Seems Like Yesterday

Remember the first day of kindergarten, standing in line with your new backpack, wearing your new shoes, excited to finally be going to school? SEEMS LIKE YESTERDAY. In what seemed a blink of an eye, the last day of fifth grade came and went and it was time to move on to middle school. SEEMS LIKE YESTERDAY. Next, on to middle school graduation, the beginning of high school and now, here we are again at the end of another school year, remembering the good times and thinking that the first day of school SEEMS LIKE YESTERDAY. Time goes by so fast. It's hard to believe that summer is almost here again when it feels like last summer just ended. Remember our huge win against West Carteret in the Mullet Bucket or the school we missed when Hurricane Ophelia blustered through? Who can forget Jake Mead and Staci Robinson being crowned Homecoming King and Queen or the excitement of going to the prom? For the Class of 2006, college or the beginning of their career is just around the corner, and it won't be long before we all say it SEEMS LIKE YESTERDAY!

Bree Hunt and Challie Martin pose with our school mascot.

Amanda Cain, Kristin Wells, Molly Grise, and Trista Gillikin chill out before school.

(1)Down, Set, Hut! Nathan Wade, Jake Mead, and Travis Bastin, part of the Varsity Defense, prepare for the next play.

(2)East Royalty! Staci Robinson and Jake Mead's Mother eagerly accept their crowns during Homecoming 2005.

(3)Keeping the beat, our two drum majors, Jessica Willis and Jacob Smith, lead our band.

(6)Serve it up! Logan Lilley serves the ball for another victory.

Class Officers

Secretary/Treasurer: Brittany Foley, Vice president: Amanda Eubanks, President: Dane Dupree

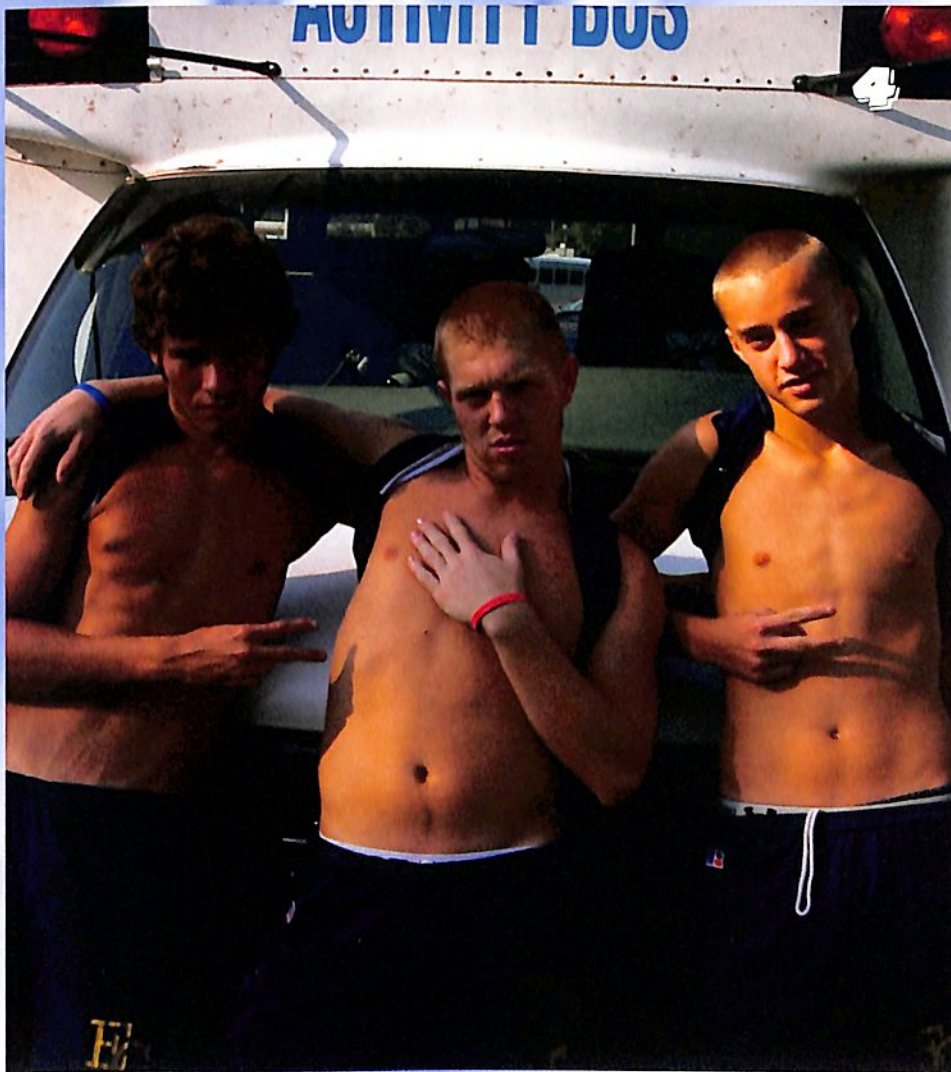

- 1) Lori Lindstadt breaks it down to the "1,2, Step" in the parking lot of Walmart.
- 2) Alex Figueroa hides from the camera while hanging out at a friend's house.
- 3) Cousins Austin Sharron and Kalah Pridgen stop for a quick pic on their way through the gym during the 2005 Homecoming assembly.
- 4) Ari Nateman, Neal Harrigan and Matt Yelton show their "spirit" at a cross country meet. "I'm going to miss my '252' boys so much; I'm going to miss hugging them and being close," states Ari with a tear in his eye.
- 5) Staci Robinson stands proud with her crown and flowers after winning the title of the 2005 Homecoming Queen.
- 6) Kim Nolan waves her flag at a 2005 colorguard competition. "I'm going to miss colorguard because I was in it all four years and it's really been a great experience," she exclaims.

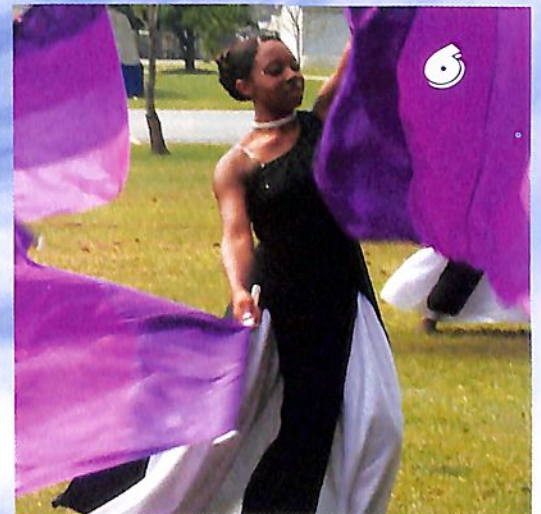

Just Yesterday...

It feels just like yesterday we were graduating from middle school, dressed up in our Sunday best, finally feeling like grown-ups, unaware of the challenges we were to face in the future. It feels just like yesterday we were freshmen in high school, once again underclassman but excited about the future ahead of us. As sophomores, we began moving up the line, constantly being stepped on by the upperclassmen, but knowing "that's life." Just yesterday we were juniors, finally upperclassmen, respected students with more privileges, and one more year until we were once again at the top. Now as seniors we are at the top of the line, the most difficult year by far, with the knowledge that this is the last year of our high school career. Prom and graduation are the last milestones we as students will pass with the students whom we have gone to school with for so long. Doesn't it seem like yesterday senior year was a decade away? Now with more challenges, more responsibilities, the class of 2006 is headed straight to the top!

Who's Who

The Who's Who students are a select few of the senior class. They are chosen by the faculty and staff in the spring of each year. Students are nominated based on scholarship, leadership, participation, dependability and their involvement. The exact number of students selected varies from year to year but it is roughly twenty percent of the senior class.

B.J. Frazier

"I can do all things through Christ, who strengthens me."

-Philippians 4:13

Ryan Morris

"Dream as if you'll live forever. Live as if you'll die today."

-James Dean

Michelle Gillikin

"The way a team plays as a whole determines its success. You may have the greatest bunch of individual stars in the world, but if they don't play together, the club won't be worth a dime."

-Babe Ruth

Andrew Hancock

"A mediocre idea that generates enthusiasm will go further than a great idea that inspires no one."

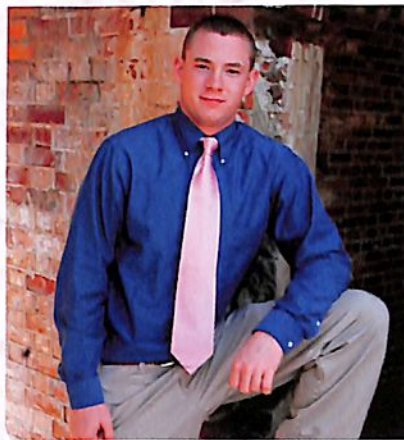

-Mary Kay Ash

Staci Robinson

"My imperfections and failures are as much as a blessing from God as my successes and my talents and I lay them both at His feet."

-Mahatma Gandhi

Colin

McDonald

"And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation worketh patience; and patience, experience; and experience hope."

-Romans 5:3-4

Lindsey Mason

"No one can make you feel inferior without your consent."

-Eleanor Roosevelt

Russell Lewis

"This is your life and it's ending one minute at a time."

-Tyler Durden

El Sledge

"Suffering becomes beautiful when anyone bears great calamities with cheerfulness, not through insensibility but through greatness of mind." -Aristotle

Mollie Grice

"What we are is God's gift to us, what we have become is our gift to God." -Eleanor Powell

Michaela Nelson

"Every time you fall, with failure, or drop with disappointment, get up stronger, so when the next obstacle comes, you'll fight harder." -Unknown

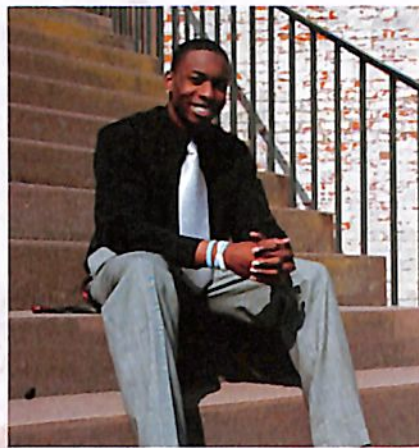

Hilary Wiltshire

"If you work hard, do the best that you can, and take advantage of every opportunity that is put in front of you, success will come your way." -Colin Powell

Antionne McNeill

"When faced head on obstacles in life can only make you stronger." -Antionne McNeill

Paul Stanley

"Don't cry because it's over. Smile because it happened." -Dr. Seuss

Mandy Arrington

"If your success is not on your own terms, if it looks good to the world but does not feel good in your heart, it is not success at all." -Anna Quindlen

Loxi Lindstadt

"Everyone has a talent, what is rare is the courage to follow the talent to the dark place where it leads." -Erica Jong

Kaelyn Willis

"Life is not a journey to the grave with the intention of arriving safely in a pretty and well preserved body, but rather to skid in broadside, thoroughly used up, totally worn out, and loudly proclaiming wow what a ride!" -Unknown

Kimberlee

Nolan

"As you become more clear about who you really are, you'll be better able to decide what is best for you...Understand that the right to choose your own path is a sacred privilege. Use it. Dwell in possibility!" -Oprah Winfrey

Josh Pake

"But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint." -Isaiah 40:31

Jacob M. Smith

"Make a joyful noise unto the Lord, all ye lands. Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presence with singing, know ye that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name. For the Lord is good: his mercy is everlasting, and his truth endureth to all generations." -Psalm 100

Samuel Willis

"Remember that in a race, everyone runs, but only one person gets the prize. So run in such a way that you will win. All athletes practice strict self-control. They do it to win a prize that will fade away, but we do it for an eternal prize. So I run straight to the goal with purpose in every step. I am not like the boxer who shadow boxes. I discipline my body like an athlete, training it to do what it should. So that I will not be disqualified after preaching the Good News." -1 Corinthians 9:24-27, Luke 12:4, 1 Corinthians 9:25

Juniors, Steppin' up to the plate

As juniors, students have many responsibilities. The juniors are stressed out over the S.A.T. and choosing a college. "Our junior year is slipping away; we will be graduated sooner than we expect." Overwhelmed with reality, Robyn Garner shares her feelings about her upcoming senior year.

Many of the juniors are excited to become seniors next year. "I cannot wait until I get to get out for senior lunch," Daniel Murphy says when asked about his feelings on becoming senior. There are many exciting things you get to do when you become a senior and working hard will get you there.

1. Sophomores Patricia Davis, Rebecca Cole, Hadley Willis and Xoe Wise are "livin' it up" during lunch. Patricia states, "We love being sophomores; it's so cool."

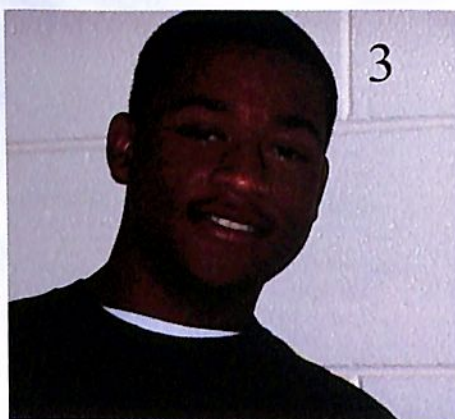

2. Tiffany Hastings says, "The best thing about being a sophomore is that I get to drive to school."

3. Darnell Hester states, "I love being a sophomore because I feel like I'm one step closer to the top."

4. Samantha Salter and Julie Nelson stop for a picture on their way to class. Julie states, "We were friends our freshman year and we're still friends now."

5. Kyra and Ty Oden have fun in Latin I.

6. Laurel Harker works hard on the computer in the library. She states, "One of the reasons I like being a sophomore is that I only have two more years left in school."

LIVE FOR TOMORROW!

Being a sophomore can be an exciting time because sophomores only have two years to go until they make a big step into the real world. Tenth graders have become familiar with the school and have learned how everything works. As the sophomores move up they experience challenging classes that they must take to graduate such as English II and Civics. Also, in the spring they must take the high school comprehensive test, the competency test, and the writing test. Surviving these challenges will not only make them stronger, but better prepared for the next two years and life after high school.

"Outside of school I hang out with my friends."

2) Brogan Langdale and Kimberley Lewis strut their stuff during the Homecoming assembly. Kimberley was a runner up for the freshman homecoming court. Kimberly stated, "I was very excited! It felt like an honor to be in homecoming my freshman year, especially when I didn't know a lot of people."

3) Anne Sheehan breaks it down during her rendition of "All That Jazz" at the 2005 Lip Syncs. Anne stated, "It felt really good because it was the first thing I was able to do as a high school student. It was empowering and a great way to start the year!"

4) Rashaun Ellison, Amanda Lenz and Shelby Hendricks strike a pose while showing off their decade style, giving us a taste of how students at ECHS may have dressed in the 70s and 80s. Rashaun stated, "I felt privileged for being able to dress up!"

5) Ed Gonzalez daydreams of how good it would be to be in bed right now instead of class.

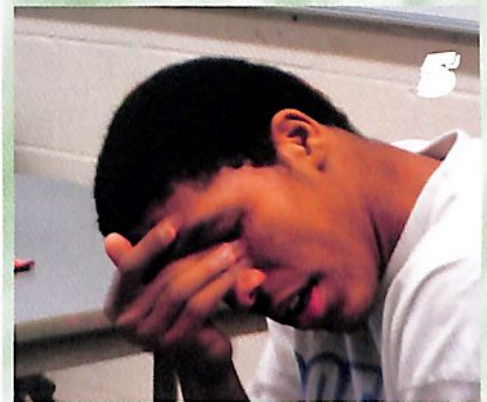

6) The students in Mrs. Green's Freshmen Express goof off while playing "silent ball."

Looking Towards Tomorrow

Changing schools can have a huge impact on some people, but that does not really seem to be the case for the freshmen of East Carteret. "East is a lot bigger and you have more choices of what to do," says Jamie Minchin. Adjusting to all the new people can be a big change also. "The people are nice and it's a good school," says Mala Evans. To some people, converting to high school is a very exciting event; you receive the opportunity to join clubs, play sports, be in school plays, and much more. The freshmen of East Carteret are learning how to make the most of their high school experience, leaving middle school in the past and looking towards tomorrow.

1)Senior Lori Lindstadt states, "I love to sing, I just can't hold a tune."

2)Senior Amanda Wallace loves to dance whenever she gets into the mood.

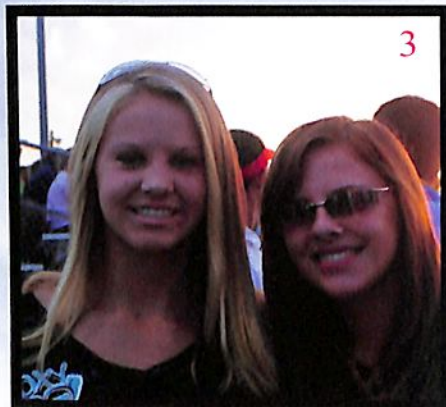

3)Sophomores Patricia Davis and Xoe Wise spend an evening at a football game. Xoe states, "We love to go and hang out at football games together."

4)Senior Lela Sharp and freshmen Taylor Dickinson and Kimmy Simmons rehearse for the 2005 Christmas play.

CAPTURE THE MOMENT!!!

Now we do it outside of school...

Students are involved in a lot of different activities. From football to cheerleading to drama and everything in between, school activities keep us busy. So when we finally get a chance to lay back and chill with our friends we go all out. From hanging out at the movies to going to parties and just having the time of our lives, we really know how to have a good time.

And the Nominees are...

The Homecoming Assembly for 2005 was a great success with a lot of new faces in the running for King, Queen, Prince and Princess. Every year the representatives of each class and the runners for royalty strut their stuff through the gymnasium for their fellow classmates, escorted by the person of their choice, young and old alike. Corey Hill, a senior representative this year, explained his feelings about the assembly, "I think it went really well and I am glad that I was able to be a part of Homecoming my last year in high school." Kevin Chunn, another senior this year, enjoyed his first Homecoming and was thrilled to be in it. "I was just glad I was nominated and was able to do something like this before I graduated," he explained. All in all, the 2005 Homecoming Assembly was a great success and all the representatives made great first impressions on their teachers, other faculty members and fellow classmates.

Cruisin' the Block

On a brisk, cloudy day the Homecoming representatives showed off their flashy cars and their pride in being nominated for King/Queen, Prince/Princess and homecoming court. From a 1965 candy apple red Impala to a navy blue Z-71, the variety of cars the nominees choose to show off came in many shapes and colors. Neal Harrigan rode in a 2005 sky blue beetle convertible and commented, "I had a great time and was glad to get to 'show off my stuff.'" Senior E.J. Sledge, nominee and Varsity football player, rode in the football float instead of his own vehicle and jokingly said he felt, "The way I always feel; better than everyone else," even if he didn't get to ride by himself. The parade seemed to be a great success just like the rest of the Homecoming activities for this year.

Capturing the moment....

Junior representatives Sarah Guthrie and Brittany Dixon cuddle up for a pose during the parade. "I had a lot of fun and enjoyed spending my time with one of my friends," Sarah explains.

Bring it on...

The Varsity Football team stops their float to strike a pose. Antoine McNeil said, "I had a really good time chillin' with my boys in the parade. I was just glad to be in it."

Last chance....

Senior Representative Kacyn Willis tosses candy during her last Homecoming Parade. "I had a great time and know that I can look back on Homecoming as one of my best memories of high school," she exclaims.

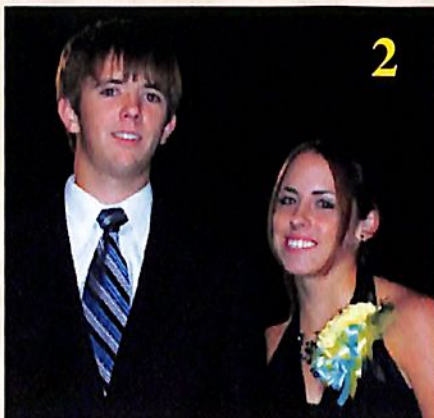

Cruisin'...

Senior Amanda Wallace waves "hello" to all the bystanders during the parade. "I really had a great time this year and I am sad that it is my last," Amanda explains when asked how she felt about this year's Homecoming.

Royal Crowning

The Royal Crowning at the 2005 Homecoming game was a great success with the help of the beautiful nominees, escorts and the amazing win of the Homecoming Varsity football game. The votes were close but seniors Jake Mead and Staci Robinson were crowned King and Queen. Senior Hayden Willis was nominated for the 2005 Princess and said she thought, "Gee, golly how exciting!" Another nominee in Homecoming Court, junior Brooke Winchester said, "I was glad to have been in it again because it was my third year, and I hope next year will be my fourth." Despite the freezing weather, the night will always be a memorable one for the 2005 representatives and winners of Homecoming Court.

- 1) Senior Courtney Dagnino shows off her school spirit and supports our troops at the same time at the Homecoming Ceremony during the football game.
- 2) Junior Brittany Dixon and Sophomore Davis Springle stop for a quick flash on their way off of the field.
- 3) Seniors Representatives Amanda Wallace and Antoine McNeill breathe a sigh of relief after finishing their walk around the gym for the Homecoming Assembly.
- 4) Homecoming winners Staci Robinson and Jake Mead cuddle up as they show off their crowns in excitement.

Fall Drama Production

IT'S TIME FOR THE SHOW!

Everyone loves toys at Christmastime! Audrianna Rose adds to the toyshop by portraying a toy bear.

Jesse Creech plays the part of Raggedy Andy in Santa's Toyshop.

The head elf, played by Maia Evans, consults with Santa Claus and Mr. Tompkins, played by Katlyn Gillikin and Cody Davis.

Some may say that a lot of drama happens at East, and they would not be lying. Thanks to the drama and theatre arts classes, it all happens on the auditorium stage. The fall Drama 1 class performs two shows, the Lip Syncs and the fall drama production. All sets, costumes and lights are provided by the Ms. Green's Theatre Arts students. In its seventh year, the Lip Syncs provided entertainment for the audience ranging from The Spice Girls to Gretchen Wilson. All the money raised for the Lip Syncs goes towards the Julianne Strauch Drama Scholarship.

The fall production of "Christmas Toyshop" showed the audience that we all need to believe in Christmas in our hearts. Katlyn Gillikin played Santa Claus with Maia Evans as her sidekick elf, Nix. The production was a huge hit with only one major dilemma. Taylor Dickinson broke her arm doing a back handspring for the class preview, but her dedication and enthusiasm continued on despite the injury.

Ms. Sherman's Drama II class performed the comedy, "The Wannabes" for the spring production. The play was about a summer drama camp for understudies, but everything goes a little haywire when a so-called movie producer shows up, making the girls think they could become famous. Guy Willis played the ever-charming movie producer and Mary B. Safrit and Janie Kight played the two female leads, Laura and Amy. Thanks to the hard work and dedication of both staff and students, all productions were a huge hit this year, providing entertainment for all ages.

Lip Syncs

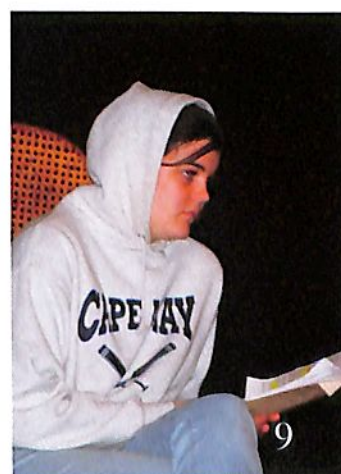

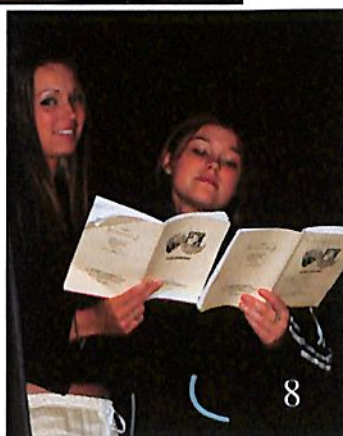

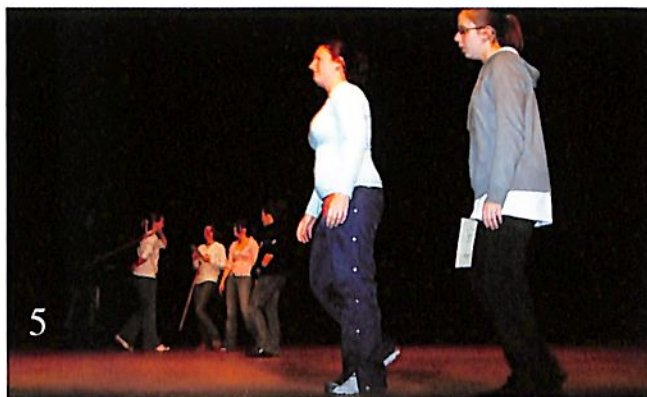

(1) Jackie Inman, Rayn Morris and, Katlyn Gillikin sing and dance to Jessica Simpson's "These Boots are Made for Walking."

(2) Kameron Giblin and Kimmie Simons show their country roots by performing "Mississippi Girl" by Faith Hill.

(3) Holly Moore, Kimberly Lewis, Samantha Taylor, Elizabeth Hurley and Taylor Dickinson imitate the Spice Girls with the song "Wannabe."

(4) Darbi Ferguson, Audrianna Rose and Alex Goodwin perform "Man I Feel Like a Woman" by Shania Twain

Spring Drama Production

(5) Leticia Gillikin and Frankie Joyner practice their lines for "Wannabes."

(6) Brittany Peterson and Leticia Gillikin listen as Lori Lindstadt rehearses her lines.

(7) Always ready to kick it up a notch, a 7-month pregnant Mrs. Sherman helps Rebecca Davidson improve her hi-ya kicks for the show.

(8) Brook Winchester and Courtney Dagnino study their lines for the scene.

(9) Janie Knight patiently waits for her next line.

Peter Pan

This year's musical, Peter Pan, was by far one of the best performances here at East. With Peter Pan being played by freshman, Jamie Minchin, and Captain Hook being played by senior, Russell Lewis, it was really a magical time. Strong imaginations along with the directing talent of Mrs. Jennifer Sherman created this musical and made you believe in magic. Peter Pan was one of the most difficult musicals for the school to produce because of the flying, stage work, and the enormously large cast. The flying for the show was produced by a flying company called "Flying by Foy," and the stage was designed by theatre arts teacher, Mrs. Jen Green. Who could forget Miss Person with her vocal talent, who turned some of the newcomers into a singing sensation? With Ms. Person's help she was able to get a handful of volunteer musicians to be a part of our two weekend orchestra.

The musical is about a curious boy named Peter Pan who never wants to grow up. Peter is the leader of a gang of boys known as the "Lost Boys". They spend their time with one adventure after another fighting off Indians and Pirates on their island, Neverland. As Peter begins to want a female companion, he goes off and finds Wendy, played by sophomore, Xoe Wise, and her two brothers John and Michael, who were played by Nathan Sandlin and Isaac Ishee.

Hard work and dedication were a few of the things required to be in this play. The cast had practices daily, before and after school. If you truly want to believe in magic, just remember to "think of lovely things. And your heart will fly on wings, Forever in Never Never Land."

Peter Pan sits and waits while Wendy sews his shadow back on.

Wendy, John, and Michael soar above their room as they learn to fly with the help of fairy dust and lovely thoughts.

Peter Pan, his Lost Boys and Michael listen to the applause of the audience after singing their song in Neverland.

Mrs. Darling and Michael practice dancing around the Darling Nursery during Act I.

Above: Wendy, played by Xoe Wise, looks very sad because she has to leave Peter Pan and return home.

Below: Tiger Lily and the other Ugg-a-wugg Indians dance through Neverland during Act II.

Chorus

As her second year comes to an end, Ms. Person has enjoyed teaching her students the ability and strength of their voices and building up their confidence to stand on stage. Before Ms. Person began her career as a teacher, she was not sure it was the job for her even though everyone said she would be great at it. It was not until her senior year of high school that she decided she wanted to be a teacher. The chorus has blossomed into something beautiful since she took over. The fall concert was a hit, a clear truth based on the standing ovation. The spring concert continued to show the strength of our students' voices with another stellar performance enjoyed by all in attendance.

First semester chorus students gather around the piano to warm up their vocal chords.

Everyone settles on stage to begin the fall concert.

Left: Mrs. Person says "A lot of people don't realize to be a good singer you have to use your whole body."

Right: Seniors Amanda Cain, Crystal Rector, Kelly Cochran, and Katie Arthur strike a pose showing how friendships can start with singing.

Sopranos smile at the camera while waiting to sing the next song of the concert.

The first semester tenors and basses warm up before beginning the concert.

Senior Amanda Cain, Freshman Ashley Cantrell, and Sophomore Sarah Baker relax while awaiting instructions for their next song.

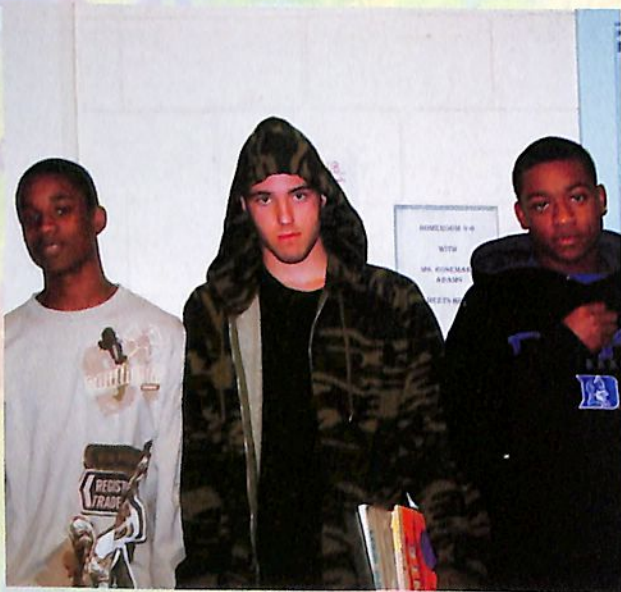

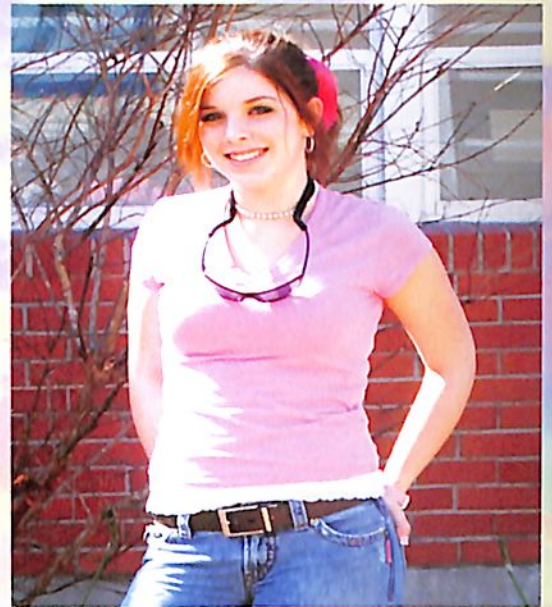

What Makes You Want To Dance?

Brittney Small, Khala Stanley, & Thyais Simmons all prefer to listen to "hip-hop/rap." Khala Stanley states, "I've listened to this music all my life and I just like it. I understand it and can relate to it pretty well. My favorite artist is Lil Wayne mainly because his songs are hot!"

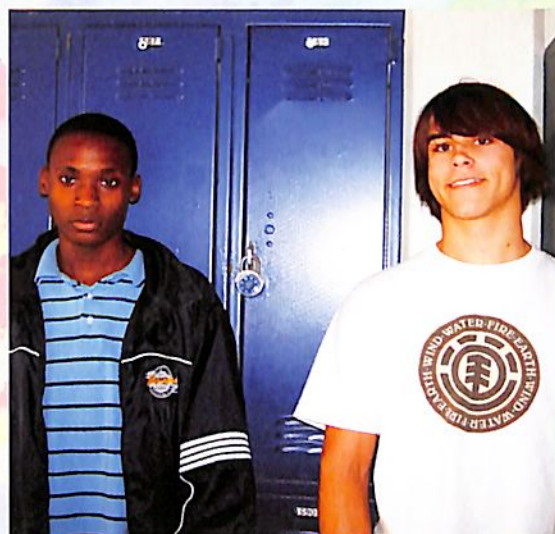

Jackie Imman claims that she likes just about every type of music there is. "If I want to dance, I listen to hip-hop/rap and if I just want to be laid back and relaxed, then I listen to some country or rock. Out of everybody, I would probably choose Nickleback to be my favorite band because they rock out in every song they produce."

Deangelo Stewart, EJ Sledge, & Darnell Hester state that they prefer to listen to "hip-hop/rap. Deangelo told us, "I chose rap because it sounds good and it makes my head bob. Lil' Wayne is my favorite artist because he's a gangsta!"

Candice Fodery and Jenna Ferrari chose "country" to be their favorite type of music. When asked why she chose this to be her favorite, Candice told us, "Country is what I grew up around. Plus, Kenny Chesney is sexy and he sings really well."

Jonathon Thompson and Timmy Potter pick "hip-hop/rap" as the type of music they listen to. Jonathon stated, "I like this kind of music because its better than everything else and also because its gangsta! There are two people that I pick as my favorite artist. One is Mike Jones because he says his name a lot and the other is Slim Thug because he's throwed!"

Amber Custer claims "rock" to be her favorite type of music. Amber told us, "I'm not really sure why I like rock so much, I have just always liked it. Listening to it makes me feel good and I can relate to a lot of the songs. The Used is my favorite artist because they have really great songs!"

Kim Nolan

"I enjoy being single because I can date whoever I want, with no strings attached."

Brittany & Neal

"Neal has been really supportive in the start of our new family, and he's really sweet!"

Kacyn Willis

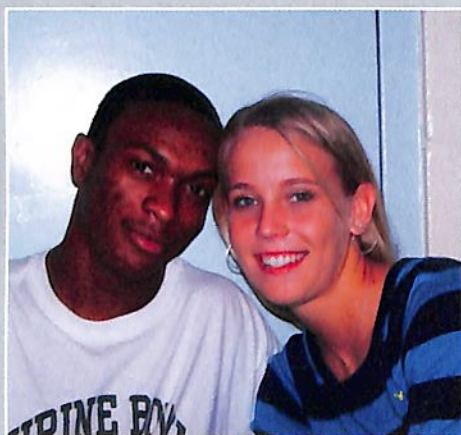

"I'm too young to be attached, and I still have a lot more living to do!"

SINGLE

DATING

Many students have their own opinions on being single or being on the "lock down" during school. Some students feel that being single while in school is a plus. They are not bothered with the drama, and they do not have to worry about making time for another person and juggling school work. At the same time, others feel that if they are not in a relationship then they feel lonely and left out. Making the choice of being single or having someone is a personal decision that you make for yourself, and everyone is entitled to their own opinion.

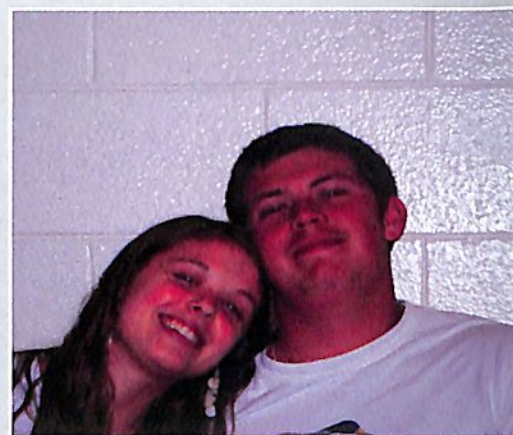

Corey & Logan

"We have been dating for a little over 7 months, and we have a lot in common. We also enjoy each others company."

Ari Nateman

"I love being single because I can swim with every fish in the sea."

Katlyn & Donovan

"I've been dating Donavon for 4 months. We have a lot in common, and we really like spending time together."

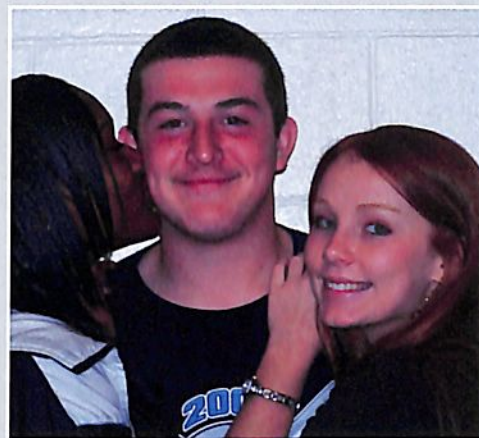

Shane Moldenhauer

"I don't want no woman's drama, that's why I like being single."

Jaime & Mason

"Being in a relationship has helped me out in school. Having someone there to motivate me gets me through each day."

Shelton Merrill

"I enjoy being single because I can get all the women, and I don't have to be on lock down."

Sara & Temple

"I enjoy being with Temple because he has money, a truck, and he can spend it all on me. Also, he's a really sweet guy."

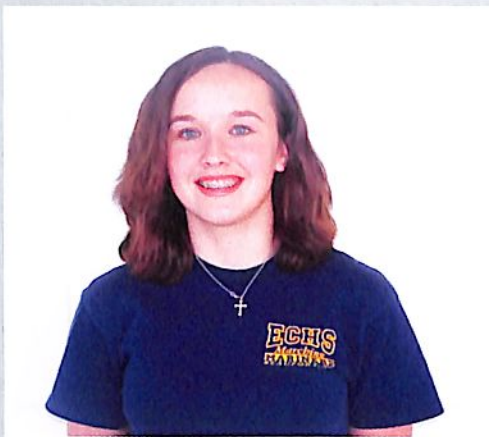

John Cofer

"I don't mind being single because I don't want to put up with the drama that it causes."

Justin & Sara

"We met during school, so I'm thankful for that. We have been together for a long time and things will continue to progress."

Julie Nelson

"I don't really like being single, but at the same time it doesn't affect me. I'm drama free."

Emily & Chris

"Since we are in school we can spend more time together, and it improves our relationship. We have been dating for a little over a year."

Mary B. Safrit

"I like being single because I don't want to have to deal with the problems, and I don't get off track in school."

It has been said that nothing is greater than spending time with your family, and the students and staff here at East have no problem showing this. "I love having my family in school with me," states Kyra Oden, "because I always have someone that I know around me." Most people would agree with what she said, and to get a second opinion Kaiolonniece Oden was asked how it felt to have family in the same school.

WITH FAMILY

Audreanne and Ms. Kathy Gillikin with her son Matthew.

She said, "It's good. We all get along and understand each other, and in a school like this it's good to have familiar faces and people you're used to"! Even if students do not have relatives at this school, it is still possible to feel like you have family here thanks to our close relationships with our friends, who often times seem like family too.

Around The World

Every year East Carteret takes a trip around the world to different countries. In the summer of 2005, several of the students took advantage of this opportunity and hopped on a plane to Europe for a week of travel, learning and fun. They traveled through France, Italy and Spain on a whirlwind tour of museums, monuments and cultural experiences. By having these trips available to the students, the school allows students to see places and use languages that they normally only learn about in the classroom. Along with students voyaging around the world, our students also get to learn about another culture and country from the exchange students who study here each year. This year, the students were lucky enough to meet two students from Finland and one from Germany.

Sophomore Mariah Hachmeister standing in front of the Pont d'Avignon said the best thing about the Europe trip was that everyone got to be good friends and enjoy the different cultures together.

Dressed up in what some may call "European style," the students prepare for a night out on the town in a foreign country. Senior Lori Lindstadt says the clothes were very unique. It was so packed and busy. She describes it as "New York City times four."

Senior Lela Sharp cozies up to one of the guards at the "Palais du Pape" or Pope's Palace in the southern French town of Avignon. At one point in history, the Pope lived here rather than Vatican City where he lives now. Lela confesses that the weirdest thing in Europe was that, "The people were very open there."

READY FOR THE FUTURE

It is said that knowledge is power. If this is the case then students graduating from East Carteret High School can leave these hallways prepared for the future knowing that the sky is the limit. With school, sports, clubs, and friends, some students find it hard to make time for everything in their busy schedule. However, East Carteret's rewards for good grades such as ice cream parties and cash prizes serve as an incentive for students to put school first in order to succeed. "I liked getting out of class for making good grades," exclaimed Holly Wrenn. Now, more than ever, the number of students excelling in academics at East is growing.

The Best of The Best

Above: Kacyn Willis sweeps up the glitter and other debris after decorating for the Hospice Festival of Trees.

Beta Club rewards students in 11th and 12th grade for their academic excellence. Students must have a GPA of 3.5 or higher and a class average of 90 to be inducted as a member. Beta Club also participates in various amounts of fundraisers for charities and good causes. This year Beta raised money by selling pumpkins on Halloween for Cystic Fibrosis. Another annual tradition for Beta Club members is to decorate a tree to be displayed at the Hospice festival of trees during Christmas. Beta club president Russell Lewis said "My favorite thing about the induction ceremony is listening to everyone try to say the club pledge 'n*sync'." Beta club is a great way for students to get some well-deserved recognition for all of their hard work.

Students enjoy their donuts and juice during the morning breakfast meeting. When asked how she felt when she found out she had made it into Beta, Junior Gina McGee said, "I was glad that my hard work in academics finally paid off."

National Art Honor Society

Brushin' Up Something New

National Art Honors Society not only requires students to be talented in art. Students must also obtain a GPA of 2.65 or better, 90 or higher in an art class and be a sophomore. Members of NAHS are required to attend at least 10 meetings a year and complete at least 5 hours of a service project. When they graduate they receive a rainbow colored cord for each year of participation. Some students like Christy Zoblisien take advantage of having this activity in school and participate all 3 years.

NAHS allows students to further their art skills. When asked about her favorite style of artwork Afton Duckworth says, "I like still life, because it allows me to capture a moment to reflect back on."

NAHS gives students a chance to try something new which they may not have time to try in class. NAHS allows students to relax and be serious about art at the same time.

Every year NAHS makes pottery bowls that are donated to the "Empty Bowls Association." This is to raise money to feed the hungry. "We assist the drama with their sets and we set up art shows with the county schools," states Ms. Gillikin.

National Forensic League

Lots of work and lots of time, but worth every minute

The National Forensic League team may be better known as the speech and debate team, but no matter what you call them, these members really have shown their talents. They spend hours practicing and getting prepared for their tournaments. Our team competes at various schools all over the state. At each tournament competitors anxiously await the postings. After all the scores are tabulated, those students with the highest scores in their events know that they are moving on to the final round. The competition can be fierce; only the best can take home a trophy. Our team competed exceptionally at Pine Forest this year, taking third place with twelve students in competition and twelve awards coming home. Along with the exhilaration of winning awards, the team enjoys meeting new people, traveling long distances, and having fun while being serious when it comes down to competition time. Commenting on NFL this year, Ms. Millush states, "The team re-invents itself every season with every event and every tournament. The students are dynamic and courageous, and they uplift one another through correction and encouragement. It is a blessing to serve them."

Senior and co-president of NFL, Hilary Wiltshire, leads the NFL in one of their many meetings. NFL members have many practice meetings in order to prepare for tournaments.

Senior EJ Sledge reenacts his time speaking on Youth Points on radio station 107.3. He represented East Carteret as the best student commentary regarding policy and society.

Participants and supporters gather for a picture after the State Mock Trial Debate. First-time attorney, Charles Michael Willis took two best attorney awards. Captain of the team, Xoe Fodor-Wise, also took a best attorney award. East Carteret's Mock Trial Team now ranks in the top ten in trial advocacy.

LEADING US TOWARDS OUR FUTURE

Taking Time to Care

The faculty and staff at East Carteret always provide a great learning experience for the students. Being able to teach the students that want to learn and overcome those who don't is a job that our teachers handle with care. Mr. Diaz says, "The main reason I teach is to make an impact on character education." Bright and early every morning the teachers come ready to fill our sleepy minds with knowledge. The staff ensures that our school runs smoothly. Everyone works hard and probably deserves more vacations than they get. How many people can say they actually take on a job that deals with more than 60 to 80 students a day, helping each of them find their way towards their futures? The faculty and staff at East Carteret can handle anything, including playing against the girls' varsity volleyball team, teaching a full lesson of calculus, and helping with a variety of after school activities. Luckily, we have a faculty and staff that can do just about anything and believe it or not, do most of it with a smile!

Teacher Of The Year

Mr. Antonio Diaz had a very quiet and easy life growing up in Cordoba, Spain. He attended Colegio Cevantes, a Catholic high school for grades 1-12. When he was not in school, Mr. Diaz enjoyed hanging out with friends and going places with his family. His other interests included playing soccer and reading in the foreign languages, both modern and classical. After high school, he earned his Bachelors and Masters Degrees from the University of Cordoba. He came to East Carteret High School through an exchange program called Visiting International Faculty. He liked it so much he decided to stay. When he found out that he was named Teacher of the Year, he was happy that his work had been recognized. He feels much of his success comes from the support and encouragement of his parents.

Show Stopper Sherman!

2006 Yearbook Dedication

Mrs. Jen Sherman has done a lot for East Carteret High School as an English teacher and a musical director. She has been teaching for eight years and has put on seven show-stopping drama productions at East Carteret. With a 16-month-old little boy and another baby on the way, Mrs. Sherman still managed to bust out one of her best productions yet, "Peter Pan." When asked how she finds energy to do all that she does she replies, "I have no idea! In the summer, I think about how busy I am during the musical and I amaze myself!" Mrs. Sherman loves the troubleshooting and critical thinking that producing musicals and plays allow her to do on a daily basis. She finds energy from each new problem she solves.

Students would describe Mrs. Sherman as enthusiastic and easy-going. She is very fair with awarding roles in musicals. "I believe that whoever is right for the role gets that role. My saying for auditions is 'you gotta wow it to bow it!'" She tries to include as many students as possible in the amazing experience a musical offers. "My ultimate goal is that the kids have as much fun as I do. That's how I measure success."

Mrs. Sherman is an amazing lady who East Carteret is lucky to have as a teacher and a talented director. Great thanks goes out to you Mrs. Sherman for bringing Broadway to Beaufort.

MR. RALPH HOLLOWAY PRINCIPAL

Principal Ralph Holloway stays strong after four years at East Carteret. When asked to describe himself in one word he states, "Thorough, because as a principal there are a lot of things that we are responsible for, and we need to be thorough in our approach." Through all the ups and downs toward getting the school improvement plan into action, steps have finally been made. "This is the first year in the school improvement plan; we feel like we have some very good material in the plan to help our students improve and succeed," says Mr. Holloway. Every year Mr. Holloway looks forward to graduation day when he can see the students who entered as freshmen successfully completing their four years, proud of everything they have accomplished.

MRS. WENDY THOMAS ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

Mrs. Thomas thoroughly enjoyed her first year at East Carteret. Coming to us from a city in Virginia, Mrs. Thomas easily became an active member of our school community. Mr. Holloway, Mr. Montford, the faculty, staff and students gladly welcomed Mrs. Thomas to her new position, showing her the school's well-known hospitality. She has learned a lot in her first year. She has found that, "East has a great education process." Her advice to students is to take the time to discover what you like. Your priority should be to learn what your options are." On her thoughts of the future of East Carteret she says, "My vision for the future is to ensure that all classrooms are personal learning environments for all students."

MR. CLINTON MONTFORD ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

Assistant Principal Montford has enjoyed his ten years as a faculty member at East, serving the last two years as the assistant principal. Of all his many jobs including, head coach, physical education and health teacher, and now assistant principal, he has enjoyed the experience that came with each position. Mr. Montford states, "The people I've met being an assistant principal, the atmosphere in being a coach, and the teaching has been enjoyable." His words of advice to the senior class are to enjoy life, learn when to play, learn when to work, and know the importance of when to rest.

Time Flies When You're Having Fun

Joining a club is a great way to get involved at East Carteret. While some students focus their attention on academics or after school jobs, others realize the importance of giving something back to their school and their community. These students donate their time and effort to one or more of the many clubs offered after school. By getting involved and contributing to the clubs, students have the opportunity to develop leadership skills, new friendships, and great new opportunities. Clubs usually meet once a week or more. They focus their attention on things beyond academics. There is a club for everyone's interests, so no one should ever feel that there is nothing for them to be involved in. With clubs such as the Surf Club, Future Farmers of America, Foreign Language Club, SADD and many more, students can easily find something fun and interesting to do with their time.

Gregory Fulcher, Ashley Gray, and Matthew Gillikin show their love for surfing in the 2005 homecoming parade. East Carteret's Surf Club is a great way for surfers to show their interest in the sport right here at school.

Justin Davis works hard on a bookshelf in the carpentry club.

Band is a big part of school spirit. The band attends games, parades, and competitions. They practice a lot to reach peak performance status. Even with a small amount of members, the band still works hard to add pep to many school events.

The girls in the chorus smile for the camera before enlightening us with their beautiful voices. East Carteret's chorus is a great way for students to show off their singing talents.

FTA

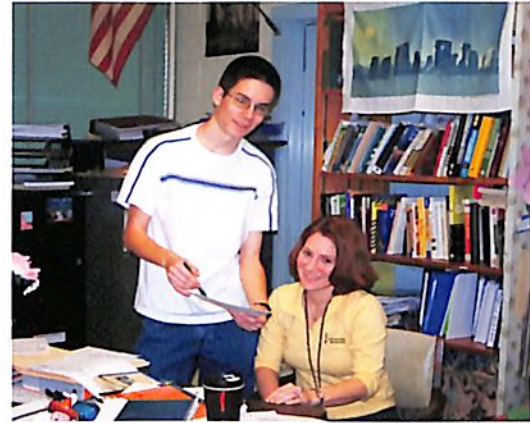

TEACHERS OF THE FUTURE

FTA or Future Teachers of America is a club designed for students who are considering becoming teachers someday. FTA provides these students with information and experiences that may help them decide whether teaching is the job for them. One of the highlights for this year was a "Teacher Shadowing Day." FTA students spent the day watching a teacher of their choice through all of his or her daily activities at school. Afterwards, each student completed a reflection designed to help them see the activity from a teacher's perspective. When asked why students should join FTA, club sponsor Ms. Sheehan stated, "Any students who think they might be interested in teaching should join. If they decide such a career is not for them, they will have discovered that before they go to college. We have a great time!"

Josh Pake learns more about the teacher profession during his job-shadowing day with Ms. Green. Josh enjoyed his time and absorbed a lot of information about what it takes to be a teacher. He said, "I never realized how much work went into lesson planning and other aspects of teaching, but this is still what I want to do."

THE EAST CHRONICLES

LITERARY MAGAZINE

The twenty-seven students in the Creative Writing Class during the fall semester carried the responsibility of creating the school's literary magazine, "The East Chronicles." Besides submissions from the class itself, the magazine received submissions from about 30 other students. The magazine includes everything from poetry to short fiction, scripts and song lyrics. They also like to include student artwork when applicable. The best way to get involved in the literary magazine is to take the creative writing class with Ms. Sheehan and get ready to have a lot of fun. They are looking for people who are good writers, good editors, good at layout and people who want to become good at those things.

FBLA

Future Business Leaders of America

The mission of FBLA is "To bring business and education together in a positive working relationship through innovative leadership and career development programs." Besides participating in the 2005 Homecoming Parade, FBLA members competed in the State Leadership Conference and Competitive Events in Greensboro, April 6-8. Nicki Daniels won the right to compete in Public Speaking 1. Students also competed in Marketing, Technology Concepts, Business and Personal Finance and Visual Basic. In order for students to become a member of FBLA they must be enrolled in at least one business or computer class during the year.

Interact

Spending Time Helping the Community

Interact is a Rotary-sponsored service club for high school students. The purpose of Interact is to participate in community service projects that help community members. This year Interact participated in events to help the victims of Hurricane Katrina and did fundraising for other charities. Interact gives students the chance to enhance leadership skills and serve their community. Mrs. Adams, the Interact sponsor states, "Young people should participate in Interact because they will become tomorrow's parents, professionals, business leaders and community leaders. The Interact members test their talents and have fun, all while focusing on challenging tasks."

Ashley Gray, a member of Interact states, "My favorite part about Interact is I enjoy helping people."

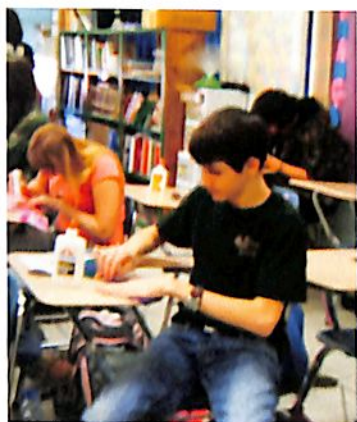

Foreign Language Club

French

Spanish

Latin

Foreign Language Club gives students from French, Latin and Spanish classes a chance to get together and celebrate different cultures and languages. Members participate in fundraisers to benefit the Foreign Language Scholarship Fund. They also gather to watch foreign films and best of all, eat food from all over the world. The highlight for this year's members was the Christmas dinner held at The Spouter Inn. There, they enjoyed food from all over the world, including bratwurst from Germany, lasagna from Italy, quiche from France and enchiladas from Mexico.

Sophomore Nathan Sandlin celebrates one of French's most famous holidays, Mardi Gras, by making a mask during French class.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

FFA is one of the many education clubs at East and is also one of the largest. There is a large range of activities to do in FFA from judging animals to giving sales presentations. FFA club member Xoe Wise states, "Its just the whole farm life style that excites me."

Mr. Sawyer's FFA Chapter was recognized nationally for their PALS Project at Beaufort Elementary School. His FFA students go during school hours every week to spend time with the kindergarteners to plant gardens, read books, color pictures and much more.

Hunters Safety

Hunter Safety went very well this year. In April, they qualified for the state competition. Our gold team placed 2nd in the region. Chris Berner was the high scoring individual over-all. Joe Clarke was high scoring individual in hunters safety skills. Matthew Gillikin shot a perfect score in trap. Hunters safety teaches you to "aim high and you will reach your target."

H.U.N.S

H.U.N.S.? What's a H.U.N.? This question could be heard throughout the halls as a new club got its start this year. H.U.N.S is based off a similar group at another local high school. H.U.N.S. stands for Hear Us Now and is an environmental group formed to promote environmental awareness and educate other students about what they can do to help the environment. Their activities this year included designing a bulletin board and making posters to teach about protecting the environment and installing a plastic bottle recycling can outside of the cafeteria. They look forward to continuing to educate about the environment and beautifying the ECHS courtyards with more plants and trees.

Heroes On The Sideline

Student Trainers: Marcia Johnson, D.J Hunt, and Kyra Oden. Kyra Oden said that her favorite thing about being a trainer was that she got to be involved in all the football games and in all the excitement of the season.

From taping ankles before the game to helping stop cramps during them; Ms. McBride and her Sports Medicine team were no doubt heroes during every football game this year. If there was ever a scratch, break, or bruise, you could find Ms. McBride sprinting out onto the field. Once the player was brought to the sideline, the team of DJ, Marcia, and Kyra went right to work. DJ, Marcia, and Kyra also made sure the boys stayed hydrated, bringing water to the players on and off the field. Ms. McBride and these three students were a tremendous asset to the success of all fall sports.

Through hard work and dedication, these eight girls represented East Carteret by bringing home many trophies. With only one senior, one junior, two sophomores, and four new members, this guard really surprised the judges and choreographers with their growth throughout the season. Senior Kacyn Willis said, "When we first learned our show, I was skeptical about how well we would do, but we stepped it up and worked our butts off and brought home first place."

For those of you who may not know what winter guard is, it is a show performed in a gymnasium to a recorded song. Performers spin flags, rifles, and other things to add to the effect. There is also a panel of judges who judge on visual effect, general effect, movement, technique, and other categories. The girls had to work hard but they really came together as a family and made their season one they will never forget!

Percussion Ensemble

The East Carteret Percussion Ensemble had an amazing season. "I was so proud of the growth they made through the season. It's great to see young players mature over the course of a few weeks", stated Band Director Ashley Wright. During first semester these members can be found sweating in the heat, but for second semester they play inside. Percussion Ensemble is a performance done inside of a gymnasium and is judged by a panel of judges. This year's music was entitled "Out of the Air". Senior Jessica Willis stated, "Being in percussion is a great experience. We are like a family."

my Thoughts...

Christina Zoblisien, Senior

"Percussion ensemble has progressed so much. Everyone has showed their maturity and commitment to reach our goals. Mrs. Wright has done a great job to help and teach us."

Sophomore Allison Chadwick plays beautifully while Freshman Justin Gillikin jams in the background on the drum set.

Members of the Percussion Ensemble pose for a serious but still hilarious picture before their competition. Through all their hard work they still managed to have a good time.

The Marching Mariners

1) The band stands in the rain at the Greene Central Band Classic. "Waiting in the rain before we competed was worth it," exclaimed Josh Krazeski. In spite of the rain the band won 2nd place overall.

2) The band performed at almost every Friday night football game. "Football games are fun and exciting, except for when it's freezing cold," laughed percussionist Allie Chadwick.

3) Allie Chadwick, Amanda Lenz, Emily Jurow, and Christy Zoblisien stop and pose for a picture before a performance at the middle schools for the students.

Night

Listen to the Melody

The Band steps on the the field and the night begins. The band portrayed a peaceful and calming sound in this year's marching band show. "It takes the passion from all the band members to bring the emotion to the audience," exclaims Drum Major Jessica Willis. The band did an outstanding job this year by earning 2nd place overall at the Greene Central Band Classic. It's not about winning to the Marching Mariners, it's the passion they feel when they perform the show.

1) The football team celebrates their first victory of the season at McDonalds after winning the Mullet Bucket. Sophomore Chris Berner said " It was great to be part of the team. We all worked really hard and I can't wait to see what the team will be like next year."

2) Freshman Kimberly Simons shoots a free throw. "The proudest moment for me was when we only lost 3 games and last year they lost them all".

3)Senior Kacyn Willis and Sophomore Mary B. Safrit practice serving to get ready for their match. Kacyn said, "My most memorable experience was when Mary B. Safrit and I won in the first round doubles playoffs.

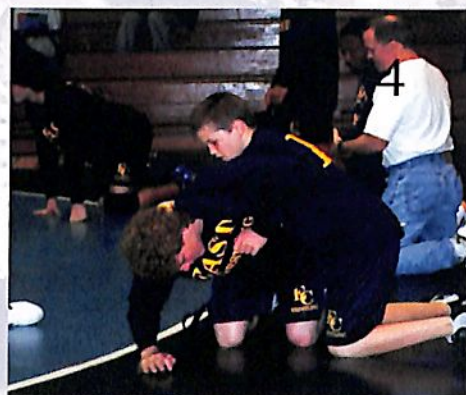

4) Sophomore Zach Fulcher practices in between matches at a tournament. "Wrestling has been really fun. Its hard work, but well worth it," Zach reported,

5)Senior Corey Hill shows just how high he can jump against the Patriots. Corey, after reflecting on the game said. " I am sorry that I quit, I really enjoyed playing basketball."

6) Senior Paul Stanley takes the lead at the start of a race, with the rest of the team following closely behind. After looking back on the season, Paul later said " The pride you gain is worth the pain."

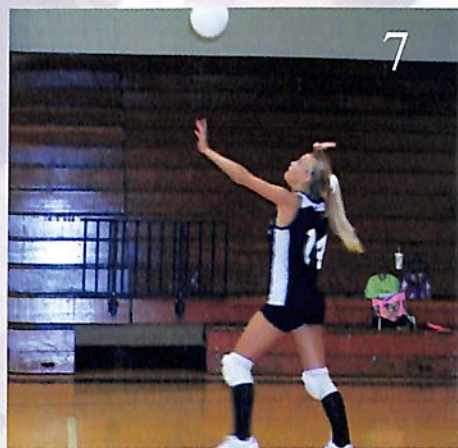

7) Junior Logan Lilley prepares to serve the volleyball to start the game off. " We had a great season, and I am sorry we didn't go further," she stated.

8)Senior Ari Nateman sprints to the soccer ball before anyone else can get there. When asked his views of soccer, he said " The rules of soccer are very simple, basically it is this; if it moves kick it. If it doesn't move, kick it until it does."

EAST'S HOUSE!

No matter which sport you play or which sport you proudly cheer on at every game, a common thread can be seen in every sport, in every athlete. That common thread is determination. Determination can be seen in every athlete's eyes as they strive towards their goal of victory. Through long hours of agonizing practices, a lot of sweat and hard work, our Mariners strive to stand above the rest. Varsity Girls Volleyball and Varsity Football demonstrated this by each winning conference championships. Mariner determination can be seen in soccer goalie, senior Neal Harrigan's record of one hundred and eighty-five scoreless minutes for our opponents. Every sport requires determination to lead to success. Our athletes play a big role in generating school spirit in all of us. Who does not love to see a three-point shot swish through the net or the outfielder chase down a ball to make the game-winning out? When we look at our athletes we do not only see their wins and losses. We see individuals, we see teams, we see the school they represent and we feel proud to wear blue and gold, proud to say that we go to East!

TACKLING THE COMPETITION!

Varsity Football Ends the Season With a Record-Setting Victory

Still pumped up from last year's successful season, the Varsity Football team returned for another incredible victory. To thank for this, we have Coach Kiefer's coaching talent, the football players' skill and perseverance, and the school spirit of the students, which was more prevalent this year than ever before. Although the team didn't make it to the semifinals, they set a school record by coming out of the regular season undefeated. Andrew Courman, a junior on the team, stated, "We learned to work as a team this year, and I hope next year is even better. I enjoyed playing with the seniors, and I'll really miss them." Although the football team will be losing some key players this year, our Mariners have proven that they can overcome almost anything and shouldn't have much to worry about next year.

Chris Price, Drew Lewis, and Michael Archer prove just how close the boys got during the season. The team practiced over the summer, every day after school, and sometimes on the weekends. Chris Price said, "Being so close as a family helped us to have a great season."

Corey Hill, on defense, waits to cover a receiver. Corey was one of the starting players and a senior, so the team will have a tough time replacing him next year. Corey stated, "The season was fun, but I was upset that we didn't win the state championship."

Coach Kiefer-- "I was very pleased with the season; it was the first time in school history that we've been undefeated during the regular season. I hope that this year will have been a stepping stone for the future and that our team won't take winning for granted so we can keep working hard and achieve more success."

Future State Champions?

Mini POWERHOUSE Q&A

DeAngelo Murrell

How is playing high school football different from middle school football?

- "It was a lot more challenging and you had to do a lot more to prove yourself to others".

Brogan Langdale

How does it feel to tie for the conference championship?

- "It was better than losing it".

Alex Gonzalez

How is playing high school football different than middle school football?

- "It was much more disciplined and a lot more to learn".

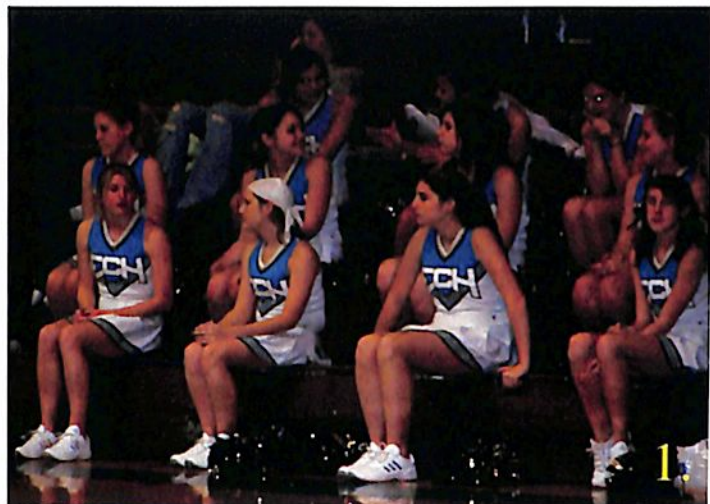

The Junior Varsity Football Team did an outstanding job this season. With practices throughout the week, including some Saturdays, they became better and better and thus performed well on the field. They finished the season with a winning record of seven wins and only two losses. However, this record does not reflect the fact that those two losses were only by one point in each game. Through the team's hard work and desire to win games, they tied for the conference championship.

WE'VE GOT THE SPIRIT!

JV GETS THEIR CHEER ON

The Junior Varsity cheerleaders work hard to pump up the spirit here at East Carteret. The girls do a good job cheering on their teams using their school spirit, pep, and enthusiasm. Their hard work at practices, which consists of planning for the next ball game and conditioning, pays off when they get to show off their cheers, chants, and dances at games and competitions.

"My favorite thing about cheerleading this year was meeting new people and making new friends."

-Michele Fulcher

2. Gillian Croft and Elizabeth Hurley practice a new cheer at practice so they can perform it at the next game.

Varsity Cheerleaders Take It To The Top

The 2005-2006 Varsity Cheerleading Squad had a very demanding season. Much was expected from them, and they gave it 110%. From having to travel to away games and getting home late on weekdays, to juggling school work and other outside activities, the squad had a busy season. Cheerleading is not just fun and games for these girls; it is time consuming and a lot of hard work. It is their job to pump up the crowds, motivate their teammates, and cheer on the players on the field. Competitions also lingered on their minds. Although they did not place they still did an excellent job. Varsity football and basketball player BJ Frazier said, "I enjoy having them there to support us, and I appreciate all of the jumping jacks they did for us." Even though some say cheerleading is not a sport, it is in fact a sport like the rest. They spend their time stretching, running, jumping, stunting and practicing hard. The girls felt they had a great season, and they kept their school spirit up regardless of any challenges they faced.

Varsity cheerleaders on Tacky Patriot Day show off their school spirit. Seniors Lela Sharp, Ryan Morris, Amanda Wallace, Carolene Vann and Konia Godette cheerleaders stated, "We are sad that it's our last year, but are still thankful for all the memories made".

Midway through the season, Paul said, "The season is going well and we are getting better and better."

Coach Diaz talks strategy with the team before the game.

GET ON THE BALL

Boys Soccer

The 2005 Varsity Boys Soccer had a very interesting season. Under the direction of new head Coach Antonio Diaz, he led the boys to some great wins. Mr. Diaz says, "We did better in conference games than in non-conference games and that probably kept us from getting a wild card for the playoffs."

Many players improved their skills and grew as soccer players as the season went on, so the last two weeks of the season we were a very competitive team in a very tough conference with three teams ranked among the top ten in the state."

Some of the highlights of the season were Austin Sherron's hat-trick (4 goals) against Pamlico. On the senior night game, they beat Lejeune 2-0 playing probably the best soccer game they can remember.

Outstanding goalie Neal Harrigan set a school record for keeping the goal shutout for 195 minutes. Neal also had the honor of being selected All-Conference Player of the Year. This is the first time an ECHS player received such recognition.

SOCCER

The Girls' Soccer team got off to a great start this year, playing hard against some tough teams thanks to a lot of practice. They have put a lot of work and dedication into the team. Midway through the season the girls had won five out of seven games. They managed to hold a top-ranking team in the state to a zero-zero tie through two overtimes. They all showed great teamwork on and off the field.

BOYS VARSITY BASKETBALL

"THE BOYS BE CLOWNIN"

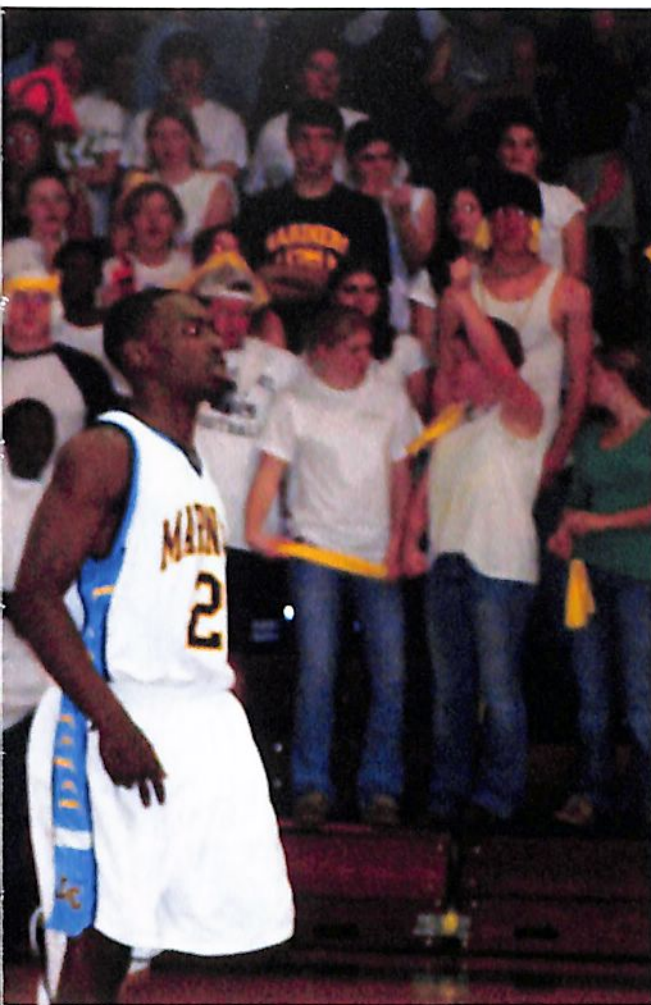

"The boys be clownin" is the Boys Varsity Basketball team's quote for the year. The quote describes the boys' positive attitude throughout a tough season. Coach Hall said, "The odds were stacked against us, but we were still competitive in most games." And the boys proved just that to be true. Even though the boys did not win a game and had over half a dozen members quit, the boys remained competitive in almost all of their conference games. Despite the difficult season, there are always the memories to look back on and next year to look forward to.

Senior Colin McDonald takes a shot from the free throw line. Colin said "Even though we did not win it was a great group of guys and I enjoyed the season."

Senior Paul Stanley waits patiently on defense. Paul said "This year was a learning year and it made everyone a stronger person."

Austin Sherron and B.J. Frazier take a breather in between plays. This year B.J. was ranked #4 in the area on assists. His highest number of assists in one game was 10.

Coach Hall has a talk with the boys during a time out. When Coach Hall was asked what he enjoyed most about this season he said, "Being around a great group of guys."

"I felt that being a part of the team was more frustrating than anything else."

Keeping the Spirit

The Boys Junior Varsity Basketball Team had a rough season. However, despite all of their losses they never gave up. Their determination and perseverance is what keeps the Mariner Pride shining on. One might say that losers cannot be winners, but these boys proved that theory wrong. They put their all into every game without quitting and that is what makes them winners.

"The Girls Got Game"

As anticipated the Varsity Girls Basketball team improved on their success from last season. With many returning players and more experience the girls had a great year. The team improved from last year's second place finish in the conference and brought the conference championship to East Carteret. They also played their way to the second round in the playoffs. They ended with a 10 and 0 record in conference play.

With an undefeated season, many games stand out as proud moments for the team. Coach Mandy McBride states, "Jones Senior was a good game. We scored 85 points on them." Logan Lilley ended the season as the high scorer on the team with 410 points. Other standouts include Kerra Gore with 132 total rebounds and Oasis Ellison with 88 assists and 101 steals.

Logan Lilley, "Carteret County New Times" Girls Basketball Player of the Year, shows off her skills by sinking another shot.

Kerra Gore states "I enjoyed my third year of varsity basketball and I can't wait until next year".

The Crunk Squad cheers on Oasis Ellison as she takes a foul shot, hoping to put another point on the board for the Mariners.

Varsity girls get some final words of wisdom before the game from assistant coach, Trish Vann.

"I like being on the Varsity team because it's a very good experience."

Hayley Mason

"I really enjoyed playing on Varsity this year. If I had to choose my favorite position it would be forward, but the other positions are fun too!"

Players in Action

This year's Varsity Baseball team has a promising season ahead of them. They have had a great start and are hoping to keep it going. Many of the players will be graduating this year and the thought of leaving baseball behind lingers on their minds. The team travels near and far to play their games. They travel as far as Topsail High School, a little over two hours away, which players have said can put a bit of strain on you. They feel they have to practice hard, play harder, and manage to juggle school work and other activities all at the same time.

Softball

This year the Varsity Girls Softball team faced many challenges. One that sticks out is their 12, yes 12 inning, softball game against Croatan. Although the pressures were high they came through and won 2-1. The girls had a great season and really came together as a team. There will be three players graduating from the Varsity Team this year. Mollie Grice, Michaela Nelson, and Kacyn Willis began playing on the Varsity team as freshmen and are going to be greatly missed next year. Senior Kacyn Willis stated, "We have all played together since we were really young. I can't beleive this is my last year playing with these girls". Coach Mark Chadwick is looking forward to a winning season and an even better one next year.

'SETTING UP' FOR VICTORY

After leaving the East Central Conference and joining the Coastal Plains Conference, the Varsity Volleyball team experienced a great season by tying for first in the conference and making the playoffs. Although the Lady Mariners lost during the first round of the playoffs, they will only be losing two seniors and will see the return of several star juniors, including Courtney Willis who won the Conference Player of the Year, which should lead to another great season next year.

Great Balls Of Fire!

This year the JV Girls Volleyball team held on strong. Their strength led them to a season record of 8-5 and a conference record of 6-4. The girls' willingness to play together and cooperate as a team is what brought them to third place in the conference. Heather Smith states, " This year was much better communication-wise with the girls. We were more out in the open with each other."

GIRLS' TENNIS SWINGS AWAY ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL SEASON

When it came to "Love and War", victory was on our girls' side this year. The tennis team was 8-2 in the conference. The girls were asked a few questions about how their season went and what inspired them to play.

Senior Kacyn Willis said, "I think we did really good this year and we have improved a lot. Tennis was something new for me. My friends were playing, so I gave it a shot."

Kalah stated, "I think I did really good and I played first this year. My toughest matches were against Topsail during the second round of the Conference Tournament, but I came out on top."

Wrestlers hit the mats after a 24 year break

This was East Carteret's first year of wrestling in many years. Coach Jim Mason was pleased with the amount of participants that showed up to try out. One of the hardest parts about setting up the team was that a lot of the same size guys tried out. Coach Mason tried to spread the guys out so that East was able to compete in each of the 14 weight classes, but a few classes were left unfilled. Coach Mason is hoping to have even more wrestlers, girls and guys, to try out for next year's team. For this being the first year that East has had wrestling in 24 years, our team learned a lot and are looking forward to years of improvement.

(#2) Peter Carraway shows us his good form that every runner strives to have.

(#4) A team that runs together, wins together. The ECHS Cross Country team runs the last race of the season in the regionals at Lejeune.

Cross Country

Running the distance...

The ECHS Cross Country team this year was composed of five seniors and a sophomore. Senior Paul Stanley states, "Everyone on the team ran hard every race, but as it stands there is only one person on the team for next year, so someone needs to do some recruiting." Although the team may not have done the best on paper, everyone always gave it their all, while finishing every race.

 (#3) The boys "hang out" before a race. (#4) Josh Pake, a four year veteran, runs the last race of his high school career.

Change Blows Into The East Wind

Students came to yearbook class this year expecting similarities to all other years. However, many changes came about since the end of last year, presenting many challenges to overcome. First, there was Mrs. Larson, a new teacher with new ideas and different methods than the previous teacher. Students also learned that the yearbook would be published all in color and would arrive before the end of the school year. Finally, there was a new online program that everyone had to learn how to use. Students thinking that that yearbook was an "easy A" quickly realized they were wrong. Students found that yearbook can be as challenging as any other class. As deadlines approach and pages need to be finished, the stress mounts to meet deadline.

Students quickly realized it was not just an in-school project. You have to attend different events, stay after school and work on your pages at home. Although it is a struggle for many, it has been a great experience with rewards. It has taught some the meaning of responsibility and the negative results of trying to take the easy way out. Through all of the hard times, there are a lot of fun times too. The satisfaction of completing such a large project for the entire school to enjoy is priceless. The yearbook is a definite success and we had a great time making it!

 3rd row: Mikayla Gilgo, Brooke Petteway, Tiffany Hastings, Janie Knight, Lori Lindstadt, Mandy Arrington,
 2nd row: Mrs. Larson, Allie Davis, Amanda Wallace, Danielle Williams, Nasya Shepard, Kateesha Henry, Courtney Dagnino,
 Front: Kristin Wells, Laura Fulcher, Ryan Morris, Kacyn Willis, Rebecca Styron, Michele Fulcher, Colin McDonald, Ari Nateman, and Neal Harrigan.
 Not Pictured: Kerra Gore, Robyn Garner, Konia Godette, Drew Lewis, Loni Goodwin, Kimberlee Nolan, Motisha Nolen, Cammy Parker, Ryan Pittman, Jillian Styron, Marlea Thayer, Carolene Vann, and Jessica Willis.

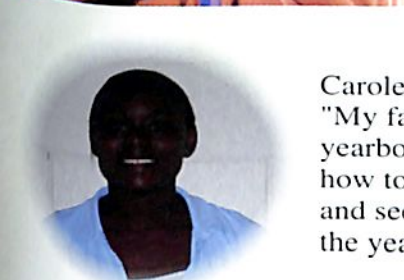

1) Junior Nasya Shepard works on her page on the yearbook website so that she will meet the upcoming deadline.

2) Yearbook members crowd around to discuss what their pages should look like and get tips from yearbooks of past years.

3) Someone sneaks a flash of Senior Courtney Dagnino while she takes a picture. Courtney stated, "After 4 years of yearbook it is very sad to say goodbye but I enjoyed it while it lasted...it was crazy, man!"

4) Cammy Parker works on her page as Michele Fulcher helps her decide on the layout design.

Carolene Vann stated, "My favorite part of yearbook was learning how to use the program and seeing how they put the yearbook together."

Michele Fulcher told us, "My favorite part of yearbook was meeting new people, making new friends, helping people work on their pages and contributing to something that major."

"The ups of being in yearbook was being in a fun class and having some freedom. A major down was having the aggravating deadlines," stated Mandy Arrington.

"It was a great experience. Now I know how they put a yearbook together. It was a challenge at first, but I got through it," stated Cammy Parker.

2) Yearbook teacher Mrs. Larson guides senior Kacyn Willis through the yearbook website to give her an idea of how it works. Mrs. Larson stated, "Learning how to do the yearbook was a challenge, especially due to all the changes this year. Thanks to the help of some great students we were able to put together a successful book."

1) Rebecca Styron stated, "I enjoyed yearbook a lot! It was a nice chance to be able to do something I like and be recognized for it. My favorite part of yearbook was meeting new people."

3) Jamie Dunaway told us, "I thought yearbook was going to be an easy 'A,' but instead it has been one of my toughest classes."

Our Daughter, Loni

On November 8, 1987, we received a gift from heaven. The good Lord blessed us with a baby girl and to us she was more precious than any pearl. Then you were tiny but the love you expressed was enough to swell our chests. Our joy and pride forever grows and we wonder if it really shows. Now that you are a woman, we want to tell you that we still love you dearly, and we say very sincerely,
We love you & are very proud of you!

Mama, Daddy & Corey

Casey,
 We've watched you go from four wheelers to real wheels. Through it all, you've brought us joy and made us proud. We love you!
 -Mom, Dad, Mason & Tyler

To My Daughter

I see you standing
 At the threshold of
 Tomorrow
 And my mind is filled with
 Tender thoughts,
 Laced with a touch
 Of sorrow,

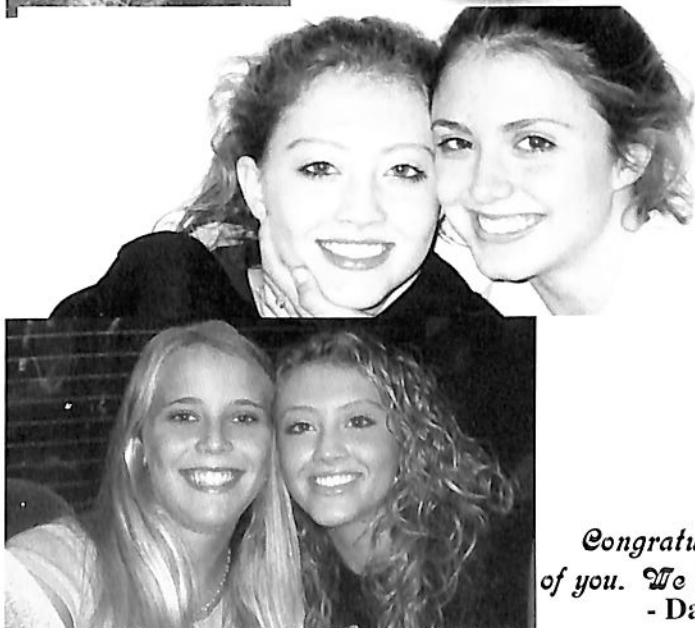

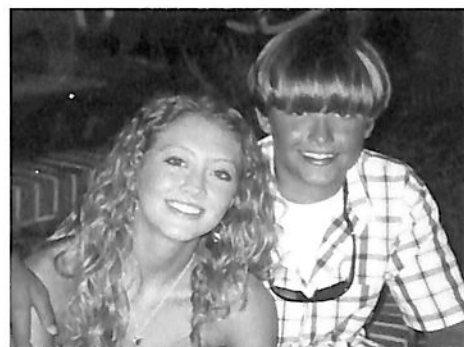

For you're no longer
 My little girl,
 The child who climbed
 Upon my knee
 To kiss my cheek
 And bring the gift
 Of happiness
 To me.

Through the years
 I've wiped your tears
 And chased away
 Your childhood fears.
 I've felt a pride
 I can't describe
 As I have watched you grow.
 But now the time has come
 When I must let you go.

And other lives will
 Now be blessed
 By your sweet love
 And gentleness.
 Keep your faith
 And trust in God,
 Hold fast to all
 That's good and true.
 And never forget,
 His love and mine
 Will always
 Be with you.

Austin, we have been truly blessed to have you as our son. We are so proud of the young man that you have become and all the accomplishments that you have achieved. This chapter in your life is now closing and another exciting chapter is beginning. It's not always going to be easy but just remember that you can do all things through Christ who strengthens you. Also, remember Romans 12:9-21. My hope for your life is that you fulfill all your dreams, live a life pleasing to God and to live each day to the fullest.

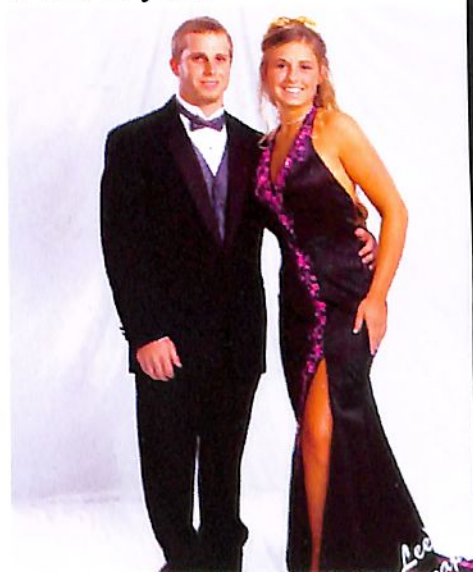

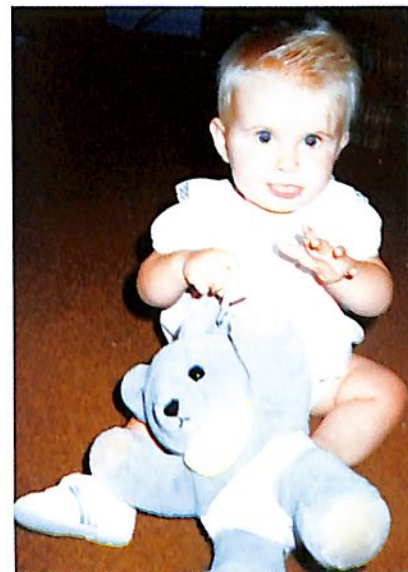

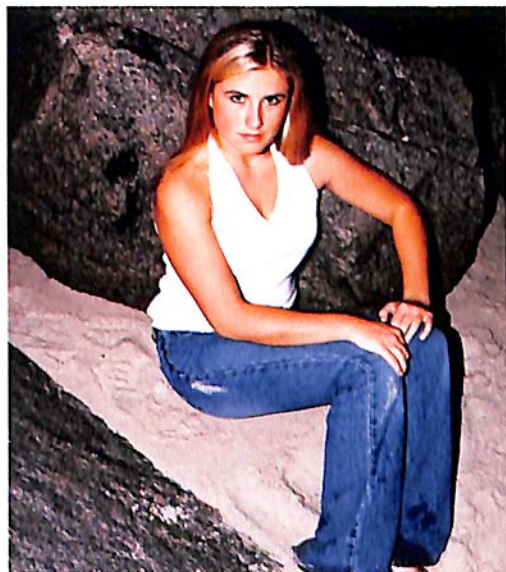

Congratulations. We love you with all our heart and soul,

No Matter Where You Go, Daughter,
We Will Always Be Here

A child will grow
And go into the world
As a wonderful person--
Ambitious
Eager to begin the journey
Equipped with knowledge
Endowed with a ready spirit
Educated, bright, beautiful...
Just as you are

But a parent stays the same--
Always loving you
Always proud of you
Always hoping you know that
A parent is never too far away to listen

Years ago back over way in time,
The day God sweetly gave us you,
We received a precious gift indeed,
Blessed us many years through.
Yet years seem to pass so rapidly,
For it seems as if only yesterday,
Your tiny frame was in my arms,
Yet see how you've grown today,
As you journey onwards through life,
We wish only the very best for you,
Your life be filled with joy and peace,
And countless many dreams come true,
Today you may well have grown up,
But in our hearts you'll always be,
Our special tiny sweet Baby Girl,
The little one that God gave to us.
The warmest of our blessings too
To guide your footsteps every day,
Love and warmth to comfort you,
Each sunrise to sunset all the way.

We Love You,

Congratulations!

You've made it to the next step into the journey of life. It has been some ride watching you grow from a shy little girl into a LOUD and INDEPENDENT young WOMAN. You have accomplished so much. We remember your first step, the first time you walked onto the softball field to pitch, the first speech you made for the VFW, watching you in the musical "The Sound of Music" when you played a singing nun, and the biggest thrill of all was when you won Best Attorney at Mock Trial. Thank you for making us so PROUD to be your parents.

Love always,
Mom, Dad, Kaci, Scott, Grandpa

Jessica,

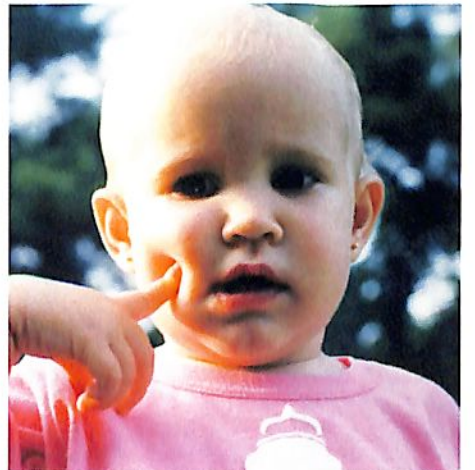

We want you to know just how proud we are of you! You had a dream of what you wanted for yourself at ECHS and you went after it. You are a beautiful young lady and very talented. Keep the smiles and the laughter coming. Your daddy, Caroline, and me love you with all of our hearts. We know you will do great at whatever you put your mind to.

HAVE I TOLD YOU LATELY
THAT I LOVE YOU!

You know I have!

OH, from ACE TOO!

Lindsey,
For the last few years, we have spent a lot
Of time together. During our 4 years
Of high school there were some
Moments that were sad but
Many more memories of Happiness. These memories
Will stay with me forever.
No matter what happens with
Our future, there will always be
A place in my heart for you!
I LOVE YOU!
Kenneth

Kenneth,
I will always remember the laughs & tears,
But above all the unforgettable memories
We have together. You are my
First Love, high school
Sweetheart, & best friend! I'm
Thankful for the love and support
You have given me over
The last 4 years. Although
We may go in different
Directions over the
Next few years
Always remember,
I LOVE YOU!
Lindsey

Gidget's Poem

We have been blessed,
 A great gift has been given.
 God gave you to us,
 You are our reason for living.
 You glow from the inside out,
 Brighter than the sun.
 You leaped through life's hurdles,
 Jumping them one by one.
 There have been tough times,
 But you have been strong.
 Using your beliefs as your guide,
 To what was right and wrong.
 You have been blessed with kindness,
 Your caring shines thru.
 You love all of God's children,
 And they love you too.
 You are a pleasure to be with,
 Every moment of the day.
 We will be together for eternity,
 God planned it that way.

A photograph of three women standing together on the deck of a ship. They are all wearing purple leis. The woman on the left is wearing a light-colored jacket and dark pants. The woman in the middle is wearing a dark top and dark pants. The woman on the right is wearing a blue t-shirt and light blue jeans. They are all smiling at the camera. The background shows the ship's railing and the ocean.

Three photographs of young women, likely cheerleaders, smiling and posing together. The top photo shows two women, one with blonde hair and one with brown hair. The middle photo shows two women, one with dark hair and one with blonde hair. The bottom photo shows two women, one with blonde hair and one with brown hair.

Jen Darlin',

Congratulations on your graduation. I can't believe this day has come so quickly. I can remember like it was just last week when you were such a little girl, learning your way as you went.

I wasn't around most of the time as you were growing up. You were forced to make do with what you had. You have done a magnificent job, and I know your future holds happiness. You have shown the determination and hard work that can't be held back.

As you head out into the world, I want you to know that I am so very proud of you as I have always been. Good fortune to you, my daughter, and keep up the good work.

Dad

To my lovely daughter Jennifer,

You are very special, admired, and precious to me. You have added joy to so many lives with your bright smile and your kind heart. I feel so lucky that God chose me to be your mother, for you have been the best experience of my life. Always remember to put God first in everything that you do. He has given you special gifts to reach out and change lives.

I love you,
Mom

I'm so proud of you and your success. I love you lots.

We Believe In You

*Look into our eyes and see what we see.
We see you as you truly are Kind, Compassionate, Strong
You're everything we ever dreamed of, everything we Could ever want in a daughter and sister.*

You have given us so much enjoyment and laughter over the years.

Hold your head high - See who you really are.

Set your goals, reach for the stars.

We know you will accomplish whatever you desire.

Keep God in your life and our love in your heart and You'll Never Walk Alone.

Love,
Mama, Daddy and Kari

From the First Day of School...

...to the day they graduate, PCS Phosphate supports the educational pursuits of area youth through scholarships and hands-on volunteering in schools. We make generous corporate contributions to community agencies and programs that support education. Today's students will become tomorrow's workforce. Doing our part to help prepare them makes us proud. Watching them succeed makes us even prouder.

PCS Phosphate salutes the Class of 2006.
Congratulations, graduates!

Travis Bastin

Dear Travis,

We believe that God could not have given us a better son! Since the day you entered our lives, we have cherished every moment we've had with you and we look forward to trillions more! Remember to keep your faith in God and believe in yourself as well. Never settle for, "good enough." Don't follow any path, blaze your own. Save for rainy days, then enjoy the rainy days in style. Love truly, love deeply and love passionately! Don't be afraid to fail, because failure creates a passion for success. Don't rush into anything because everything worth dying for is worth living a lifetime to find and keep. Son, we will always love you and we are proud of you. You are destined for greatness, so, GO FOR IT!!

Sincerely,

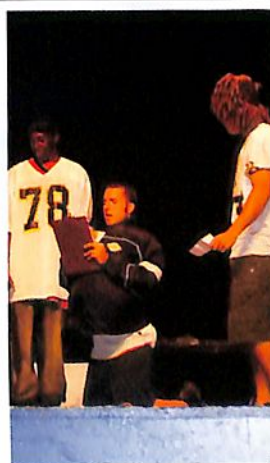

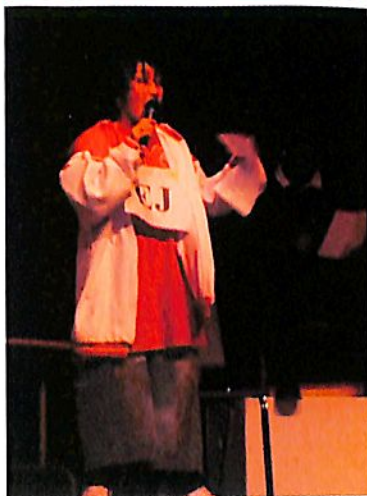

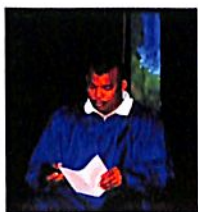

Dad, Mom, Cheyenne, Gilda, Papa Ray, Granny Mai, Granny Huggy, Papa Phil, Gloria, The Bastin Family, The Sowers Family, The Hardesty Family, The Millards, The Pestas. "Semper Fidelis, Semper Familia!"

~JUNIOR/SENIOR DAY~

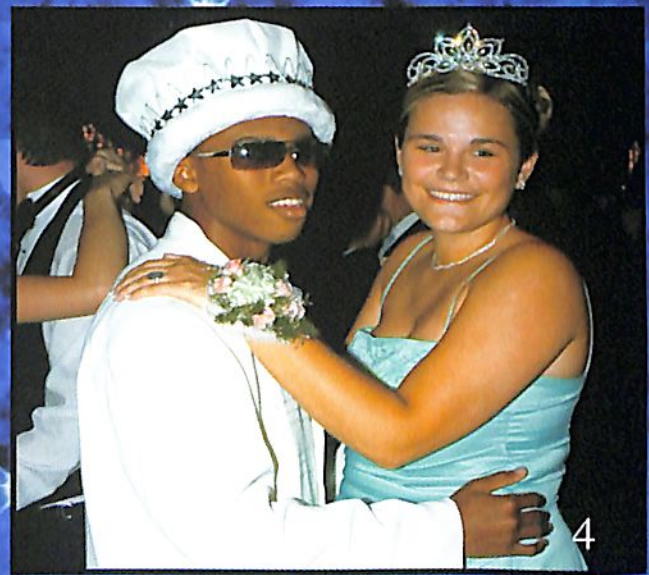

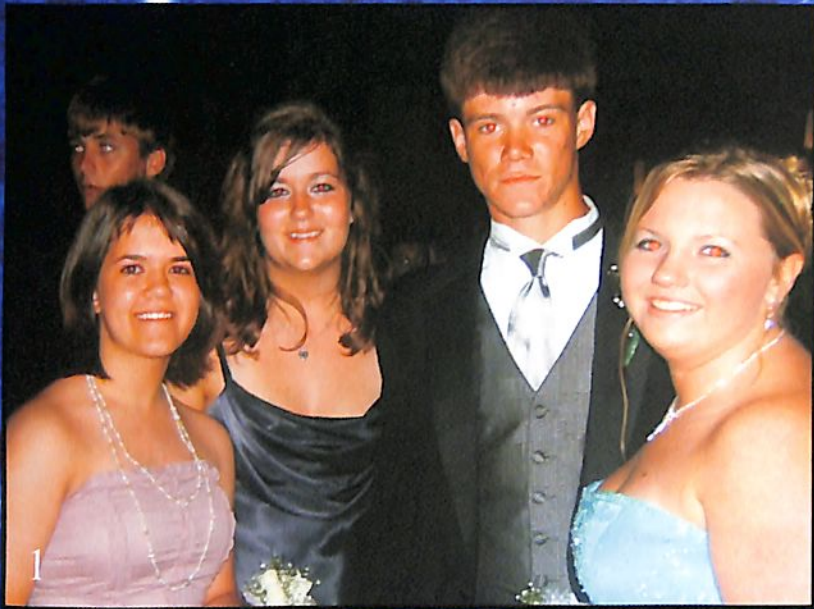

~SENIOR FOLLIES~

Once Upon A Time

"Once Upon a Time," the theme for the 2006 Prom, led students into a world of fairy tales and make-believe. The Junior Class spent many months planning the perfect night for everyone to enjoy. For three days the Juniors worked very hard to create a beautiful prom complete with the enchanting castle, carriage, stepping stones recognizing the Senior Class, and of course, the chocolate fountain. At the end of the evening everyone agreed that "Once Upon a Time" was a great success, just like a fairy tale, ending happily ever after.

ACADEMIC AWARDS CEREMONY

East Carteret had a great turn out this year at the academic ceremony. Forty percent of the school was invited to attend the ceremony and pick up their awards. The wonderful refreshments were supplied and cooked by Mrs. Way and her Foods classes. These goodies consisted of ice cream with toppings, strawberry cake, all kinds of gooey cakes, and to top it off, an assortment of cheese cakes. The ceremony is a great way to recognize students and honor them for their hard work in academics.

Whitney Saulter admires her award in AP English handed out by Mrs. Hamilton.

Elliot Willis, Ben Willis, Hadley Willis, and John Haught enjoy the delicious desserts supplied by Ms. Way and her students.

Left: Elliot Willis, Ashley Gray, Hadley Willis, and John Haught stand in recognition of their acceptance to the Summer Ventures Program.

Right: Rose McDowell smiles as she walks back to her seat after accepting her award for Advanced Functions.
