Footprints in the Sand

Since, the beginning of their high school career, he students here at East have been making a very special impression, moving forward in everything hey do, to make sure of one thing...that they leave heir Footprints in the Sand. Since they were oung, by either tracking mud in the house, or etting an A+ on a math quiz, they've been making heir Footprints in the Sand. Growing up, and going on first dates, going to first dances, and even to irst proms, they've made their Footprints in the Sand. Now, as some of these people move ahead and say goodbye to their safe haven of high chool, they begin to take new steps into the real vorld, and make their Footprints in the Sand, as he rest of us, stay behind and try to fill their shoes, is they did for the ones before them. Never the ess, each and every person that will come and go ere at East will leave behind one thing...their ootprints.

Washing away...

As the seniors of East Carteret High School look back on the blue and gold and say their final goodbyes, they remember the good, the bad, and the ugly, of the class of 2007. This class has seen it all, and been through it all, but whatever they endure, they stay strong and make a firm impression. As they finish their last year here at East, they make sure that even though they are Washing away into the blue, they will never be forgotten.

Into the blue...

How has being Principal changed you as a person?

"I realize my important role

because of all the people looking to me for guidance. I have learned that I set the tone for the overall perception of the school, and influence the feeling of learning as a whole. I also know the reason for constant positive encouragement, it carries you farther than anything else you learn in life. "

Before becoming principal at ECHS Mr. Holloway attended Elizabeth City State University where he played football and earned a degree in health and physical education. He decided to coach after college so he could teach young people some of the things he had learned about football and sports over the years. Coaching led Mr. Holloway to an interest in school administration, as he wanted to be involved in the highest form of education possible. He stated, "Administration was a natural progression for me." Mr. Holloway served as assistant principal, athletic director, and head football coach at Kinston High School before coming to Carteret County. He worked at West Carteret High School as an assistant principal and athletic director for four years before becoming principal, mid, year, at ECHS in 2001. Mr. Holloway didn't know a lot about ECHS before he arrived. After doing some research he decided East had potential and he wanted to help the school in any way possible by being the principal. In talking about his transfer to the school he says, "East is a very good fit for me. I am glad I decided to make the move."

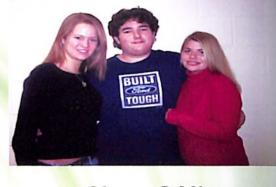

As he describes ECHS Mr. Holloway adds, "You can feel the family-friendly and inviting atmosphere when entering this school for the first time, and Llove that shout East." Same memorable times for Mr. Holloway at East have been the years 2004 and 2005 when

As he describes ECHS Mr. Holloway adds, "You can feel the family-friendly and inviting atmosphere when entering this school for the first time, and I love that about East." Some memorable times for Mr. Holloway at East have been the years 2004 and 2005 when the school was recognized as a "School of Distinction." He also called the past few years of football successes at the school some of his proudest years in education because they brought the school and community together. "Here at East," Mr. Holloway added, "we have a championship Speech and Debate team, an award-winning band, and a wonderful arts program, and many other opportunities for students to succeed. I take pride in all of that."

Strolling In The

If Old Spice is Proud to HONOR the Nation's Top High School "Player of the Year," then so are we here at East Carteret, especially when it is one of our own. We would like to say Congratulations to Senior Andrew Courman on this Great Achievement and Honor.

CONGRATULATIONS ANDREW!!!

When asked about what being the "Red Zone" player of the year Andrew replied with "I am very excited to receive such an honor. It is not the award that makes me happy, but the fact that our team stood behind me 100% and helped me receive this award. I do not look at it as just my achievement, but as a team acheivement. I want to thank God for my talent and ability. He is my strength. I want to thank my mom and dad for pushing me and staying on me, my brother for being my inspiration, my coach for making me go the extra 10 yards when I was ready to fall and my teammates for standing together and giving their all.

My advice to younger players would be to always give it their all on the field as well as in the classroom." We then asked him what his college plans were and he said, "In college I want to major in Pharmaceuticals. I will play football and I may join a fraternity."

Chris Price Campbell University

Andrew Courman Lenoir-Rhyne College

Making A Touchdown For Their Future!

This year East Carteret had the pleasure of having three football players go on to play football at college.

Andrew Courman received a $30,000 a year scholarship to go to Lenoir Rhyne. Chris Price will go on to play at Campbell University while Ben Willis will play for NC State. Congrats boys!

A Message From the Director

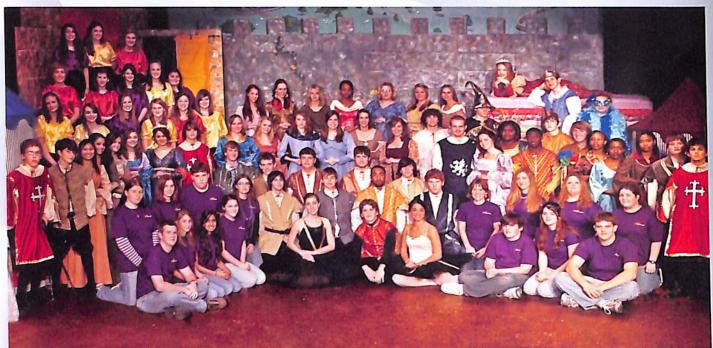

"As the first East Carteret production where i have served as director, this show has been extremely exciting to produce. I have been blessed with an amazing diverse group of students! I am extremely proud of what they have accomplished and grateful for the opportunity to have had a hand in their masterpiece. I hope this production was as magical and memorable for them as it was for me."

Slyvia George (The Queen) and Nathan Sandlin (dauntless)

Question: What do you like about the play?
Slyvia: I love the atmosphere I receive when I'm working with the cast and crew of Once upon A mattress! They are great people and I have a good time there's nothing more I can Nathan: Getting the experience to come together with people who have the same interest and abilities, finally producing a production that shows our talent.

To the left Nathan Sandlin and to the right Sylvia George

Question: What was your favorite aspect about the musical?

Cameron: Probably at the end of each show, hearing the audeince cheer and clap. Also the sudden rush you get when you connect with the crowd Joe: When the curtains closes, but the best thing about all of it is meeting new people, I've doubled my friends by doing this production.

Cameron: definitely Joe, and Andrew Courman We've had some great times, I cant really choose favorite people, because I have such a good time with everyone in this production but Joe, Andrew, and I have had some of the best times

Joe:Proably Cameron and Slyvia, because they are very nice people and we get along well.

To the left Joe Clark and to the right Cameron Cotham

Sarah Drury (Lady Larken)

Question: What do you like about acting?

Sarah: You can be somebody or your not, like in the play my character was a bit "PROMISCUOUS" and i'm not in real life. You put on this persona and all this creative energy just flows, it's like an ecstatic energy rush.

Michael: It's the fact that when you get on stage you can be someone your not, It brings a whole new perspective to how you look at things. Your able to let yourself do and not care what anyone thinks. The main thing is you "have fun" you don't get many chances to let yourself go and become a whole new person!!

Question: What is your favorite scene in the play?

Sarah: The fight scene with Sr. Harry, because I don't ever scream at anyone because I like to be a nice person, but again this just gives me a chance to be someone I'm not.

Michael: My favorite scene that comes before the Spanish Panic.

We call it the "Cell Phone Scene", It was a scene written by Joe Clark, Josh Head, and Mary B. Safrit and I give the stage crew the time to change the sets and it ended up being one of the funniest

In front Sarah Drury and the back Michael Beacham

Jade Mason

How has your view about acting changed from the beginning of the play to the end?

At the beginning I was all worried about memorizing my lines and trying to get the relations just perfect, but Icae to realize that, that will just stress you out. Near the end I got on stage the reactions cae naturally. Basically my view about acting has changed by actually experiencing it, and I love it even more now because of that.

MARCHING TO A

The Chorus classes of this year were by far the best. In the fall semester the choir had the pleasure of performing at the Festival of Trees along with performing for audiences at their fall concert and Christmas concert. This year the choir teamed up with the band for a joint concert. Mrs. Campobasso seemed pleased with the turn-out of students this year. She said, "Many people assume that because Chorus is an Arts class, it doesn't require any work or commitment. The people in Chorus and Mariner Singers this year would tell you differently. They've worked hard at singing better, performing better, and learning more about music itself. They've studied how to read music, how to write it, the history of music, and even what the music industry is like. I'm really impressed with how willing everyone is to come in each day and learn and help each other. That's what makes my job a fun one!"

Mrs. Campobasso warms up her Mariner Singers.

Different Tune

Mrs. Campobasso directs the choir.

Maia Evans and Julie Taylor became best friends in chorus this year. Maia Evans said, "My favorite thing about chorus is the life long friends we make along the way! (insert sarcastic laugh here)"

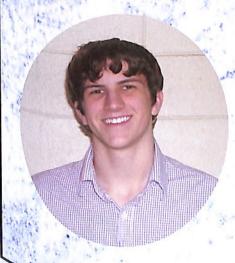

Lessie Carter had positive feelings about chorus. "Chorus is a greaf experience. People should really try it!"

Nathan Sandlin is a Mariner Singer's veteran. He said, "Music is a great escape to express one's self."

Cameron Cotham had the pleasure of making this year his first year of chorus. The thing he liked best about it was the crazy quotes everyone comes up with such as: "Restrained joy? What is that? Like when Beavis does his crazy thing with no singing?"

69: Favorite

Classic Rock and Country music combinations are very popular here at ECHS. Brittany Hancock favores these genres: "I was raised on that kind of music" she says. Her favorites run from AC/DC to George Straight to Led Zeppelin.

Tyrone Murphy enjoys
Reggae and R&B.
Among his favorites
are Bob Marley, Usher and Soulchild. "The music helps me think and I really like the lyrics."

Alan Bell listens to Country, and Josh Wilson listens to Rap, yet they both enjoy Rock music. Young Joc is Josh's favorite Rap artist. He says: "it expresses me."

Music

Teesha Henry and Calli Wiltshire like two entirely different genres of music. Calli listens to Rock and Emo, and her favorite artist is Hello Goodbye. On the other hand, her favorite Rap, Hip Hop, and R&B artist is Alicia Keys. Calli says her music preference is, "an influence from her friends."

Mandy Bland likes Rap, Hip Hop, Pop, Country; she likes it all. Her favorite artist is Rhianna. "I like the beat," she replies.

Eric Willis and Stephen Vann both listen to Rap, Hip
Hop, and R&B.
Stephen says "It represents my culture." They both share the same
favorite artist,
Camron. Eric says,
"it's just who i am."

Is Dating Better...

Some students here at East give you their opinion on how they feel about the realtionship they're in, or not in.

Sophomore Alyssa Pence and senior Andrew Courman have been dating for a little over a year now. She states, "I love having him at school with me and I'll miss him once he's graduated."

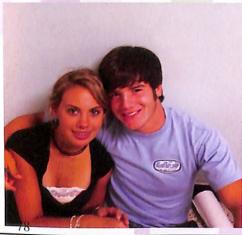

Junior Brooke Willis, with boyfriend Stephen Behan, a senior, states, "We've been dating for 4 months now. I really love him. We get along great and have a lot of fun together."

Senior Aaron Moore and junior Candice Fodrie have been dating on and off for the past year. Candice states, "I love him and I'm going to miss him here at school when he graduates."

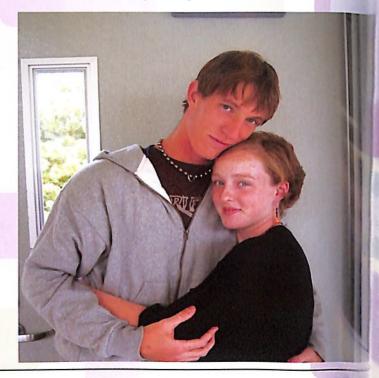

Juniors Dustin
Cain and Audrianna Rose have been dating for 8 months. Dustin states, "I've enjoyed every minute of it and I love her so much."

Senior Nathan Wade and sophomore Kimberly Lewis have been dating for 9 months. Nathan stated, "I will miss her once I graduate. I love her alot."

Senior Patrick Burke and Junior Mandy Leake are a one of a kind couple. They've been dating for a year and 9 months. Mandy states, "I love him a lot. He does everything for me."

"No one in this school is worth dating, so I just stay single," claims freshman Kayley Willis, giving her opinion of why she stays single.

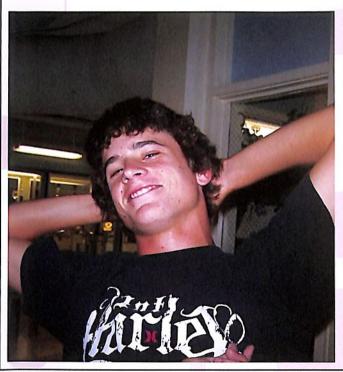

Timmy Potter states "I love being single. There's no need for the ladies to worry, there's enough Timmy to go around."

Than Being Single?

Freshman Dylan Gillikin gives his opinion on why being single is great. "I don't like the baby mama drama...so I stay single."

Freshman Spence Mead claims, "I like being single. It gives me a chance to swim with all the fish in the sea, not just one at a time."

Junior Kaselun
Riggs claims that she likes being single because she can hang out with whomever
she wants and not have to answer to anyone.

Sophomores and also best friends, Sam Taylor and Holly Moore claimed that they liked being single because they don't have anyone to be attached to, plus, they haven't found the right one yet.

For Art's Sake!

ECHS NAHS Draws In Another Great Year!

The 2005-2006 school year brought new and exciting ventures for the ECHS NAHS. The club still maintained the regular creative stature of years before, with twice weekly meetings where members are free to do self-satisfactory art work. Also, the club once again participated in an annual art show and helped the Once Upon A Mattress cast bring their set to life with medieval masterpieces such as stone walls and decorative flags. However, this year also brought original ideas to the organization such as the Sidewalk Art Contest at the annual Seafood Festival, Emily Brearey, President of the society. concocted the fundraiser which brought together both the public and students in the colorful montage of creations. In addition, Mrs. Gillikin had exciting news when she received a Bright Ideas grant from Carteret-Craven Electric Cooperative for her innovative plan of student created greeting cards. The clubs success continues to bring together both established creativity) and novel visions.

Emily Currier, Senior, works on her unique colored self-portrait which was displayed county art show. "I enjoyed the chance to bold colors. Just as with all art it was difficulties that the outcome was rewarded."

Matthew Gillikin, junior, works on the potwheel, perfecting the "centering" stage before conconts beautiful clay creation

Mrs. Gillikin, the merry artistic guru of NAHS. "I began NAHS at East Carterepto give students a rewarding experience after school hours. I really enjoy that it is a time when imaginations can be cut loose!"

Junior Mandy Leake (lower left) adorns her yibrant self, portrait during NAHS. Mandy said, "even though this is my first year in NAHS Lam looking forward to the different projects I will complete in the years to come!"

Below is the entire art society gathered together in the courtyard.

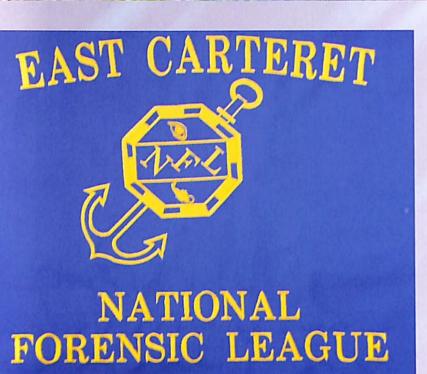

Senior Emily Brearey, President of NAHS, said, "we have done a lot with NAHS this year like the Sidewalk Art Cotest. It was lots of fun and I hope NAHS continues to hold the contest for years to come!"

Afton Duckworth, Senior, commented about NAHS, "NAHS is a great time to really experience artistic adventures and to catch up on late work!"

Rebecca Goldsworth and Kristina Collins, Sophmore Secretaries of NAHS, said, "both of us really like that we can go to the art room and work on projects just for the sheer pleasure of it."

Beta Club

Together Helping Others, We can make a Difference

People often wonder what is BETA Club and how can I be apart of that organization? The answers to those questions are very easy and simple, first of all to be in the BETA Club you must be a Junior or a Senior. Also you must have an average of 90 and a Grade Point Average of 3.5. When asked how did you become apart of BETA Club, Brittany Hancock says, I really worked hard to get into the BETA Club, so its great to finally get rewarded for all that work. BETA Club is an organization were their main objective is charity fundraisers, to help those with CF which is Cystic Fibrosis. I love that the clubs focus is on helping people in the community, such as the Cystic Fibrosis Valentines fundraiser, states Whitney Saulter. Mrs. Englehardt describes the BETA Club in one word saying, Outstanding, because BETA Club students represents the best East Carteret has to offer.

Leading the Way

The staff here at ECHS help students in several ways, by helping them become the future successful citizens that we need to be. Mrs. Willis tells us, "I graduated from East, so coming out on the "other side" of things is amazing. The most memorable moment would have to be when we disected the pigs. It was great seeing all of the kids reactions and seeing them learning and getting pretty grossed out!" Mrs. Edwards states, "I love the people out here, everyone works together for the benefits of all students. The students are the best!

- 1. Officer Miller takes a break from his hard working job!
- 2. Stopping from grading papers, Ms. Willis smiles for the camera.
- 3. Mr. Mason works hard to make up football plays for game night.
- 4. Mrs. Ragsdale tells her class to behave!
- 5. Preparing a quiz for her 4th period class, Mrs. Quick says, "HI".

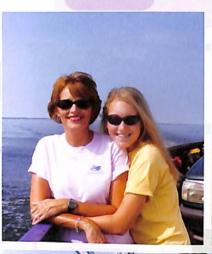

- 6. Mr. Barnes strolls down the hall back to class.
- 7. Cleaning up after an experiment, Mrs. Sanders smiles towards the camera.
- 8. Mrs. Campobasso helps a student with a question.
- 9. Mr. Colvin reviewing student grades before the deadline.
- 10. Carefully Mrs. Schooley grades work that she will pass back later.

Teacher of the Year

Margo Davis Fulford had a very pleasant life growing up in eastern Cateret County; Harkers Island, N.C. She attended Harkers Island Clementary, School from 1 st grade through 8 th grade. Margo Fulford attended Cast Carteret High School from 1976-1980. She graduated from Cast Carolina University in 1984 where she majored in Home Conomics (which is now Family and Consumer Science). Margo Fulford is now married to John Fulford and they have a daughter, Margeret, who is a sophomore at Cast Carteret. Margo Fulford likes to read, cook, and go to Cape Lookout with her family, in her spare time. She considers it a provilege to be chosen as Teacher of the Year by her peers at Cast Carteret.

In Loving Memory of Curtis "Rambous" Stryon

Crat Stryon was someone that everyone knew. He lived in Alantic, N.C. all of his life. He was the son of Becky and Cratis Stryon. He loved to hang out with his friends, go out on the boat, and have a good time. He will forever be loved and missed.

Foreign Language Club

Adds An Exotic Twist To ECHS

This diverse club added excitement to the year by sponsoring a trip to Peru. Five East Carteret students participated in the impressive adventure, along with the club's instructor, Mrs. Stroup, and a few intrigued relatatives. Mrs. Stroup commented, "Peru is an awesome country! We saw the beauty of Lima, the mountains and Incas of Machu Piechu, and the Amazon jungle. Traveling is such a great way to learn about and understand new cultures! Not only were our students able to practice and learn Spanish, but they experienced new foods, customs, and faces of the Peruvian people." When asked what was best liked by the voyagers, Mrs. Stroup said: "monkeys, alpaco (Ilama) meat, Jungle Man, shopping, silver, and of course Peruvian people." Along with this exhilarating trip, the group also gathers regulary to participate in crafts and fun focusing on their common interests in other countries cultures.

Above the students participate in afterschool crafts and activities for the club. Senior Olivia Thayer, the President of Foreign Language Club, commented, "I plan to use foreign languages in my future career when I move to Europe, so I love having a club in which other people share my interests."

Guard girls...

Guard is something for everyone. If you love to dance and be challgened then this is it! You will travel all across the eastcoast and sometimes farther than that!

Since all of us girls spend so much time together we are like one big family.. we even fight like a family too, but most likely a girl your in guard with is going to be one of your friends forever. Also everyone says guard is full of drama, yes it really is. But we always get through it.

Casey, La Queita, and Renee practice their show.

Casey, Challie, and Renee stop from watching the game for a quick pic

The freshman Sarah, Chelesea, Larissa, and Brianne take time out to take a picture at one of the football games.

We have a new guard coach this year. Emily Styron, she is doing a lot with this program, and all the girls love her. Emily is great at everything she does, and takes time out of her day to help us even after school when she could be at home. We at East are lucky to have her as a quard instructor!!

I stayed in band because I can express myself through my music

Robin Garner 12th

I left band and then came back. I missed the experience, and the competition. I missed the feeling of standing out on the field and having our name called out for first place. Music is a way of expression.

Once again the Marching Mariners gather their items needed for their competition.

The best part of being percussion is performing. I love the rush when performing a piece that we have worked on for so long... receiving the medals at the end helps too:

Allie Chadwick 11th

This being my first year here at ECHS has been really awesome: Being able to come to school and know people has been helpful.

Josh Head 11th

Being Drum Major as a junior I was excited, but also very nervous because I didn't know what to expect. I also felt proud to be chosen.

Laura Harker 11th

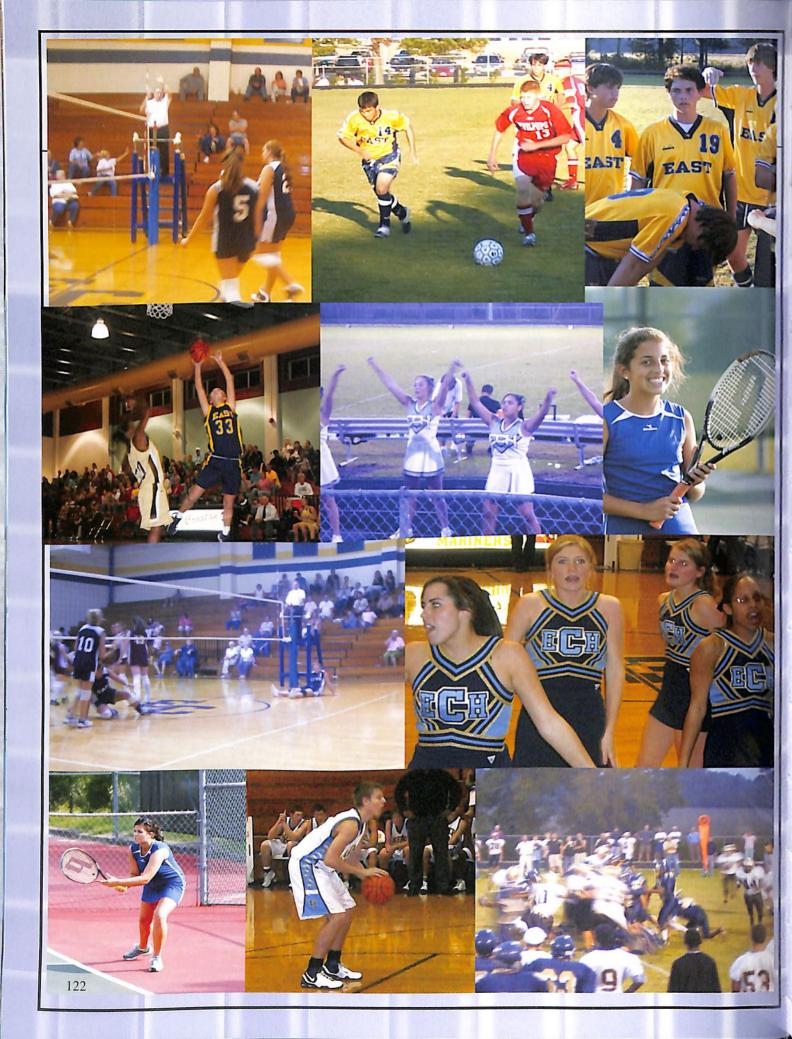

My first competition was kind of scary, but after it was over I felt a lot better because I knew we did really good:

Drew Grice 9th

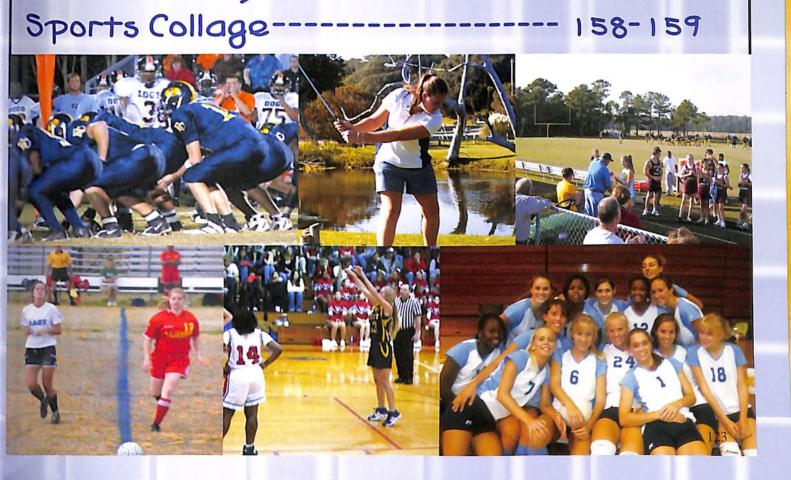

I enjoyed being Drum Major this season. It's a great learning experience for me, considering how I plan to major in Music Education.

Coach Kiefer

"I am extremely pleased with all that the '06 Mariners football team has accomplished. Being undefeated conference champs for the second consecutive year and advancing to the third round of the playoffs for an unprecedented 3rd year in a row are outstanding defeats. This year's group of 5 seniors have been instrumental in turning the East Carteret football program into a perennial contender. This season's 12-2 record ups the three year total to 35 victories with only 7 defeats in those three years. In addition, this year's edition of the Mariners ended the season ranked #6 in the state! I am very grateful for the outstanding effort by our players and coaches, the tremendous support from Mr. Holloway and the entire administration, and the encouragement of the faculty, parents, and fans. # Kickin' up Sand

East Carteret's varsity boys soccer team was full of brand new faces this vear. The Mariners had only two returning starters from what had been a competitive team in a tough conference in the prior years. At one time, it was only hopeful that enough would try out for a team this year. Although most were young and inexperienced, the students that came out were willing to learn and displayed good work ethic. The mariners were not as successful as years past, but used this season as a learning and rebuilding time. Throughout it all, the players were very persistent and optomistic, and looking forward to next season...

What motivated you to play soccer again this year? "Being the starting goalie"

What are your hopes for your senior season? "To grow as a team and for the underclassmen to gain experience"

How did this season comare to last season? "Personally I feel more confident and skilled as an individual player"

How was your first season playing for East Carteret? "I enjoyed it even though we didn't do very well. We'll be ready next year..."

How did your role change this year? "I had to step up and be a leader, As a captain, I tried to set an example for the younger players."

What motivated you to play before every game? "Diaz letting me play offense in practice... although I didn't get to play there a lot in games."

What was your favorite memeory from this season? "Only losing 3-0 to Havelock..."

Two Years and Counting!!

One year of wrestling was obviously not enough for East. Our boys have had an outstanding year and are hoping to have an even better one next year.

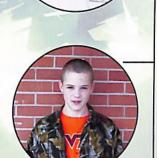

Some of the members of the team have admitted that this year has been very tough, but have said that the long and rough practices were well worth it in the end.

The wrestling team has made East very proud these past two years and we are very anxious to see what they are going to bring us next year!

The man that had a tremendous impact on the wrestling teams' success: Coach Mason.

1-Zack Fulcher (jr)-"I have been on the team for 2yrs now and the thing i like most about it is just wrestling its self."

2-John Haught(jr)-"wrestling was a lot of hard work but getting out on the mat and getting a win for East was a great feeling. It taught me responsibility by going to practice and having to get on weight. It was a great experience and i'm looking froward to next season."

3-Devon Osborne(so)-"This season was great."

YEARBOOK

We asked Yearbook teacher Ms.
West what it was like being the "new yearbook teacher" and teaching a yearbook class for the first time. In reply she told us, "It was definately an experience."

When asked what was her favorite part of being on the yearbook committee, Junior Michele Fulcher stated, "I like being part of such an important event and being able to help contribute in making something that is so important to the school."

Junior Rebecca Styron told us she liked being on the yearbook committee so much because she likes being able to work on something for the school and watch as it all comes together.

When we asked Senior Nasya Shepard what makes her keep deciding to come back to be on the yearbook committee so many times, she stated, "I enjoy what we do. Even though there are some struggles with getting it done, I can truely say that I will miss it!"

We asked both Ashley Gray and Ashley Smith, otherwise known as "The Ashley's", what was their favorite part of making the yearbook, they told us, "Getting it done!"

"A NEW CHANGE IN THE EAST WIND"

The cycle continues of "New Yearbook Teachers". Not knowing in the beginning what she was getting into, or what the outcome would be. She learns the techniques and ALL of the components included in the making of the yearbook. Once they learned how to put together a yearbook, with the exceptions of a few difficulties, the yearbook soon began to produce a flow at a fast speed. The producing of a yearbook is lengthy, stressful, and [very] complicated at times. But with the help of some diligent students this can be accomplished. Luckily, for Ms. West, she was fortunate enough to have some students like this who have had Yearbook in the past, and really enjoy it. They are the ones who all worked together, asked, "Ms. West what else needs to be done?," and yes ma'am I will get this done for you, I can do that. Overall, Ms. West and her dedicated yearbook staff ended up producing the "2007 Yearbook."

Temple Earl Chadurck

It was the first day of Summer 1989. GOD gave us a miracle, a beautiful brown eyed baby boy.

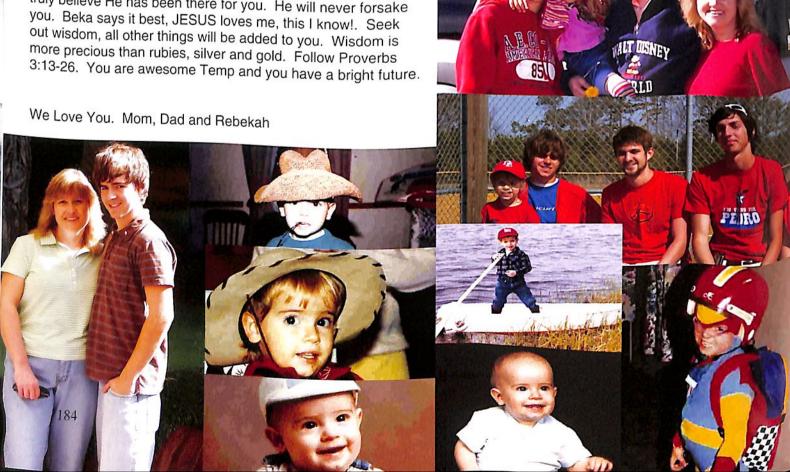

Over the years: Shrimping with Granddaddy, sleeping by the culling tray. You were rockin the boat, with the Skiff on Rockers Sammy Guthrie built you. Fishin and Huntin with Dad. Buddy, remember that first Fishing Duck at Great Marsh? You survived Mrs. Pigotts class (4th & 5th grade).and are all the better for it. Thank her sometime. That 91 S-10 hauled the most sports equipment and youngins. It was all worth it. You guys have grown up so quick.

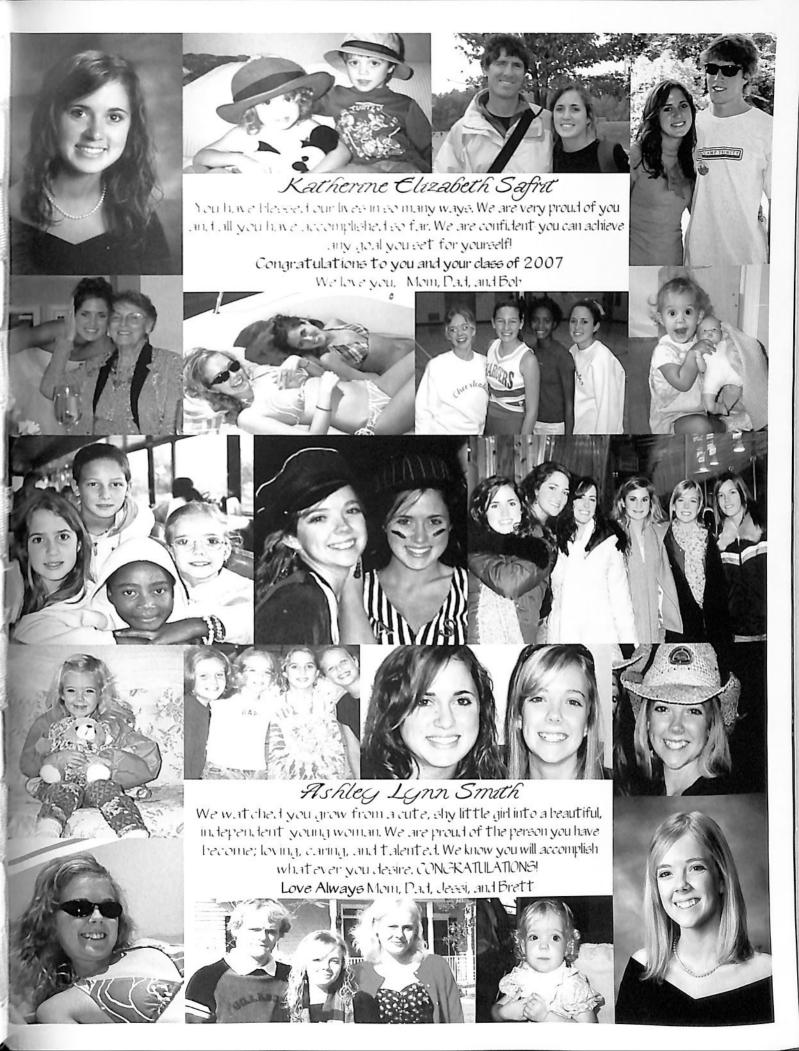

At 12, you finally got a sibling (Rebekah Lynne Grace). Praise GOD for another miracle. And what a Bubby she has had----She grew closer to you than to Mom and Dad.

As is always the case, new friendships are forged in high school. You have made many. FEZSara seemed to have kept you on the straight and narrow. She was certainly a nice girl (kickin your American butt scholastically). And how about that unforgettable trip to Germany. In case you're wondering, that will cover as a senior trip, a birthday and Christmas for three more years. Memories, to be treasured forever. What a season to remember!

Oh......MMM! Yeah.....At three years old, he came complete with a superhero costume, cape and mask. It was none other thandunt dunt da Mighty Muscle Man. He was creating joy in our hearts back then and LORD willing, will for many years!

You are a great guy & a great friend to others. We thank GOD (daily) for the son you are and will continue to be. As we have prayed for GODs hedge of protection over the years, we truly believe He has been there for you. He will never forsake

This year Mr. Diaz's Latin III class were asked to assist the U.S. Coast Guard based at Fort Macon to create a motto for their challenge coin for their division. The request was then turned into a contest for the students and whomevers motto was chosen would then win the contest and would receive special recognition. The following students were in that class: Emily Jurow, Brittany Pittman, Marina Amrein, Oasis Ellison, Claire McCune, Daniel Murphy, Julie Taylor, Jessica Lawrence, Samantha Salter, John Cofer, Brittany Hancock, Glenn Fonseca and Jordan Guthrie. The winner was Daniel Murphy.

Above: Mr. Holloway, Mr. Diaz, Daniel Murphy and Deputy Commander Case stop to smile as Deputy Commander Case hands the first minted challenge coin to the winner.

Mr. Diaz was awarded the second minted challenge coin. He went on to say that this was one of the highlights of his career.

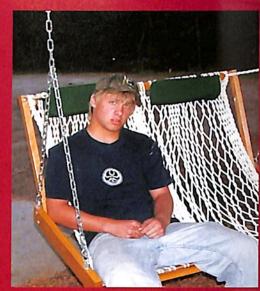

Mr. Holloway was awarded a plaque for the academic excellence that the Latin III students had shown through the contest.
