BEING A BULLDOG

Being a Bulldog is great you see
But sometimes it has its difficulties
Ups and downs, you never know
Being a Bulldog has its throws

But I love being a Bulldog so much you see
And my friends are alongside to help me
Life as a Bulldog, I never knew
Just exactly how much I could do

ADMINISTRATION

YOUR ATTITUDE...

REFLECTS YOUR PAST,
DESCRIBES YOUR PRESENT AND PREDICTS YOUR FUTURE.

The topic of attitude can be confusing. In fact, as we go through life we often hear phrases like: 'keep your chin up', 'look on the bright side', or 'you need a winning attitude.' Unfortunately, we seldom know how to convert these soft sayings into hard results. The great news is that even in the worst situations your attitude is something you can always control!

DR. TOMON, PRINCIPAL

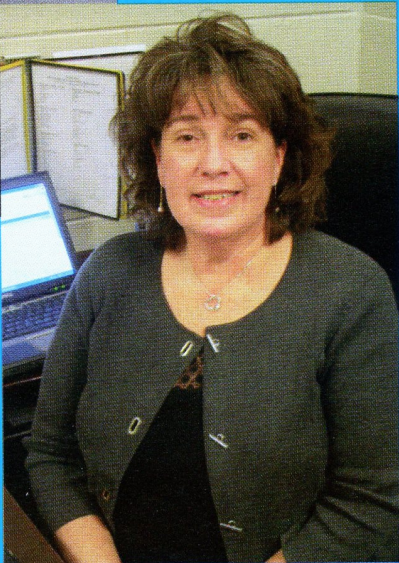

The words we use are more powerful than you can imagine. There is power in the words that we use, the things that we say and the things that we do. Think before you speak! You have two ears and one mouth, which means you need to listen twice as much as you speak.

SIXTH GRADE

Being a sixth grader is great, but it can be challenging at times. Coming into sixth grade definitely gives a lot of people butterflies in their stomachs, but before you know it, you are having fun, walking down the halls singing, "Red Robin, Yummm!"

The two teams are Marlin and Sailfish. Teachers on both teams have certain personalities that make everyone laugh, learn, and have fun!

A Note about the Teachers:
Mr. Koczot is definitely the jokester on the Marlin team and he uses too much hair gel! Watch out, Mrs. Storms has eyes in the back of her head! Mrs. Briley is always into the sports and loves ECU! Math class on the Sailfish team is always fun because Mr. Weist is super cool!

Being a seventh grader is like being the cream inside the Oreo. You're stuck between the sixth and eighth grade, but you get more privileges like playing sports. Some say that seventh grade is not as challenging as sixth grade because you now know the school better.

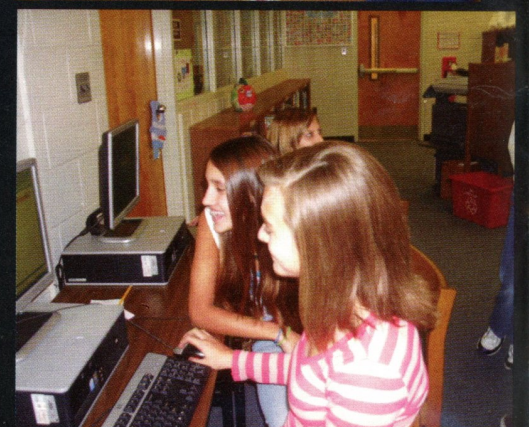

SEVENTH GRADE

During your seventh grade year, you review everything from the sixth grade and learn a lot more material to prepare for the eighth grade. You're making lots of new friends and finding new academic challenges everyday.

The Sunfish and the Emperor Fish are the two teams on the seventh grade hall. Both teams have great teachers!

HARD AT WORK

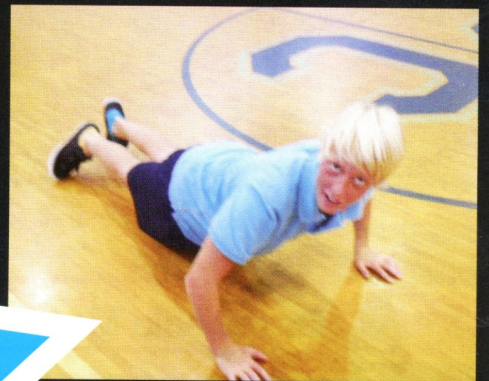

Sixth and seventh grade prepared you for eighth grade. You've gained knowledge and memories were made from your previous years. High school is just around the corner and middle school is slipping away!

EIGHTH GRADE

Eighth grade teachers are fun and encouraging. Each of them have unique personalities and different methods of teaching. All of the teachers have high expectations for you to work hard, but they want you to have fun while your working!

The three P's...Prompt, Prepared, and Polite. This is the key to eighth grade. Obey these three rules and you will have a great 8th grade year!
