

PIRATE

Digitized and restored by Shannon Adams. For personal enjoyment only. Best efforts were made to mask blemishes and markings. Special thanks to Swansboro High for their support.

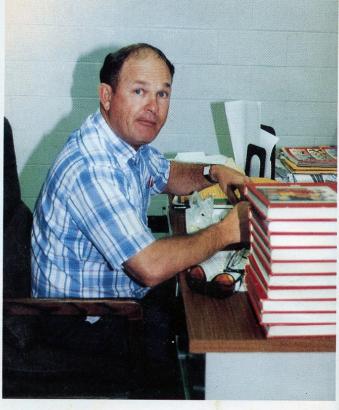

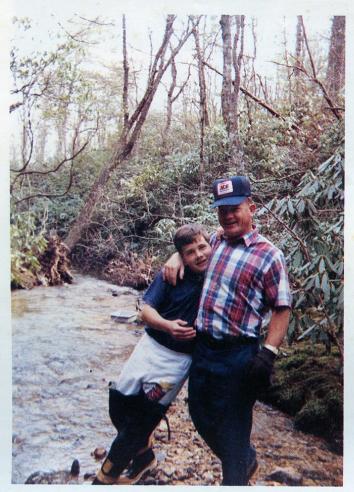

Pirate, the yearbook of Swansboro High School, Swansboro, North Carolina, is published by Swansboro High School's Publications Class under the direction of Barbara Chandler. No part of this book may be reproduced without the written consent of Brad Sewell, editor of the Pirate Staff. This book was printed by Herff-Jones Publishing Company.

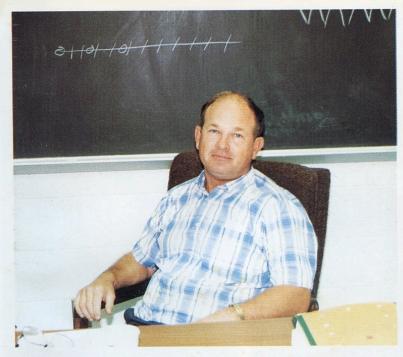

Dedication is a significant event in the course of producing a yearbook. It is not an easy process, but one that requires time and effort through a system of trial and error. Certainly there are many candidates who have been considered, but the Pirate can only be dedicated to one deserving nominee. Hard working, proud, loyal, and caring only begin to describe the warmth that Mr. Dewey Wells has brought to all of us here at Swansboro.

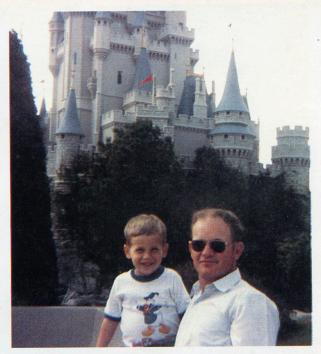

Mr. Wells's devotion to Swansboro High and its students is almost as great as the devotion he has for his family. A respected teacher, a fine husband, a loving father, and an all around good guy, Mr. Dewey Wells has given twenty years to Swansboro High, making him a truly deserving figure for the 1996 Pirate.

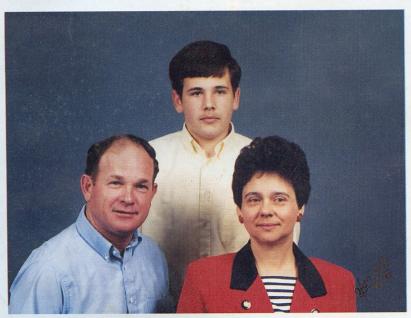

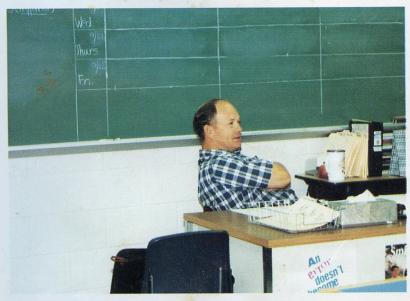

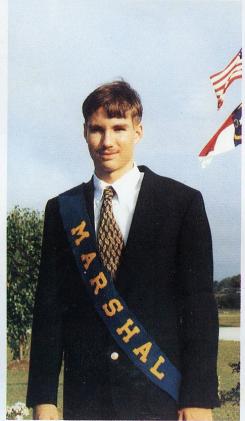

1995-96 MARSHALS

Above: Get out of my way, will ya? I'm in a hurry. Left: Who's the sore thumb in this picture?

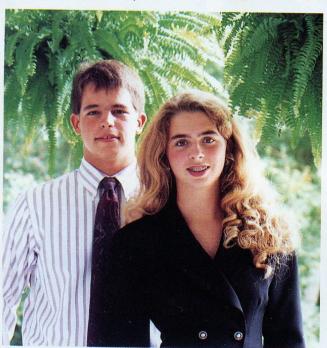

The marshals are Swansboro's most dedicated and hard working seniors. They worked three long years to reach the top ten of the senior class. They are proud of what they have accomplished in the past few years. Congratulations to James Harris, Jason Hotaling, Brad Sewell, Wendy Welsh, James Nobles, Kathryn Boyce, Suzanne Robert, Diana Byrd, Heather Smith, and Amy Bolick.

On April 28 and 29, 1995, Swansboro High School's Music department presented the play Guys and Dolls. The play is a hilarious comedy about some gambling guys, a dancer in a nightclub, a salvation army doll and their relationships. Mr. Farina was in charge of the musical and said he was very pleased with the turnout that they had.

T.J. sure is proud to be nominated Mr. Football.

Corey's shoes sure do blend in with the rest!

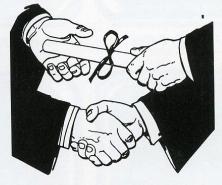

We sure are happy to be seniors!

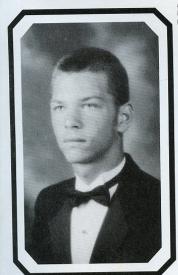

It looks like Wendy and Jenni are lost in the 70's.

There was a silence and the announcer paused and exclaimed "Our 1995-1996 Homecoming Queen is . . . Heather Smith!"

Congratulations to the volleyball team for winning the state 1A championship on Saturday, Nov. 4 at Carmichael Auditorium in Chapel Hill. This win was special because it was the third straight year that the Pirates brought home the championship, bringing Pirate volleyball up to "three-peat" status.

The Pirates were led to victory by inspired Head Coach Joan Riggs who is resigning her post as head volleyball coach after 20 years. During this time, Coach Riggs has led the Pirates to post-season play for 15 years in a row. Coach Riggs closes out her coaching career with a 363-65 record. However, the Pirates volleyball dynasty will be placed in the able hands of Yolanda White, a 1991 graduate of SHS and a member of the 1990 state championship team. Thanks for the memories, Coach Riggs.

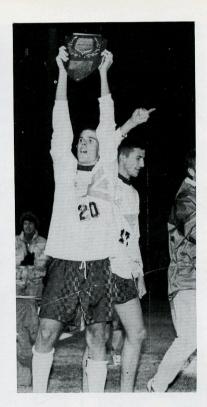

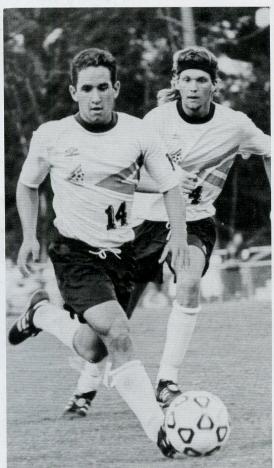

Junior Perry White beats a Charlotte Catholic opponent to a loose ball in Raleigh during the Pirates 4-1 state championship win.

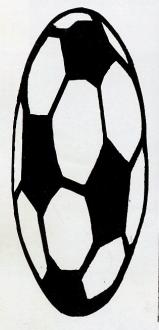

Jason Bailes takes a hit at home against Dixon.

This year was a year of adversity for the Pirates both on and off the field. After three months of ups and downs including three regular season losses, the Bucs thrived in the playoffs; five big games . . . five big wins. In fact, the Pirates were nearly untouchable in the playoffs, allowing only one goal while finishing quite well for themselves with 32 goals. For head coach Bob Vroom this was the 13th straight conference title, the 10th straight 20 win season, the 6th Eastern title, and the 2nd state crown. At Swansboro, the tradition continues.

1995-96 VARSITY

Kylene, Stephanie, Michelle, and Angela wait patiently for a touchdown while the Varsity Cheerleaders try to convince everyone to join in on the Spirit Wagon.

In June of 1995 the Varsity Cheerleaders were chosen according to their athletic capabilities. Unlike any other athletes, cheerleaders cheer year round. They endure a total of 9 hours of practice, not including two games a week.

Beginning in October, the squad began preparing for the 1996 State Cheerleading Competition. On January 27, 1996, squads from across the state will file into the Raleigh Memorial Auditorium. In 1994, the SHS Varsity Cheerleaders brought home the state 1A title, in 1995 the squad placed 4th in the state and this year the squad is once again going for the gold.

Varsity Cheerleaders are involved in more than just cheering at ball games; they help in making Toast of the Coast run smoothly, planning homecoming activities, Spirit Week, the annual yardsale, and many other functions.

This year was a year of change. Due to the birth of Morgan Sheehan, Ellen felt it was better to spend these first years with her new bundle of joy. When Ms. Amy Jordan transferred from Swansboro Middle School to SHS, she took on the job of coaching the SHS Varsity Cheerleaders. The squad and Ms. Jordan have all learned so many new things. Thank-You all for the things you do throughout the year.

Hey! Jenni, U can't pass through players! Below: "I said get away!"

The 1995 Marching Band was under the direction of Junior Drum Major Madrian Bryan, Senior Drum Major Heather Smith, and band director Jay Parker.

Above: Pirate blues blow your horns. Left center: Hi, Brandon! Right: The dance line peps up the crowd.

Drummers got the beat.

M PAIR RAH TIENS

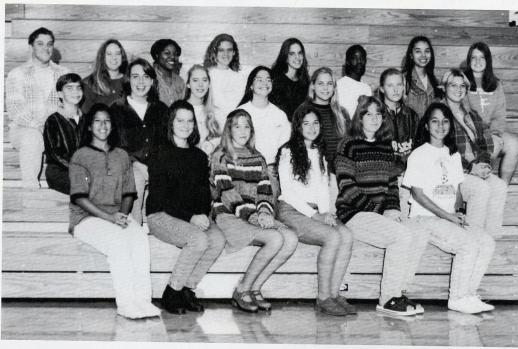

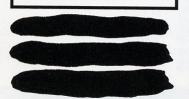

Above left: These seniors were recognized for their outstanding dedication to the band and dance line. Left: Bringing out the Pirates. Above: The band waits for Madrian to lead them.

What would sports be without statisticians, trainers, and managers? These students go above and beyond the call of duty to make sure our athletes stay healthy and coaches stay happy. Their jobs sound easy but not many people take the responsibility and time out to do them. To these students we say thank you for a job well done.

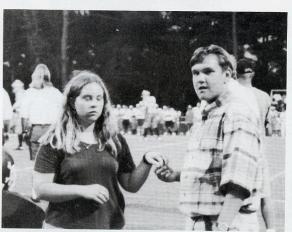

GO TEAM

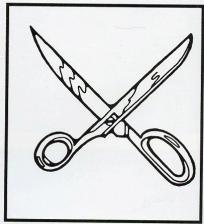

Joseph, take this and get out of here!

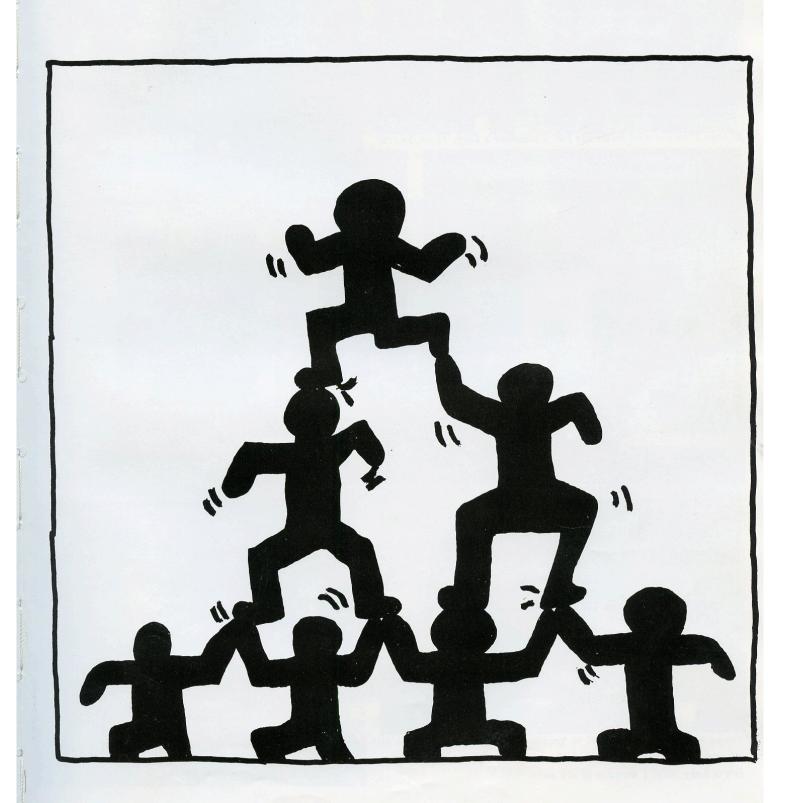

THANKS

Donna takes time out to smile for the camera.

STUDENT LIFE

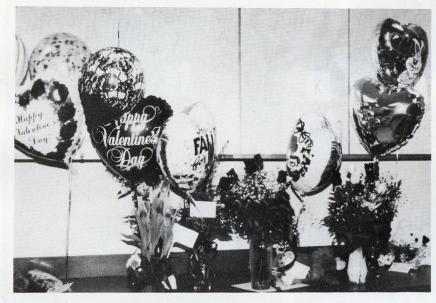

Below: Flowers and balloons for Valentine's Day, How Sweet! Below right: Jenny and Terry pass out programs for the Band Boosters' Valentine Dinner.

Left: The student body gathers for an assembly. Below: These are strange fashions to be wearing at school.

NHS

Above: The new members-to-be await anxiously for the inductions. Left: Katie seems to be too busy looking at the camera to listen what Mrs. Liles is saying.

41st Annual Mullet Festival

Right: Myshell and Melissa demonstrate what can happen to drunk drivers.

The 41st Annual Mullet Festival was again a great success, despite the rainy morning. During the parade, it rained off and on, then became sunny during the afternoon. As usual, the streets of downtown Swansboro were packed with customers. An abundance of Swansboro High School students were there enjoying the festival. Also, the band, cheerleaders and clubs from Swansboro High participated during the parade.

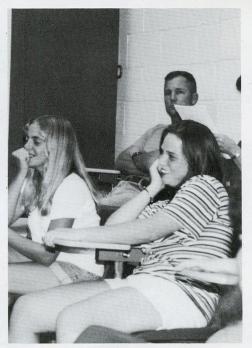

On Tuesday, August 29, SHS held its 1st semester Open House. Parents first met in the cultural arts room where Mr. Beasley and Mr. Sheldon discussed among other things the new attendance policy, schedule changes and student enrollment. Parents then followed their children's schedules to meet the corresponding teachers. Teachers discussed grading policies, class expectations, and the state curriculum. Because of parental involvement, Open House was a tremendous success, and we are looking forward to an even better turn out for the next Open House.

Center: On the morning of 9-20-1995, FCA teachers and students gathered around the flagpole at 7:30 a.m. for the second meeting of the 95-96 school year. The purpose of this prayer meeting was mainly to discuss Homecoming and the Mullet Festival floats.

Toast of the Coast

Halloween

Below left: Mrs. Baxter tries to scare the students away with little success. Below middle: Get on down, Steven Brown! Below right: Mrs. Davis, where is your costume?

Below: Did you "utter" something?

TUNG & CHEEK

On December 8, 1995 the drama class performed two comedies. Their hilarious presentations were of the plays "Final Dress Rehearsal" and "Tung and Cheek."

DR ESS REHEARSAC

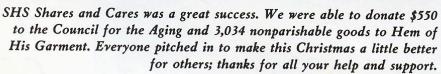

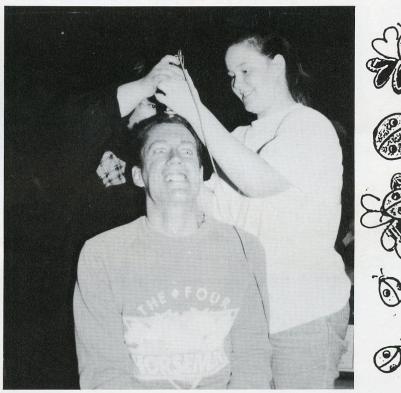

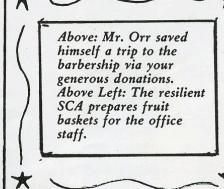

Mr. Ellington's students sell oranges to raise money for vocations. Left: "All I want for Christmas is my two front teeth."

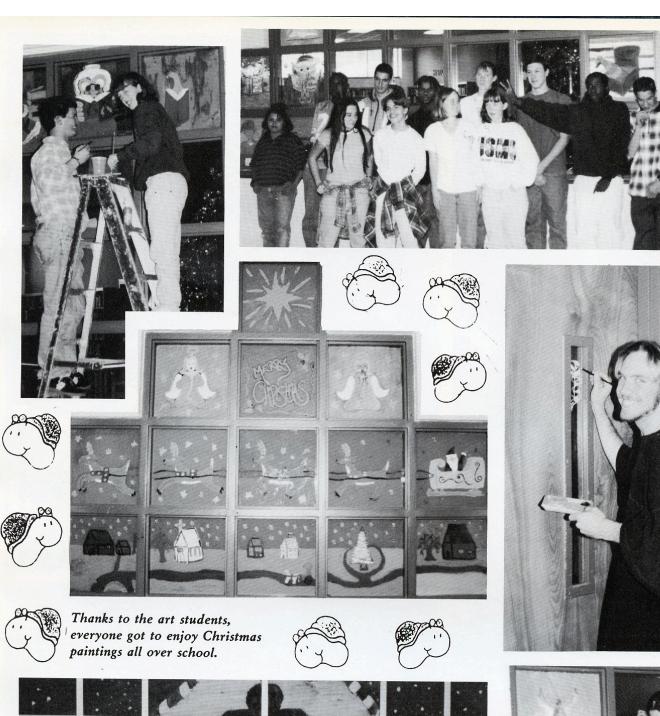

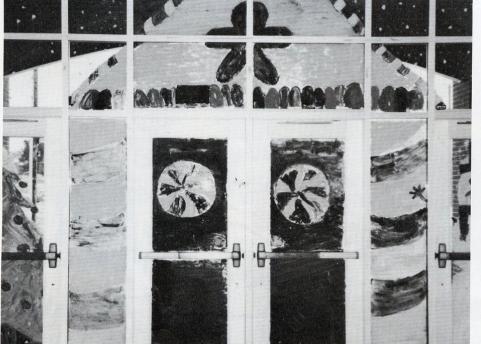

The band performed a Christmas Concert in the auditorium for all the students, teachers, and many parents to enjoy.

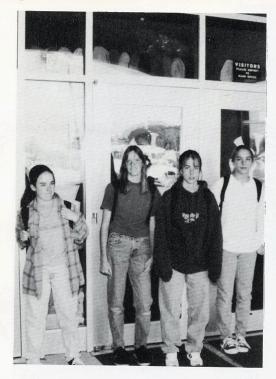

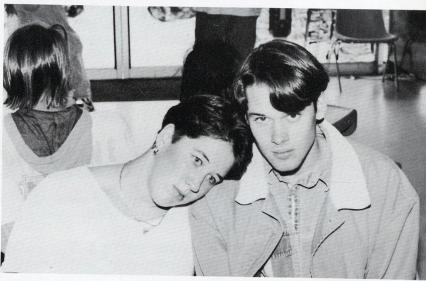

Yes, we are ready to get out of here.

Show your stuff Mr. Parker!

Oh my God, E.T. is alive!

Nothing like Jim's shoulder to lean on!

I'm stuck between all these guys!

This year students from the Psychology classes at Swansboro High School went to the Jack Amyette Center to spend a day with the handicap children of the Lejeune Developmental Center. They spent a day attending to these children and it became a great experience for them all.

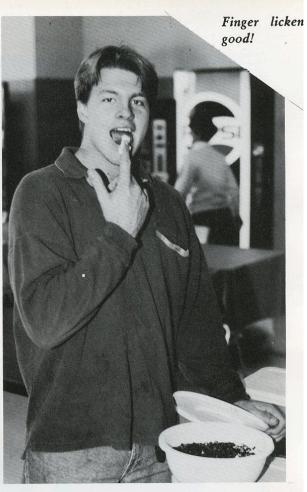

Students show their smiles and wave hello!

More muscles than brains!

I'm getting really sick of these pictures!

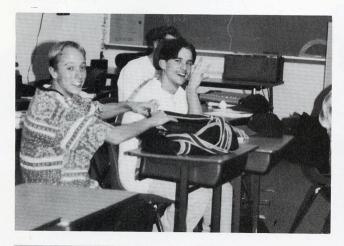

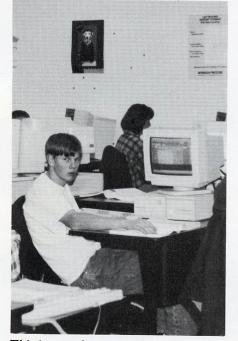

Students gather around to say goodbye.

Well, it was hovering overhead!

This is your brain on high school. Any questions?

What a bunch of happy, smiling faces.

Brock expresses himself through art.

Pucker up, Baby.

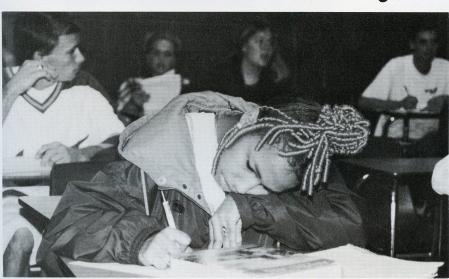

Brian and Chris show their love for Swansboro.

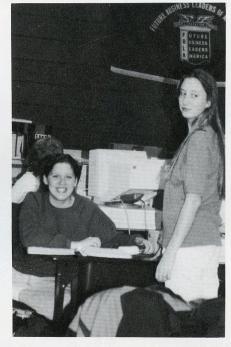

We had homework?

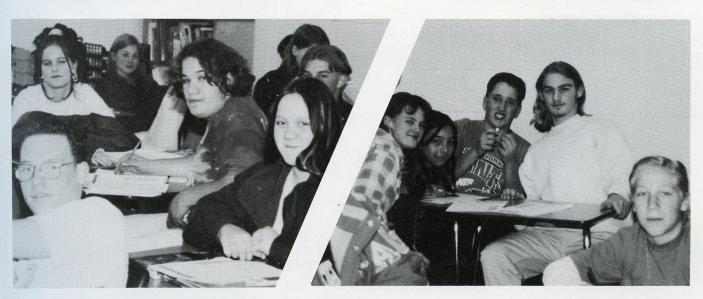

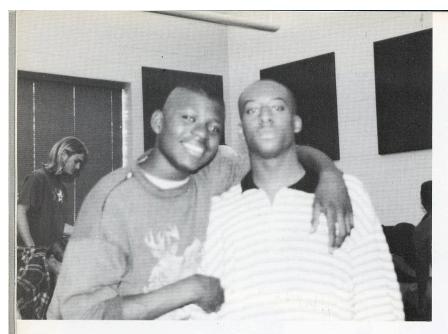

Devora Connor is a study of concentration.

Is my butt really that big?

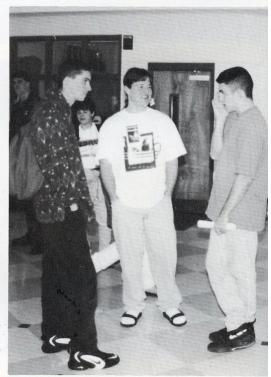

Me, Me, Me ...

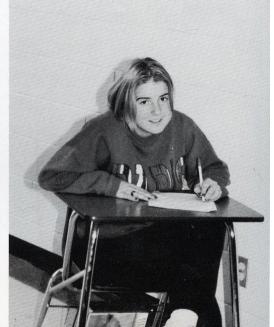

Variety...the theme at SHS.

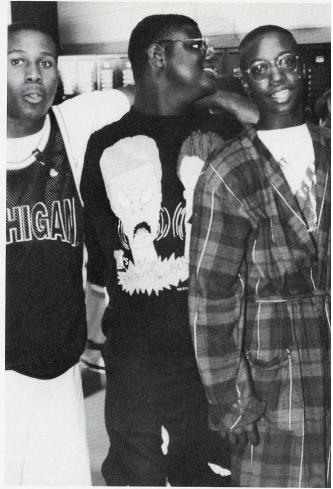

Does Renee think she works here?

Just go ahead and make yourself comfortable.

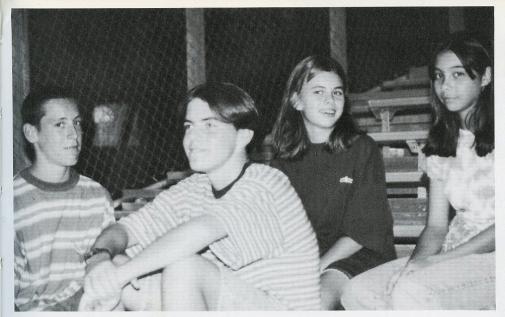

Kreg is interested in something else.

Do they look interested or not?

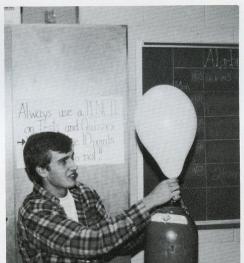

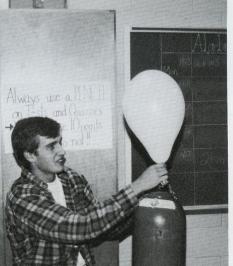

Above: What is he doing? Right: Don't bust the balloon, Paul!

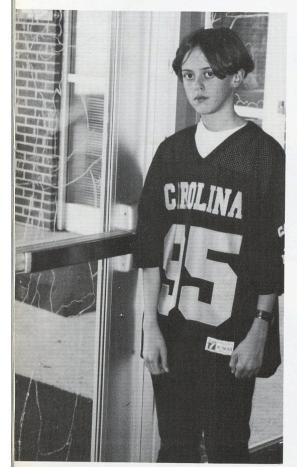

Fine, don't look!

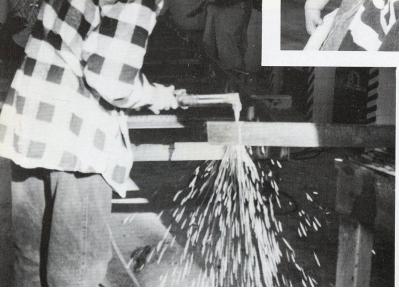

STUDENT LIFE AT SHS

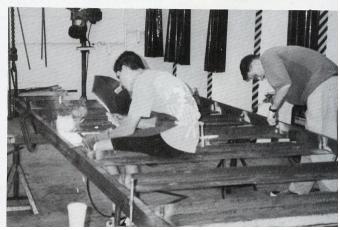

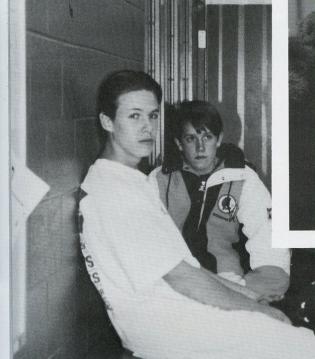

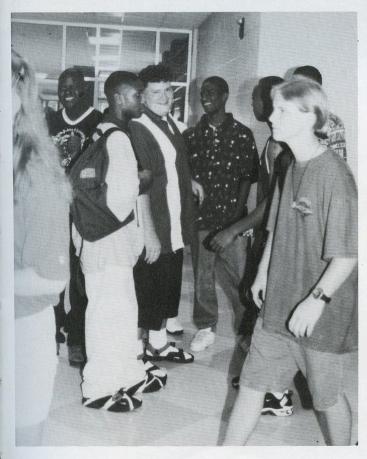

Clifford and Franklin are exhausted from the book fair!

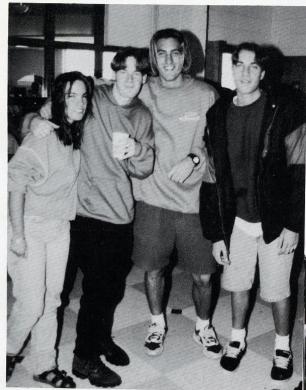

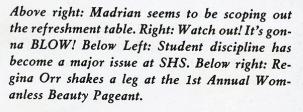

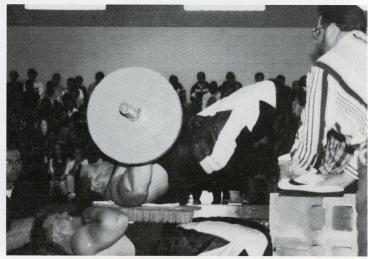

Above left: Please sir, put us down! Above right: AHHHHH! Left: Shannon isn't to excited about getting her picture taken. Below: I hope he doesn't drop it.

"A LEGEND ON THE CRYSTAL COAST!"

ATLANTIC BEACH, NO (919)240-1188

It has been an experience I will never forget. Becoming the Editor of the Pirate was an exciting accomplishment for me, but I didn't quite know what I was getting into. There have been frustrations and aggravations along the way, but there have also been successes. I owe a special thanks to my staff. Each one of you has contributed your priceless time and energy to this yearbook, and you have all earned my sincere appreciation. To the rest of the student body, I hope that this yearbook is an accurate representation of your high school. After all, these are the greatest years of our lives . . . and we know they won't last forever.

Berly 1

Your 1996 PIRATE Editor-in-Chief,
