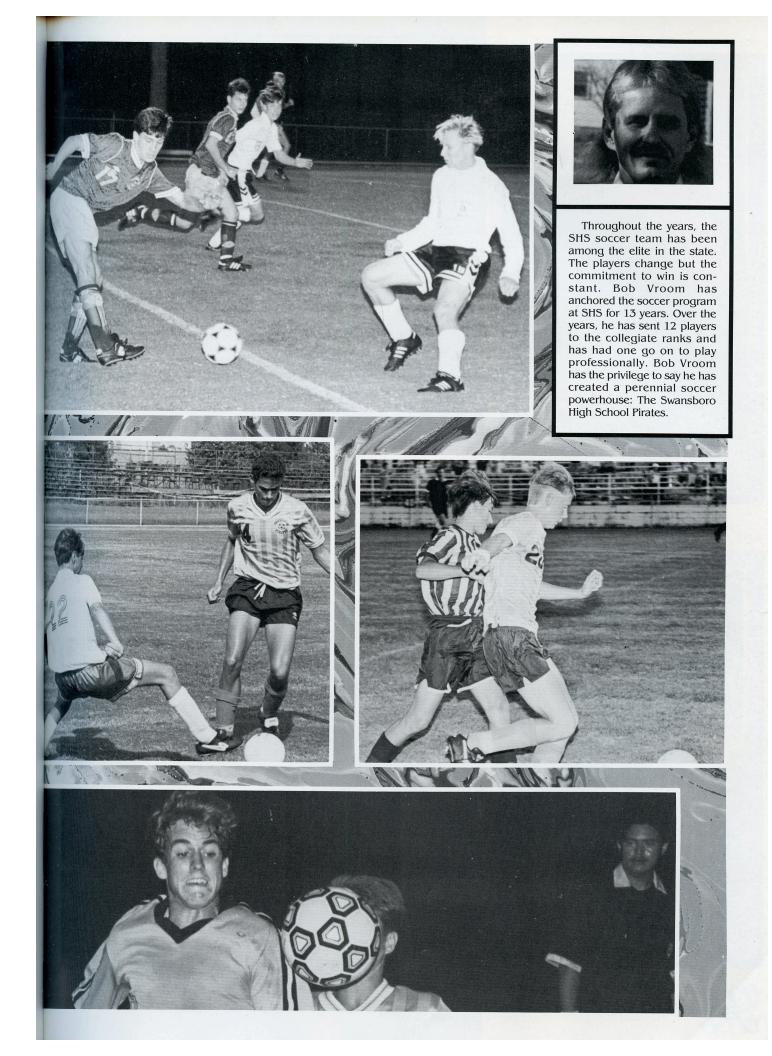

High School.

Tim & Jerrold: Thanks for being there! We'll miss you both! Love Kim & Amy

I have coached for 13 years, and I have been the head coach for 8 years. We had trouble early in the season, but we showed great improvement over the course of the season. Some of the younger players really matured, and should help in future seasons.

With 3 years on varsity. Both had many good moments, and hopefully had some great memories. The seniors had a good attitude. We always hate to lose seniors, but that's inevitable. We feel we have a lot of talent returning.

I have also coached for 8 years. There are a lot of questions at the beginning of the year. I was pretty proud over all. They pulled together, and did a super job.

Coach Gray

I have coached other places for 20 years. I have only coached for Swansboro for 6 years. We were very young. There was a lot of freshmen & sophomores. This year was the most we have ever had. The senior leadership was not as good as it has been in the past. However, we did manage to build for the future and hope next year will much better.

Coach Ross

This year there was a change of command for the Lady Pirates. After sixteen years, Coach Ross announced he was resigning as head coach for medical reasons. Coach Ross has been a great asset to the team and we'd like to thank him for giving his whole-hearted time and energy to the team. Thank you Coach Ross!!!!

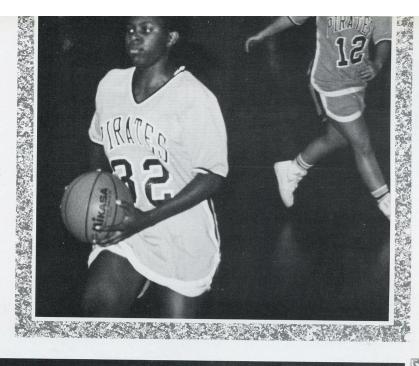

Coach Kellum

Coach Kellum is the "New Coach on the block" at Swansboro Basketball games. He will be taking over the head coaching position for the Lady Pirates. Farewell To A Great Coach

After eight years of coaching, Mr. Maxwell has decided to retire from Swansboro High School. Being the coach of a bunch of rowdy girls, you would think Mr. Maxwell would be about worn out. But according to the softball team, he still keeps them on their toes. Thanks for all the good times, Mr. Maxwell!

Not only does Mr. Maxwell coach the softball team, he is also known for his teaching techniques.

J.V. Football

W hat? Me Ready?

The 1992 JV football team had a rough but enjoyable year. The younger Pirates played on Thursday nights and were coached by Head Coach Walsh and Assistant Coach Scott. JV is mainly considered a training for Varsity. Again this year's team struggled due to the lack of facilities. The team played with much effort tin both defense and offense. The team would just like to say, "Thank you Coach Walsh and Coach Scott."

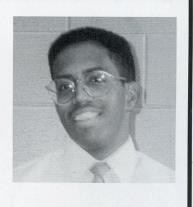

You're clear !RRUUNN!!!"

COACH'S CORNER

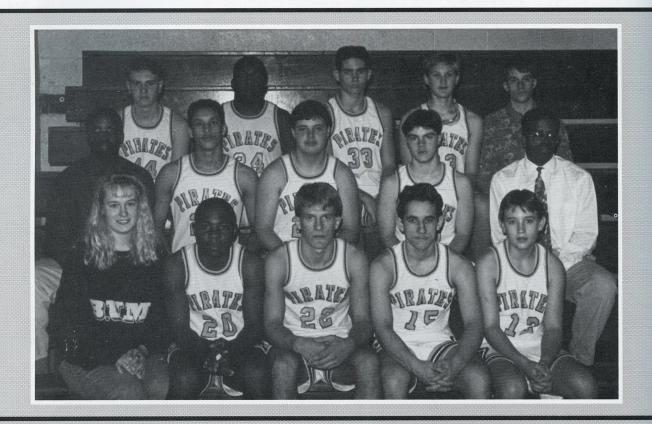

Coach Walsh told us exactly how he felt, he said "This years team was both young and inexperienced. The team always played hard and showed improvement as the season progressed. Hopefully the experience gained from this past year will pay off in the future."

Coach Scott also told us exactly how he felt, he said "I was impressed by the tenacity of the players. I'm sure that their desire to succeed will pay off with many victories in the future."

J.V. BASKETBALL

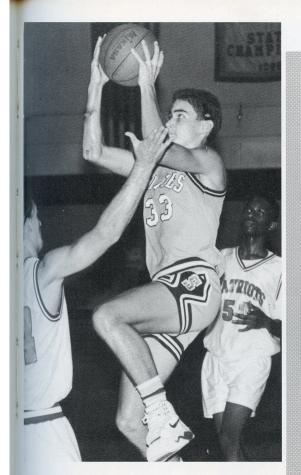

At the beginning of the season, everyone had their doubts about the J.V. Basketball team. They were very inexperienced, with only two returning members from last year's squad. But the team turned out to be a very delightful surprise for coaches Joseph Hicks and Kennith Scott. They started playing like a team and gained necessary experience for next year. This team was comprised of five sophomores and seven freshmen.

Players on the team were Walter Cochran, Tim Crawford, Chris DeShong, Sean Donovan, Jack Hamlet, Charles Hoskins, James King, Dale North, Wyatt Panos, Roger Pickett, Corey Riggs, and Krys Tetterton. The coaches are Joseph Hicks and Kennith Scott. The manager was Tim Duppstadt.

1992 HOMECOMING

PIRATE WEEK '92 a time to remember. For some of us it was our first and yet for others it will be our last. Regaining privileges for a parade couldn't have turned out any better. SPIRIT WEEK got our enthusiasm roaring for that big night we had all been waiting for.

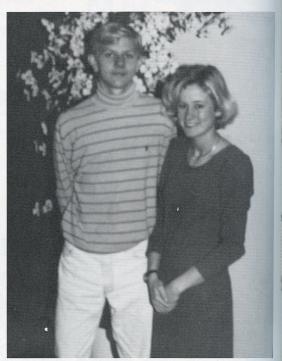

The BIG NIGHT, after halftime all 18 homecoming hopefuls were escorted by Mr. Mario Jordan and Mr. Steven Whited. The crowd cheered as each girl walked out onto the field. Standing patiently waiting for their names to be called, Chad Morgan spokesman said, "And our 1st runner up is ... Miss Kimberly Singleton," and yet with each of our hearts still racing, Chad once again said, "And our 1992 Homecoming Queen is ... Miss Janie Byrd." With another victory Homecoming game, Homecoming 1992 was definitely "A NIGHT TO REMEMBER."

The money for Century Club cards covers season tickets and the delicious annual banquet. This year's guest speaker was Horace (Bones) McKinney. Mr. McKinney played basketball at UNC-CH and NC State. After college, he played in the NBA with the Washington Bullets and the Boston Celtics. He was the head basketball coach at Wake Forest University for several years until he recently retired. He became a caller/commentator for ACC television. In his retirement, he is making many appearances throughout the country as an after dinner banquet speaker.

Christmas Cheer

This year, Swansboro High School's SADD chapter participated in the Christmas Cheer program. A challenge was put to all students to bring at least 500 canned goods and other items for needy families.

In all, 713 canned goods were donated, $350.90 was given, and large quantities of clothes and other items were donated, making Christmas Cheer a huge success at SHS.

A group of Swansboro High School rising seniors went to Spain, France, and England; each country with its distinct flavor. We went by every form of transportation there is. We arrived in Spain by plane. To Paris, France we went on a very long train ride. Then we went to wonderful London by boat. On our boat ride, there wasn't a lot of happy campers. Although the journey was unsettling, it was an experience that we will never forget.

STUDENT STUDENT LIFE

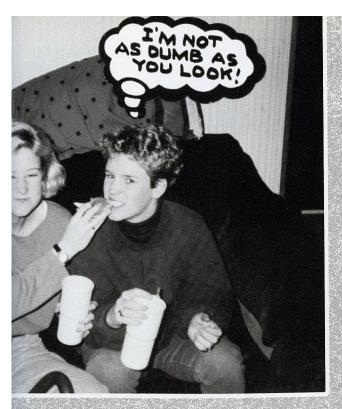

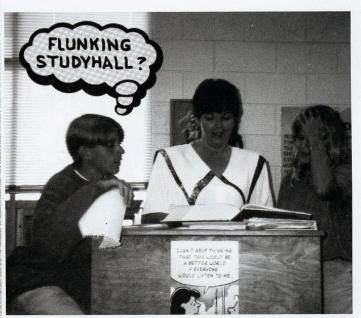

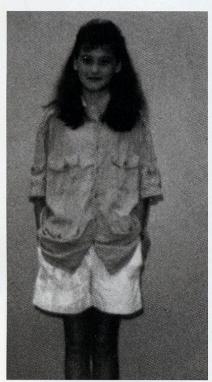

REMEMBER WHEN ...

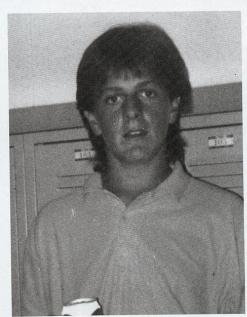

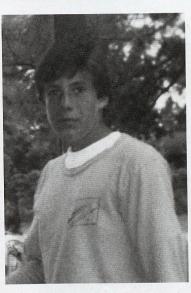

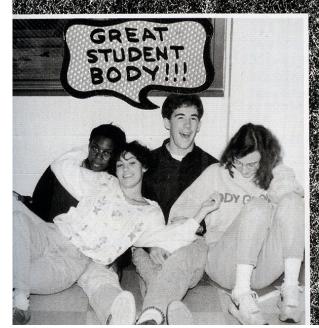

Journalism

Pre-Yearbook Sales ... Again??

The 1993 Pirate is sponsored by Mr. Jonathan Welsh. The editors are Dia Hinson and Brooks Sorensen. Many people don't know exactly what the Journalism class does, so this page will illustrate what is involved in the class. Every Fall, we sell yearbooks at a Pre-Sale that indicates how many yearbooks we need to order. All yearbook students participated in this process; here Amy Dameron and Kim Godwin show us how it's done. Mandi Mull sells line ads at the bottom of pages (gotta have that money!!). We the Pirate staff hope you, the student body, are satisfied with this year's Pirate.

What did you want written?

The 1992-93 Journalism class is comprised of: Autumn Bailes, Kathryn Boyce, Tim Carr, Amy Dameron, Lyn Dolton, Crystal Foy, Gina Hartsoe, Brandi Hildebrand, Dia Hinson, Donald Jordan, Gina Hyman, Matt Leo, Jenny Manning, Effie Matthews, Mandi Mull, Abbie Noble, Erin Nordeen, Chris Padgett, Brad Sewell, Brooks Sorensen, and Krys Tetterton.
